THE GREAT EASTERN QUESTION

Partially Settled---The Treaty of Peace Signed at Last-How the News was Received in Russia -England Still Uninformed as to all the Conditions-The Next Thing, the Conference of the Powers, Discussed.

London, March 4.—A special to the Standard from Vienna asserts that two divisions of Austrians will enter Bosnia in about ten travs.

The Standard's correspondent at Vienna, states that the Austrian and the British ambassadors are instructed to protest if the Russians enter Constan-

The Times' St Petersburg and Pera correspondents confirm the report that the treaty of peace has been signed. At St Petersburg the enthusiasm over the news of peace was unprecedented, the crowd before the palace shouting and singing, "God save the Czar."

The Pera correspondent says the treaty was signed Saturday. Thirty-one thousand troops were re-viewed at San Stefano. The Te Deum was sung amid great enthusiasm. The correspondent of the Times at San Stefano is able to state that neither the surrender of a portion of the Turkish fleet, nor a claim on the Egyptian tribute is included in the conditions; no interference with a portion of the Turkish revenue is hypothecated to foreign creditors. tinople, under date of March 3rd, by way of El Arich, says that previous to the signature of the treaty of peace, General Ignatieff demanded that Turkey should unite with Europe in de-fending all its stipulations before the conference. Safavet Pasha refused to accede to this. Gen Ignatieff then telegraphed to St Petersburg for instructions. It is not known how the question was settled. Russia agreed not to include Salonica, in Bulgaria. In the Finance committee Ingalls introduced a resolution repealing the charter of the National Capital Life million pounds originally claimed in addition to territorial cession was finally fixed at twelve million.

ST PETERSBURG, March 4.—Grand Duke Nicholas sent the following to the Emperor: "San Stefano, March 3.—I do myself the honor of congratulating Your Majesty upon the conclusion of peace. God has vouchsafed to us the happiness of accomplishing the holy work begun by Your Majesty, and on the anniversary of the enfranchisement of the serfs Your Majesty has delivered the Christians from the Mussulman yoke.'

The trestle bridge is sixty feet up from the ground, and about the same length, but the horses made the crossing, feeling their way in the darkness, step by step, every foot striking a tie securely, until the distance was tra-versed, and they stood in safety on the other side; and just in the nick of time, too, as the night express came thundering by in five minutes after the dring by in live minutes after the drummer and team had left the track. It is easy to imagine the terrible catastrophe that would have resulted had the train overtaken the horses and man on the bridge. The watchman at the end of the trestle halted the drummer as he drove off the track, but was told to mind his own business .- Philadelphia Times, 26th.

HYDROPATHIC TREATMENT APPLIED TO RAILROAD BUILDING .- One of the most serious obstacles met with by Major Wilson in the railroad work on the Blue Ridge, is known as the "Mud Cut." The removal of the earth from the bed of the road has started a slide from the mountain above of about six acres, which, for many months past, has been coming in as fast as it could be removed by 50 hands, smashing, displacing and defying all timbers put in to arrest it, Determined not to be outdone, the major has conceived the idea of making one element of nature fight another, and is now engaged in turning the course of a mountain torrent into a reservoir 80 feet above the "cut," and intends, with hose and pipe, to sluice per pair, 25c. out and wash away the loose earth as About 15 d t pushes in, until it ceases.

We have no doubt of the practica-bility of the plan, and shall look with interest to the result of this "water cure" for a bad cut, which we believe is good surgery.—Raleigh News.

But by many, "A Last Greeting" is considered his master-piece. It her fellow believers to descend into the represents a lovely maiden, who has been cast into the arens, in pagan Rome, to be devoured by the savage beasts, for the delectation of the inhuman mob. She leans against the encircling stone wall; at her feet, broken by their fall, lie some simple wild flowers; imploringly she looks up, seeking the hand from which they came. Her whole life, like some gigautic pano-rama, swiftly flashes through her feverish rama, swiftly flashes through her feverish brain, every act stands out with painful distinctness. Deeply she realizes how often that same strong hand, which now alone bestows a last farewell, had been proffered. Ably it would have protected, beside ensuring comfort, happiness, and health, had she not carelessly and disdainfully turned away. Women suffering from those chronic weaknesses peculiar to their sex are prone to just such actions. Every day they hear of the Favorite Prescription of Dr R V Pierce, of the World's Dispensary and Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y. Thousands of these sufferers write in universal commendation of its great excellence and worth. Once within the dreaded pale of disease, it is worse than folly to be careless, and delay the use of this positive means of cure. Ladies suffering from weakness, bearing-down pain, or weak back, and neryous prostration, will find this a specific remedy. On receipt of $1.50, "The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser," a book of over nine hundred large pages, will be sent post-paid. It contains a clear and concise description of the numerous diseases with which women are afflicted.
