MESHES OF THE LAW.

Judge Hughes Renders a Long Decision in the Famous Arlington Suit.

RICHMOND, VA, March 15.-In the Arlington case, which was argued at Alexandria, in the United States Circuit Court, before Judge Hughes, on the 2nd, 4th and 5th insts, the judge rendered his decision here to-day. General Custis Lee brought suit for ejectment last year against the occupants of the estate in the State courts court, where the Attorney-General intervened in behalf of the United States by a suggestion showing that the government had by record title attained by purchase at a tax sale in 1864, and was in possession for a public purpose, raising the question wheth-er this suit, being in fact a suit against the government, could proceed, and moving to dismiss for want of jurisdica tion. To this suggestion the plaintiff demurred and answered, and the case was heard and argued at Alexandria on the suggestion and demurrer. The decision rendered here to-day was confined to the law questions arising in the case as it stands upon tht record. The court held that the suggestion did not of itself defeat the jurisdiction, but that the court might look into the right to discover the grounds of the government's title, and of its right to ment held the estate in its sovereign

An Open Letter. It Speaks for Itself.

ROCKPORT, Mass., April 2d, 1877. Mr Editor : Having read in your paper reports of the remarkable cures of catarrh. I am induced to tell "what I know about catarrh," and I fancy the "snuff" and "in-haling-tube" makers (mere dollar grabbers) would be glad if they could emblazon a "similar cure in the papers. For 25 years I became completely closed. "Snuff," "dust, "ashes," "inhaling-tubes," and "sticks,"

All sense of smell and taste gone, sight and hearing impaired, body shrunken and weakened, neryous system shattered, and constitution broken, and I was hawking and spitting seven-eighths of the time. I prayed for death to relieve me of my suffering. A favorable notice in your paper of Dr Sage's Catarrh Remedy induced me to purchase package, and use it with Dr Pierce's Nasal Douche, which applies the remedy by hy drostatic pressure, the only way compatible with common sense. Well, Mr Editor, -it did not cure ma in three-fourths of a second nor in one hour or month, but in less than eight minutes I was relieved, and in three months entirely cured, and have remained the Catarrh Remedy, I used Dr Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery to purify my blood and strengthen my stomach. I also kept my liver active and bowels regular by the use of his Pleasant Purgative Pellets. If my experience will induce other sufferers to seek the same means of relief, this letter will have answered its purpose. Yours truly, S D REMICK,
