THE GREAT EASTERN QUESTION.

The Policy of the English Government Explained Again in Parliament—All Danger of the Renewal of the War Over—It's the Peace that Troubles Everybody's Mind.

LONDON, Feb 9.—Answering the assertion that the statements of the government have been mere generalities, Lord Harlington conveyed the impression that it was his belief that the government did not even know their policy themselves. He continued, that although he had opposed the vote as long as it was possible, that it might encourage the Turks to prolong the war, he did not feel it his duty to continue the opposition now. In justification of this course, he pointed to the ministry's energetic repudiation of a desire to involve the country in a war and their expressions of sympathy for the Christians of Turkey.

Sir Stafford Northcote expressed his satisfaction at Lord Harlington's speech. He explained the government's policy as follows: The government recognized the great change which had taken place in southeastern Europe, and claimed a voice in the reconstruction of the system of its government. They desired to have the navigation of the straits and access to the Black Sea so fixed as to insure the perfect freedom of commerce. They did not wish to ask for any restrictions, and thought the question as to the passage of the men-of-war might fairly be left for conference. The arrangement should certainly be such as to render it impossible for any power to close the straits. They desired a vote so that any reasonable claim of England might not be disregarded by the conference, but they had no desire to arrogate the settlement to themselves and repudiate the desire to cripple the development of the Christian races.

Mr Gladstone, while approving the declaration as to the policy of the government, still considered it indefinite. He did not see that it should be a necessity for a vote.

Mr Henry Farniet, Liberal, censured the course of Lord Harlington in relinquishing the opposition. Mr Forster protested against the vote, but declared he had withdrawn his amendment so as not to inflame the excitement of the country.

The debate having terminated, the House divided the vote of six millions was adopted as follows: For the vote, 328; against, 124; majority in favor, 204.

In the House of Lords, Lord Derby announced that the foreign power had already applied to the Porte for a firman to permit its fleet to enter Turkish waters.

A special from Rome to the Daily News says Prince Bismarck has instructed the German ambassador at Rome that the German refrains from all interference till a new Pope is elected, after which event, she may take action.

The Times' Berlin dispatch says if a moderate Pope is elected, Germany is expected to make overtures for an understanding.

The Times approves the government's action in sending a portion of the fleet to Constantinople. It says: "All danger of the renewal of the war, between Turkey and Russia is now over. The Russians are practically masters of Constantinople. Nothing remains for us to be concerned about, but a due settlement of the terms of peace and the protection of our immediate interests. Russia is under an honorable pledge not to advance further. Should she do so under any pretext, she would incur the suspicion and excitement of this country, of which the last two days have afforded some dangerous premonitory symptoms but if she will loyally restrain her forces, even within the limits fixed by the armistice, there is no reason why the conditions of a permanent peace should not be temperately discussed and deliberately determined at a conference."

The 61st regiment will leave Dover to-day for Portsmouth, to embark for Malta.

It is stated that the Russians have captured one hundred and twenty thousand men, including twenty Pashas, and one thousand cannon during the war.

The Times' Vienna correspondent, telegraphing last evening, says: "Russia, besides her exception taken to Vienna as the place for holding the conference, announced that she had some other observations to make which were sent by a special messenger, and are expected here this evening."

It can scarcely be expected that now when to a certain extent Russia, has already exercised the right of treating alone with Turkey, she will fully recognize the equal rights of other signatories to approve, reject or modify all points of her separate agreement, and it is more than probable that she will insist on certain points as not debatable by the conference.

The Central News says a telegram has been received by the admiralty that neither Russia nor Turkey will object to the British fleet going to Constantinople.

Preparations for Electing the Successor to the Pope—All Amusements Suspended in Rome—Decided to Hold the Conclave There—Cardinal McClekey Leaves for Rome.

Cardinal Simeoni has ceased to exercise the functions of Secretary of State. The conduct of affairs devolves upon Monsignor Lasagnieri, of the sacred college of cardinals.

The Official Gazette (Italian) pays a tribute of eulogy to Pius IX, and promulgates the orders for a suspension of public amusements while the remains are lying in state.

The Italian says the congregation of cardinals decided only by a majority of three to hold the conclave in Rome. It will wait for the arrival of the foreign cardinals before taking any final resolution.

NEW YORK, Feb 9.—Cardinal McClekey, unaccompanied, sailed for Europe in the steamer City of New York, to take part in the Roman conclave. A large number of clergy, Bishop McNamey, of Albany, Bishop Waddens, of Ogdensburg, and Vicar General Quinn, assembled to see him off and bid him adieu.

SPARKS FROM THE WIRES.

A telegram has been received in London from the Peruvian Guano Co, which states that a strong tidal wave has swept the coast of Peru. The Callao males have been severely damaged. No ship at the guano deposits was injured.

The total damages by the cyclone at Augusta, Ga, will amount to a little over $50,000. The last vestige of the hurricane disappeared in South Carolina. Reports are rife of damage in a neighboring county south of Augusta. The weather was cloudy and windy all day.

The flags on the public buildings in New York were at half mast, to-day, out of respect to the memory of the late Pope Pius IX.

Revenue Raids in Tennessee—Fight Between Distillers and Revenue Officers.

NASHVILLE, Feb 9.—A letter from revenue parties, now raiding in Jackson county, gives the details of a desperate encounter with some distillers. The latter were strongly fortified at Campbell Morgan's distillery, and threatened death to all assailants. On the approach of the revenue party Morgan fired from port holes, when the revenue officers returned the fire, battering Morgan's rifle. Morgan fired again with another rifle, and the fight became general. Morgan finally called out that he would surrender, and threw open the door, when it was discovered that he was wounded in both arms. The revenue officers then destroyed the distillery. The party afterwards raided Macon county, destroying three illicit distilleries.

Failures in England.

LONDON, Feb 9.—It is reported that a considerable failure has occurred in the grain trade. It is understood that the firm in trouble is Mayde Bros, of Belfast.

The employees of the Oldham mill have been given notice that the mills will be closed on the 21st of February, in consequence of the weavers' notice that they intend to leave work on account of the reduction of five per cent. in the wages.

A Very Good Reason.

The reason why only one sample bottle of Merrell's Hepatins for the Liver will be sold to the same person, for ten cents, by our druggists, in Charlotte, is because of the enormous expense of importing the Hepatins into this country, but as there are fifty cents in the large size bottles, it seems two cents a dose is cheap enough for a medicine that cures dyspepsia and liver complaint. All who have not had a sample bottle are entitled to one for ten cents at all druggists. These doses relieve any case of dyspepsia, constipation, indigestion or liver complaint, in the world. Regular size bottles, fifty doses $1.

A CARD.

To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a receipt that will cure you FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the Rev JOSEPH T LEMAY, Station D, Bible Home, New York City.

LYON'S KATHAIRON,

Discovered thirty-five years ago by Prof. Lyon, of Yale, is the most perfect preparation in the world for preserving and beautifying the hair.

Besides being the best hair dressing ever produced, Lyon's Kathairon will store new hair to bald heads, if the ota and follicles are not destroyed.

It actually performs these seeming miracles of which the following is

A FAIR SPECIMEN.

I had been entirely bald for several years, constitutional, I suppose. I used a few bottles of Kathairon, and, to my great surprise, it gave a thin growth of young hair.

COOL JOHN L. DORRANCE, U. S. A. In every important respect the Kathairon is absolutely incomparable. It is unequalled.

BEAR IN MIND.—The Kathairon is a sticky paste of sulphur and sugar-of-lead, to be used and dand the hair and paralyze the brain. It is a pure and limpid vegetable lotion, intended to restore the hair by natural growth and rejuvenation. It is splendidly perfumed, and the most delightful toilet dressing known. No lady or gentleman's toilet outfit is complete without Lyon's Kathairon.

WHAT EVER.

Affects his mind affects his body. A gentleman in this city said to me a few days ago I am almost sure I should have died in my last severe spell of sickness.
