MAUD MULLER.

Maud Muller worked at raking hay, And cleared her forty cents a day.

He clothes were coarse, but her health was fine, And so she worked in the sweet sunshine,

She often glanced at the far-off town, And wondered if eggs were up or down.

And the sweet song died of a strange disease, Leaving a phantom taste of cheese,

And an appetite and a nameless ache For soda water and ginger cake.

The judge rode slowly into view— Stopped his horse in the shade and drew

His fine hat out, while the blushing Maud Marveled much at the kind he "sawed."

"He was dry as a fish," he said with a smile, "And kind of thought that a good square drink

Would brace him up." So the cup was filled With the crystal wine that the old spring spilled;

And she gave it him with a sunbrowned hand. "Thanks," said the judge, in accents bland;

"A thousand thanks! for a sweeter draught From a fairer hand"—but there he laughed.

And the sweet young girl stood in the sun that day, And raked the judge instead of the hay.

OBSERVATIONS. Mrs. Tilton suffers from rheumatism of the heart as well as from a quickened conscience.

"Men should be careful lest they cause women to weep, for God counts tears," says the Talmud.

It is asserted that during a rain-storm accompanied by high winds a ball shot from a rifle becomes visible to the naked eye.

"The prisoner at the bar seems to have a very smooth face," said a spectator to the jailer. "Yes," said the jailer, "he was ironed just before he was brought in."

The rage for office is so great in Detroit that the News of that place declares "there are but two men in the Bay City who are not candidates for the position of city marshal. One is dead and the other is a wooden Indian."

The soundly nephew of Barbara Frischie has proved that the old lady was sound asleep when she waved the hypothetical flag from her alleged window, when the so-called Stonewall Jackson marched gallantly past seven blocks off.

The late George W. Blunt, of New York, had a comprehensive religion which he thus announced: "I believe in God, His infinite power and mercies, the mission of Christ, the flag of the Union." The eagle bird of freedom screams because he was left out of Mr. Blunt's creed.

Louisville Courier-Journal: A reader of the local columns writes to protest against "the common and utterly inexcusable habit of calling Sunday the Sabbath." The fact is, that local reporters are so frequently at church, that they are constantly falling into religious errors, and the writer must be charitable.

In Nelson county, Va., a hawk was seen at a considerable height with a large snake writhing in its claws, when suddenly the bird closed its wings and fell heavily to the earth. The snake—a moccasin—had bitten it in the neck, but the talons of the hawk were so buried in the vitals of the serpent that it also died.

Referring to Mrs. Tilton's letter Mr. Beecher said it reminded him of the story of a negro waiter who was asked by a guest if it was the second bell for breakfast that had just rung. "No, sah; it is not de second bell. It is the second ringing of de first bell."

A three-mile ride on a freight train, suspended by his clothing from a hook on the side of the car, was the experience of a tramp the other night at Oxford, N. Y. There was not a scratch upon him when rescued, but his mental suffering was intense, as he expected momentarily to be dashed to pieces. He had been stealing a ride, and attempted to jump off while the cars were in motion.

King's Mountain High School, Resolved, That we, the people of this township, in convention assembled, have learned with pride and pleasure of the action of the people of the town of Mooresville in their meeting yesterday, April 19th, touching their effort to unite themselves with the city of Danville, Va., via Salem and Winston and other towns, and that we guarantee and pledge that the farmers of this township will give dollar for dollar by subscription with the people of our live and growing town in furtherance of this good work.

Too much cannot be said in praise of that great cough remedy, Coughs' Compound Honey of Tar. It will not only give relief in case of an ordinary cold, but the sufferer with Consumption may rely on it as a permanent cure if taken in time, and according to directions. To persons afflicted with chronic cough, which disturbs their rest at night, it affords sweet and refreshing sleep, and for Coughs, Colds, Croup, Whooping Cough, Sore Throat, Hoarseness, etc., it is simply one of the greatest medical blessings of the age. Use Coughs' Compound Honey of Tar. Price 50 cents a bottle.

What glorious achievements are possible to us if we only possess good health, with its usual accompaniment of cheerful mind. Therefore no means should be neglected to preserve its vigor, and restore it when impaired. Bear in mind that Coughs' Compound Honey of Tar, which relieves Whooping Cough, Sore Throat, Hoarseness, etc., is also an infallible cure for consumption. That dreadful disease which consigns so many gifted men and women to an early grave can be cured by Coughs' Compound Honey of Tar. Price 50 cents a bottle.

Travelers will find the Grand Central, New York, one of the most excellent hotels in that city. Those who cannot be suited in price and accommodations there must be very hard to please indeed.

PUBLIC OPINION IS UNANIMOUS AND DECISIVE

IN AWARDING THE PALM OF MERIT TO THE POPULAR CLOTHING HOUSE OF L. BERWANGER & BRO.,

THE FINE CLOTHIERS AND TAILORS.

Wise buyers are not guided by glaring announcements and long lists of low prices, which are attractive only in print, but lose their force and all interest when coupled with the grade of goods they represent; but remember that

THE BEST IS THE CHEAPEST, and will look for reliable and durable clothing at reliable and responsible houses.

While our prices are invariably as low or lower than those of any other house in the city, the style, fit, quality and workmanship of our garments are far superior to all others; thus offering unequalled advantages to the purchaser.

Fresh Goods placed on our counters daily. No misrepresentation at our house.

L. BERWANGER & BRO., FINE CLOTHIERS AND TAILORS.

I HAVE RECEIVED MY NEW GOODS

And will sell them at Prices which defy COMPETITION.

Persons purchasing Goods in my line will find it to their interest to give me a call before buying elsewhere, as I will not be undersold by any one.
