THE ECHOES OF THE WAR.

Russia Reported to be Exasperated by England's Persistence—Alleged War-Like Feeling in English Official Circles—Rumania Growing Independent—Reported Russo-Turkish Alliance—War Pronounced Inevitable—England Increasing Her Armament, &c.

LONDON, March 23.—A special to the Times from St. Petersburg says: "Rumors are in circulation that Russia has demanded that the British fleet quit the Sea of Marmora immediately."

LONDON, March 23.—A telegram from Vienna received in Paris states that Rumania has refused to receive independence at the hands of Russia or permit the passage of Russian troops through her territory during the occupation of Bulgaria.

BERLIN, March 23.—The North German Gazette says it is evident that Russia regards war with England as inevitable, and knows she was never better able to wage it than now.

LONDON, March 23.—The Times says: "An order for new torpedo vessels for the navy has been distributed among various ship builders, principally on the Thames."

CONSTANTINOPLE, March 23.—Fifty thousand Turkish troops are now encamped in the plain of Buyukdere, and there are fifty battalion lines defending Constantinople.

LONDON, March 23.—The Times' editorial this morning says: "The treaty proposes the creation of a new State in the Balkan peninsula, which would dwarf all others and which, supported by external influence, would inevitably strangle all other interests."

CHICAGO, March 23.—The Chicago & Alton, Chicago, Burlington and Quincy, Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific, Kansas City, St. Joseph and Council Bluffs, and the Hannibal and St. Joseph Railroads, through their agents here to-day, agreed on a combination until May 1st as against the St. Louis roads for the South-western traffic.

FOREIGN MISCELLANY.

The responsible editor of the Paris Commune has been sentenced to one year's imprisonment and a fine of 5,000 francs.

The Paris printers' strike was expected to terminate yesterday. Typhus fever is increasing at Constantinople, and is very prevalent at Bucharest and at Turin.

The London Times' correspondent announces the death of the widow of Rossini, the celebrated music composer. "It is understood," says the Times' dispatch, "that she bequeathed the fortune inherited from Rossini to an asylum for aged and disabled singers."

SPECIAL NOTICE.

In consequence of the impaired health of my brother, Mr. W. W. Latta, our resident managing partner, demanding recreation from close confinement and active business, we have concluded to withdraw our concerns both here and in Chester. Upon my arrival, under the approach of warm weather, with still a heavy stock of Winter Goods on hand, I find it inexpedient and impracticable to retire from business, effectually, and so deem it, to our interest only to close out in Chester, thereby permitting the return of our Mr. MUNN, who will represent us here in Charlotte, at such time as I cannot be here in person.

The cordial response to our recent "announcement," together with the many expressions of regret for our contemplated severance from the community, assures us of a genuine recognition of our "fair dealing," and will instill a redoubled desire and determination to continue the leaders of "low prices."

N. B.—To vacate and make room for the arrival of our Spring Stock, we will, for fifteen days, sell our Fall Goods at closing prices.

E. D. Latta & Bro. Leaders of Fashion and Low Prices! NATIONAL CLOTHING HALL!

We will announce to the public of Charlotte and vicinity that we are receiving daily our Spring Stock, consisting of Men's, Youths', Boys' and Children's Clothing.
