Washington, Feb 16 .- The text of the silver bill, as passed by the Senate, is as follows : An act to authorize the coinage of the standard silver dollar, and to restore its legal tender character : Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled: That there shall be coined at the several mints of the United States, silver dolors are greasenably prudent, there is no mints of the United States, silver dollars of the weight of 412½ grains Troy, of standard silver, as provided in the act of January 18, 1837, on which shall be the devices and superscriptions prowided by said act, which coins, together trainty committee and consented to with all silver dollars heretofore coined address a public meeting of workmen with all silver dollars heretofore coined by the United States, of like weight and of London on the Eastern question.

The object of the meeting is stated to ficial effect. Appetite returns, the system is refreshed by healthful slumber, the nerves refreshed by healthful slumber, the nerves public and private, except where otherwise expressly stipulated in the contract; and the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to purchase from time to time silver bullion at the market price thereof, not less than $2,000,000 worth per month, nor more than $4,000,000 worth per month, and cause the same to be coined monthly, as fast as so purchased, into such dollars; and a sum sufficient to carry out the foregoing provisions is bereby appropriated out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, and any gain or seigniories arising from this comage shall be accounted for and paid into tl e Treasury, as provided under existing laws relative to the subsidiary coinage; Provided, That the amount of money at any one time invested in such silver bullion, exclusive of such resulting coin, shall not exceed $5,000,000, and, provided further, that nothing in this act shall be construed to authorize the payment the Revised Statutes. Section 2 That immediately after the passage of this act, the President shall invite the governments of the such place in Europe or in the United States at such time within six months as may be mutually agreed upon by the executives of the governments joining in the same.

Whenever the governments so invited, or any three of them shall have signified their willingness to unite in the same, the President shall, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, appoint three commissioners who shall attend such conference on behalf shall attend such conference on behalf of the United States, and shall report the doings thereof to the President, who shall transmit the same to Congress. Said commissioners shall receive the sum of two thousand five hundred dollars and their reasonable expenses, to be approved by the Secre-tary of State, and the amount necessary to pay such compensation and ex penses is hereby appropriated out of any money in the Treasury not other-

A New York dispatch says one of the causes of the decline of eighteen points in the price of cotton, yesterday, below the closing price of the day before, was the selling out of between 12,000 and 15,000 bales of the account of the firm of Leverich & Co, who suspended yesterday. Their liabilities were reported to be between $20,000 and $25,000.

London, Feb 16.—Reuter's has received the following dispatch from Constantinople, under date of Friday night. "Namyk Pasha has gone to Russian headquarters charged with the endeavor to dissuade Grand Duke Nicholas from occupying Constantinople."

The Russians on Friday morning occupied the Samedic redoubt, which is a part of the Constantinople line of defence. Although Austria as remonstrated against the occupation of Constantinople, she will not abandon her present attitude, if the occupation is accomplished peacefully, and with the consent of Turkey. Russia has notified the Porte that she has prevailed upon Greece to adopt a pacific attitude.

A Very Good Reason.

The reason why only one sample bottle of Merrell's Hepatine for the Liver will be sold to the same person, for ten cents, by our druggists, in Charlotte, is because of the enormous expense of importing the Hepa-tine into this country, but as there are fifty eses in the large size bottles, it seems two cents a dose is cheap enough for a medi-cine that cures dyspepsia and liver complaint. All who have not had a sample bottle are entitled to one for ten cents at all druggists. Three doses relieves any case of dyspepsia, constipation, indigestion or liver complaint, inthe world Regular size botles, fity doses $1.
