PROCEEDINGS OF CONGRESS. Eads Talking to the Levee Committee-Observ-

General News and Gossip.

Washington, Feb 22.—Senator Pat-terson introduced a bill yesterday to establish a naval station and depot at Port Royal, 8 C.

Port Royal, S.C.

Captain Eads addressed the Levee committee of Congress, and others, in the blue parlor at Willard's Hotel, to-day. Among those present were Messrs Robertson, Hatcher, Money, Young, Knapp, Martin and Pound, of the House Levee committee, and Senator Bruce, chairman, and Senator Cockrell, of the Senate committee; also, Senators Armstrong, Beck, Hereford and Hill, Representatives Chalmers, Conger and Springer, and Governor Brown and Captain Boffinger. One end of the room was covered by two immense charts showing the Mississippi river, its bends, islands, width of channel, etc, from St Louis to the Gulf Captain Eads' plan is to give uniform width to the father of waters from St Louis to his mouth, giving over 1,000 miles of sea navigation through 1,000 miles of sea navigation through the valley and reclaiming innumerable acres. The aid necessary is $50,000,000 and six years of time.

There is no session of either house and the departments are closed. MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

WASHINGTON, Feb 22.-Ex-Governor Brown, vice president of the Texas Pacific Railroad, concluded his argument to day before the Senate Pacific Railroad committee.

Chandler has written another letter under the caption of "Was Governor Hayes a Bargainer?" The letter proceeds: "Unquestionably he was. Much coquetting with Southern Democrats Messrs Foster, Matthews and others was to pay for the Presidency was the betrayal of Packard and Chamberlain, and the sacrifice of his own honor, but ly announced that the Turks comand the sacrifice of his own honor, but the fear of the loss of the Presidency with its $200,000 in money and its patronage was too much for him, and he deliberately paid the price. It would be cowardly to affect to think otherwise. If the subject is ever investigated by competent authority, it will doubtless be found out that he confirmed in some way the assurances the popular wish is to support Austria. firmed in some way the assurances given by his friends before Mr Levy proclaimed in the House that all was right, and Mr Ellis told Mr Hewitt that the count could proceed, and changed his vote and opposed fillibustering. At all events it is enough to convict him that his first act on arriving in Washington was to procure or advise an order from General Sherman withdrawing the federal support from Packard and inviting the White Leag-

It is not so much that the selling has been of a large amount as that it has been selling by actual holders and upon a market where there are few buyers. care to have them. Holders almost always become more disposed to sell as prices go down and very little pressure would cause a sharp fall. There is no cause for alarm and any rush to sell is much to be deprecated."

The St Petersburg correspondent of the Times telegraphs: "The state of feeling here in consequence of recent events, especially the speech of Prince Bismarck, is fairly represented by the following passage from an article in the Bedomosti; 'Ingratitude is the ordinary result of the self-sacrificing activity of Russia. We so accustomed to it that it no longer astonishes us.

to it that it no longer astonishes us. No sooner is the war finished than we meet on all sides intrigues and hostility, not only from powerful neighbors who can support their words by force, but even from powerless little States like Roumania and Greece."

The Daily Telegraph's Vienna corres-pondent attaches much importance to the statement that Emperor William has telegraphed to the Czar reminding him of his promise to fulfill certain duties towards Austria. The correspondent, however, fears the Czar has lost all control over the war party. The Sclave committees, he says, have more influence now than the Czar, and his

A Campaign Slander.

When Dr R V Pierce was a candidate for State Senator, his political opponents published a pretended analysis of his popular medicines, hoping thereby to prejudice the people against him. His election by an overwhelming majority severely rebuked his traducers, who sought to impeach his business integrity. No notice would have been taken of these campaign lies were it not that some of his enemies (and every success. that some of his enemies (and every successful business man has his full quota of envious rivals) are republishing these bogus analyses. Numerous and most absurd for-mulas have been published, purporting to come from high authority; and it is a sig-nificant fact that no two have been at all alike---conclusively proving the dishonesty of their authors.

The following is from the Buffalo Com-mercial, of Oct. 23d, 1877: THE LOUISIANA RETURNING BOARDERS.
