Conflicting Opinions as to the Prospects of Peace and War-European Opinion of Salisbury's Circular-Russia Renewing Contracts for Supplies—Sympathy for Roumania—Peace Influence Growing in St Petersburg.

LONDON, April 6-The Post publishes the following in semi official form: "There is no doubt that our government, while determined to vindicate everyline of Lord Salisbury's dispatch, is unwilling to take into consideration the views suggested by the Vienna statesmen. To day the prospect is more peaceful, but the governments should guard against a surprise at Constantinople, and Mr Layard ought to be empowered to assure the Porte of England's support against any sudden advance of the Russians."

The Constant and allows postmasters of the fourth class a commission on the stamps which they cancel instead of on those which they sell.

The Standard publishes the following in similar form: "We understand the present intention is to keep the channel squadron near Malta available for the transport of troops therefrom. Every arrangement has been made, so that three or four thousand troops could be embarked in a few hours."

It is understood that the front opposition bench in the Commons will not propose any amendment on Monday to the address to the Queen, in answer to her proclamation calling out the re-serves. Sir Wilfrid Lawson, on behalf of the Radicals, however, has resolved to offer a motion declaring the measure unwarranted and imprudent.

The Times' St Petersburg dispatch, dated yesterday evening, says: "Lord Salisbury's circular was communicated to Prince Gortschakoff this morning. It is said in official circles that many of the British objections might have been removed in the congress, but now the doors are closed against concessions. It is difficult, therefore, to imagine any pacific solution. The most plausible proposal, perhaps, is that the congress should be called to consider the modifications necessary in the treaties of 1856 and 1871. Little faith, however, is placed in such proposals. A majority of the official world and of the public regard war as inevitable, and him were sustained. As long, however, as Vefik Pasha remains the Turk-ish premier, a Russo Turkish alliance is believed to be out of the question.

Dr. Seymour Declines the Bishopric of Springfield, Ill.

NEW YORK, April 6.—Rev Dr Seymour, in a letter declining the bishopric of Springfield, Ill, said: Those whom I have consulted, and who have a right to speak: my own and other bishops, and a majority of the members of the standing committee of the General Theological Seminary, strongly advise me that the interests of the Church at large will be best promoted by my remaining where I am and my by my remaining where I am; and my hesitation shows how profoundly I am moved by the claim which Springfield has upon me. It is an act of stern self-denial for me to say that under all the circumstances, I have reached the conclusion that it is my duty to follow the advice given to me with such unanimity, and to continue to serve God in the humbler place to which he has assigned me.
