KATE SOTHERN.

Matter-of-Fact Account of the Crime for Which She is Suffering.

From the Columbus (Ga.) Enquirer, Jane

We give in this paper the evidence elicted in the much-talked of trial of Kate Sothern. It differs as much as light and darkness from the sensational accounts we have been reading in certain correspondence. There is nothing in the scenes, the surroundings, nor the incidents to glean a tithe of romance. The whole was a fight between two women, while the gallant Bob Sothern and the rest looked on. They were all very ignorant peo-ple. Kate and her sister both centre-ed on "Sis" Cowart. There is no evidence that the men present tried to part the combatants, nor does there appear to have been such a scene as the sentimental writers picture of Bob, with pistol in hand, forcing Kate's way through a crowd. All this was the imagination of a fancy sketcher. Kate Sothern is not pretty even. She is of medium height, about twenty years of age, has dark brown hair, and the twang of a North Georgia cracker. She is very ignorant, can hardly read or write, and Bob is worse educated than she. Kate is passably good-looking, and wears imitation jet. She says the witnesses swore lies against her; that she acted in self-defense; that she cannot dance, and that night at her father's was the "fust time she ever seed a reel run." She is now on the plantation of Col Smith, in Washington county, and will be employed in the household, cooking and washing for the convicts who work on the plantation. The six-month "baby" is sick—teething—and that now requires the most of her time. She says no money has been sent her from the North. Her health is bad.

Her 16-year old sister, sentenced to two years as an accessory to Kate's crime, has been in Col Smith's house as a servant. She is handsome, and has been taught to read and write by her kind mistress. On her father's farm she worked in the field and drove an ox to the plow. Her sentence has proved a blessing.

Bob Sothern is nothing but a strong,

On reading this evidence on feels ut terly disgusted with the amount of medicine before death can be perfectly sentimental twaddle that has been expended on the case. Not a scintilla prolonged, and many sufferers from Liver pended on the case. Not a scintilla can be obtained to excite a single expression of admiration. Why, the parties surrendered themselves to get the reward, and the understanding was that Kate's mother was to get $50 of the money. Where even a fertile fancy could extract anything of a romance from an atrocious crime, we cannot imagine.

We do not believe there is a single woman, no matter how warm and sympathetic her heart may be, who, after reading this sworn testimony, can, 6 V6 1 11 FOR BOYS, received kindly by her parents—and then to demand of the authorities that she shall go free is preposterous. If such an act were pardoned, the doing so would be a mockery of law. Crime already has too much license because the statutes are not enforced.

A Stay of Execution.

"Save me, doctor, and I'll give you a check for a thousand dollars." The doctor gave him a remedy that soon eased him, and he called out:

"Keep at it, doctor, and I'llgive you a check for five hundred dollars." In an hour more he was able to up, and he calmly remarked:

Doctor, I feel like giving you a fifty When the doctor was ready to go, the sick man was up and dressed, and he followed the physician to the door, "Say, doctor, rend in your bill the first of the month."

When six months had been gathered to Time's bosom, the doctor sent in a bill amounting to five dollars. He was pressed to cut it down to three, and after so doing, he sued to get it, got judgment, and the patient put in a stay

The impression this morning is that Mr Trogden, who is on trial here for Texas claims to have three millions of inhabitants, and to be the third now in population and the first in size among all the say that he should be, but, on the contrary, that he should be acquitted. The result of the presecution will have a bad effect upon Richmond trade with Greensboro particularly, because two of the city papers have given the trial so much publicity and attention. If such a case had occurred in a Northendowed by two Indianians. The tuition ern city scarcely an item except for-court reports would have been made of it. The cost of the trial to this poor old commonwealth will probably double the amount claimed by individuals. The North Carolina witnesses give Mr Trogden a good reputation. The weather is dry and very warm-the thermometer standing at 96. Among the North Carolinians who graduated at the University to-day were W.J Bingham, of Mebaneaville; JA White, Louisburg; S. B. Jones, Charlotte; H. W. Lilly, Fayetteville, and B.F. Long, Graham.

Death by Hanging Painless.

Dr R S Tracy, in Popular Science Monthly for July.]

All the evidence goes to show that death by hanging is painless, and there is positively no fact or well-founded opinion to the contrary. If this be the case, what is the explanation of it? Simply this: That in every form of strangulation the blood-vessels of the neck are compressed, as well as the air passages. A large part of the blood is returned from the head by the external jugular veins, which are very near the surface, and in which the current can be checked by slight pressure. Most of the blood from the brain itself comes back through the internal jugulars, which lie near, but a little outside of, the carotid ateries. The walls of the veins are lax and yielding, so as to be easily compressed, while those of the arteries are firm and elastic, and it requires considerable force to approximate them. Pressure, then, which is sufficient to close the jugular veins only crowds the carotids a little farther inward, and the blood is still poured through them into the brain, whence it cannot escape. When the pumping process is going on at the rate of seventy strokes a minute, it is easy to understand how the engorgement of the vessels of the brain, in a very brief time, reaches a degree which causes insensibility. To explain why this congestion causes unconsciousness. would involve a technical discussion which would here be out of place. It must suffice to say that it does; so that, as the cerebral congestion in a hanged person brings on insensibility within a minute, while the physical agony of suffocation does not begin until later, it follows that the victim does not feel any of the pangs of asphyxia. He first becomes insensible, with accompanying pleasurable feelings, from cerebral congestion, and then is choked to death while unconscious.

Good Digestion. "Give us this day our daily bread" and good medicine to digest it, is both reverent and human. The human stomach and liver are fruitful sources of life's comforts; or disordered and diseased, they tingle misery good-looking animal—a common, ignorant boor. He is now a guard to convicts on the same plantation. The woman Kate killed was on a par with the rest. and growls at even imaginary objects. The world still needs two or three new kinds of disease, Dyspepsia and Headache, have been cured by Merrell's Hepatine, is no longer a doubt. It cures Headache in twenty minutes, and there is no question but what it is the most wonderful discovery yet made in medical science. These afflicted with biliousness and Liver Complaint should use Merrell's Hepatine. It can be had at Dr J H McAden's, Wilson & Burwell's and Dr TC Smith's.

The novelty of modern Medical, Chemical, and Pharmaceutical Science. No use of any longer taking the large, repulsive, and nauseous pills, somposed of cheap, crude, and bulky ingredients, when we can, by a careful application of chemical science, extract all the cathartic and other medicinal properties from the most valuable roots and herbs, and concentrate them into a minute Granule, scarcely larger than a mustard seed, that can be readly swallowed by those of the most sensitive stomachs and fastidious tastes. Each little Purgative Pello represents, in a most concentrated form, as muccathartic power as is embodied in any of the large pills found for sale in drug-shops. From their wonderful cathartic power, in comparison to their size, people who have not tried them are apt to suppose that they are harsh or drastic from setting medicinal principles of which they are somposed being so harmonized and modified, one by the others, as to produce a most searching and thorough, yet gently and kindly operating, eathartic.

In explanation of the remedial power of my Purgative Pellets over se great a variety of diseases, I wish to say that their action upon the animal beconomy is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sangive impress. Age does not impair the properties of these Pelets. They are sugar-coated and inclosed in glass bottles, their virtues being thereby preserved unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always frosh and reliable. This is not the case with those pills which are put up in cheap weeden or pasteboard boxes. Recollect that for all diseases where a Layative, Alterative, or Purgative is indicated, these little Pellets will give the most perfect satisfaction to all who ase them.

R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Prop'r, BUFFALO, N. Y.

By an immense practice, extending through a period of years, having within that time treated many thousand cases of those diseases peculiar to woman, I have been enabled to perfect a most potent and agreeable medicine that meets the indications presented by that class of diseases with positive certainty and exactness. To designate this natural specific compound I have named it

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

The term, however, is but a feeble expression of my high appreciation of its value, based upon my own personal observation. As a close observer, I have, while witnessing its positive results in the few special diseases incident to the separate organism of woman, singled it out as the climax or crowning gem of my medical career. On its merits, as a positive, safe, and effectual remedy for this class of diseases, and one that will, at all times and under all circumstances, act kindly and in harunder all circumstances, act kindly and in har-mony with the laws which govern the temale mony with the laws which govern the female system, I am willing to stake my reputation as a physician. Nay, even more, so confident am I that it will not disappoint the most sanguine expectations of a single invalid lady who uses it for any of the ailments for which I recommend it that I offer and sell it under A POSITIVE GUARANTEE. If a beneficial effect is not experienced by the time two-thirds of the contents of the bottle are used, I will, on return of the bettle, two-thirds of the medicine having been taken according to directions, and the case being one for which I recommend it, promptly refund the money paid for it. Had I not the most perfect confidence in its virtues, I could not offer it as I do under these conditions; but having witnessed its truly miraculous cures in thousands of cases, I feel warranted and perfectly safe in risking both my reputation and my money on its merits.

The following are among these diseases in

The following are among those diseases in which my Favorite Prescription has worked cures, as if by magic, and with a centainty never before attained by any medicine: Leucorrhesa, Excessive Flowing, Painful Monthly Periods, Suppressions when from unnatural causes, Irregalarities, Weak Back, Prolapsus, or falling of the Dierus, Anteversion and Retroversion, Bearing Down Sensations, Internal Heat, Nervous Depression, Debility, Despondency, Threatened Misoarriage, Chronic Congestion, Inflammation and Ulceration of the Uterus, Impotency, Barrenness, or Sterility, Female Weakness, and very many other chronic diseases incident to woman not mentioned here. In all affections of this nature, my Favorite Prescription works once the marvel of the world. This medicine I do not extel as a cure-all, but it admirably fulfills a single-ness of purpose, being a most perfect specific in all chronic diseases of the sexual system of woman. It will not disappoint, nor will it do harm, in any state or condition. Those who desire further information on these subjects can obtain it in THE PEOPLE'S COMMON SENSE MEDICAL ADVISER, a book of over 900 pages, sent, post-paid, on receipt of $1.50. It treats minutely of those diseases peculiar to Females, and gives much valuable advice in regard to the management of those FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION SOLD
