day, when the "Tally-Ho" successfully journeyed from New York to Philadelphia between sunrise and sunset. The coaching party, twelve in number, all members of the New York Coaching Club, promptly assembled at the Brunswick Hotel, New York, a little after six o'clock in the morning. All were dressed in the club uniform, the green cutaway coat, brass buttons and striped buff vest. Ten of the gentlemen wore the light summer tall hat. Fresh bouquets were on each horse's

At 6:40 a m the "tally-ho" horn was sounded, and all being in readiness the start was made amid the most enthusiastic cheering on the part of the gentlemen friends of the coaching party, while the ladies at the windows clapped their hands and waved their handkerchiefs till the coach was out of sight. At the start the ribbons were handled by Delancey Kane, and amid the applause of the assembled throng the spirited horses dashed away at a merry pace down Fifth avenue and thence by a side street to the Desbrosses street fer-

Growth of the "The American Commune."

Within the past week agents representing the executive committee of the "American Commune" have been in Richmond, Va., seeking to effect an erganization. From the printed cir-culars, it seems that the organization has its central place in New York, and is a powerful, well organized association, having in view the millennial idea of peace on earth and a general good time. The statement printed is that the organization has in New England and the northern, middle, and western States 280,000 men, organized into regiments, brigades, and divisions, and

The Cumberland (Md) Alleganian says that a gentleman living a short distance from that city had his will prepared and properly attested on Friday last. Among the bequests is the sum of fifty dollars to the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company. No argument or advice could induce him to change his mind in the matter. It appears that he has been an employe of the com-pany for a number of years, and thinks perhaps he owes this amount for past favors.

Sale of a Rail oad.

PENSACOLA, FLA, May 6 .- The Pensacola and Louisville Railroad was sold to-day under foreclosure, and was purchased by F Sullivan, holder of the first mortgage, amounting to $600,000, and president of the Pensacola Railread Company, to whom the franchise and property of the old company has been transferred. The price paid was $50,000 for the road and from ten to twenty-five cents per acre for the land of the company.

PATENT MEDICINES.

VECETINE

Dropsy.

CENTRAL FALLS, R. I., Oct 19, 1877. DE. H. R. STEVENS:

It is a pleasure to give my testimony for your valuable medicine. I was sick for a long time with Dropsy, under the doctor's care. He said it was Water between the Heart and Liver. I received no benefit until I commenced taking the Vegetine; in fact, I was growing worse. I have tried many remedies; they did not help me. VEGETINE is the medicine for Dropsy. I began to feel better after taking a few bottles. I have taken thirty bottles in all. I am perfectly well, never felt better. No one can feel more thankful than I do. thankful than I do.

I am, dear sir, gratefully yours,

VEGETINE. - When the blood becomes lifeless and stagnant, either from change of weather or of c'imate, want of exercise, irregular diet, or from any other cause, the Vegetine will renew the blood, carry off the putrid humors, cleanse the s'omach, regulate the bowels, and impart a tone of vigor to the whole body.

VECETINE

Kidney Complaint, and Nervous Debility.

ISLESBORO, ME., Dec 28, 1877.

Mr H. R. STEVENS: Dear Sir-I had had a cough for eighteen plaint, and was very nervous—cough bad, lungs sore. When I had taken one bottle I found it was helping me; it has helped my cough, and it strengthens me. I am now able to do my work. Never have found anything like the Vegetine. I know it is every thing it is recommended to be.

CREEK, KANSAS, Old man Snyder found a snake Frozen stiffer than a stake, And he tucked it in his breast And he buttoned up his vest. When the sauriam became thawed, Mr Snyder became chawed, And in one unbroken stream He proceeded to blaspheme, And eradicate the plug From a little old brown jug.

Then he took a modest snort Of, perhaps, about a quart. And conversed as if he—well— Had profanity to sell. Year by year with all his might, Snyder tried to cure that bite— But he didn't have the heft; So, one day beside the jug, He, while heaving at the plug. Caught the jim jams and got left.
