S. WITKOWSKY, Jobber in General Merchandise.

Charlotte, N. C., March 1st, 1878. Ever anxious to maintain intact the enviable reputation of THE OLD HOUSE as a first-class WHOLESALE AND RETAIL ESTABLISHMENT, myself with a number of Wholesale Houses in other States have jointly engaged a gentleman in New York, of very large experience, as our General Agent, whose duty it is to constantly watch the markets, taking advantage of every decline, and to attend the large TRADE SALES, buying by the side of the largest Houses in the United States.

The joint purchases of my combination amount annually to the enormous sum of about FIVE MILLION DOLLARS, which I deem sufficient argument of the great advantages I possess, and which no other House in this section can lay claim to. The varied nature of my immense stock forbid particularizing, nor have I the inclination to bolster up one line of Goods at the expense of another, by offering one line or article less than cost, and make it up on the other. I prefer continuing the fair, legitimate business to offer EACH and EVERY article at the lowest market price. Every Department will be complete by the 10th March, and I hope to have the pleasure of seeing you this Spring personally, making your purchases or sending me your orders, which will have my undivided attention. I call your particular attention to my extraordinary stock of Shoes, Hats and Notions. These lines have received my particular consideration. S. WITKOWSKY.
