"Free from the doting scruples that fetter our free-born reason

"FAIR PLAY,"

On Thursday Mr Stephens attempted to speak on the investigation question, and, according to the advices of the New York World, "was howled down," by the Democrats in the House. We lament to hear this, and are ashamed of our party friends. If this matter is to be re-opened—and we think it a supreme folly—it ought to be done fairly. If the votes of Florida and Louisiana are to be investigated, then fair play demands that the alleged frauds in Oregon, Mississippi and New York should be inquired into, and this is what Mr Stephens intended to say. But he was not permitted to speak. This sort of generalship will ruin us if persisted in. Fair play is what the people want, and as the matter stands Mr Potter and a small group are throwing away the next election.—Norfolk Landmark.

If the Landmark knows anything at all about Alexander H Stephens it knows that he is the chronic growler of the continent. He has never favored any action whatever in the matter of the election frauds.
