LETTER FROM RICHMOND.

CHARLOTTE N. C., SATURDAY, JULY 5, 1878

[Correspondence of the Observer.] RICHMOND, VA, July 2d, 1878. The lack of enterprise in the South is as gentlemen who den, I learn that it is thought that ne is tonishing. But for this we would long ago not as much to blame in the matter of getting goods from our merchants without a purpose to pay for them as were other parties in your State, and it is probable that Mr T will not go to the penitentiary at all. There is no way of reaching the more experts "frauds," Several attempts have been made recently to wreck the passenger trains on the Riebmond and Danville Railroad near this city, but they have abor-ted. There is a deal of dissatisfaction with the management of this company, and it seems to be developing itself in the minds of persons who scruple at nothing. The Pennsylvania Railroad Company would have controlled the offices of this company some time ago, but for the fact that Virginia requires a Virginian to be its president.

The biennial election of the officers of this city occurred last night. All mony of removing the rag from his wrist the old incumbents were re-appointed. The only officer opposed was the city engineer, who is not satisfactory to the majority of voters, but is elected by the council. Hence to defeat him the As he cast off his youth he did away also people must change their city council, which they will do as soon as possible. Mr Baker, one of John Wilson's clerks, has been in this city some time. He is inconsolable because we have no rock candy in Virginia. I learn from New York that the Air Line Railway is the source of a good deal of controversy in the circle of its friends and past owners. One party claims that it has not the "showing" in its last exhibit that Mr Fisher and Col Peck gave it; the other that it will eventually pay. How a New York board of directors expect to get money My friends have stood faithfully knowing anything about the wants of the people from whom they expect with the deepest contest. I thank them with the deepest gratitude, and when their revenue, except what is generous-they are slandered for what they have ly imparted to them by officials whose they are slaudered for what they have done for me, I propose to defend them only aim is to keep their places, we

Danville and your little enterprising

Once for all I say that any man lies who charged before the convention or asserts now that I or my friends intended to break up the convention. I repeatedly asserted, before and since the convention, that had Mr Odell received the nomination, I would have canvassed the county for him had he desired it.

I had no idea at any time previous to the convention that no nomination would be made, and never heard a single friend of mine anticipate that the convention would adjourn without any action.

[Danville (Va) News, 4th.]

Yesterday morning there arrived in Danville a very loving couple, who had walked all the way from High Point, N.C, to this city, for the purpose of getting married; their idea being that inasmuch as Virginians sometimes cross the border to the Old North State, and are accommodated by the facile agents of Hymen in that State, that a sort of reciprocity between the two States would enable them to obtain a like service in the Old Dominion.—
They applied at the clerk's office for The paper which "H" quotes, and says was signed "by twenty-four" Democrats from No 10, was only one of three similar papers sent up from that township was for him. There are 169 Democrats, according to the Vance 10 township war for him. There are 169 Democrate, according to the Vance vote, in No 10 township, and Captain John H Newell, one of the best men in No 10, exhibited in my office on the morning of the 29th ult, three papers from his township, with the signatures of 85 Democrate declaring that I was the choice of the township for representative.

I approached by friends twice on Saturday last with a desire to withdraw my name, but they would not consent for me to do so unless Mr Odell would withdraw also. I then went to Mr Odell's refusal to withdraw with me, and after Mr Martin Ludwick, one of the wisest delegates present, find proposed to the convention to such or the s

Give us this day our daily bread! and good medicine to digest it, in both reverent and heman. The human stometh and liver are fruitful sources of life's comforts; or disordered and diseased, they tingle misery along every nerve and through every artery. The man or woman with good digestion see beauty as they walk, and overcome obstacles they meet in the routine of life, where the dyspeptic sees only gloom and stumbles. and growle at even imaginary objects. The world still needs two or three new kinds of medicine before death can be perfectly abolished; but that many dives have been prolonged, and many sufferers from Liver disease, Dyspepsia and Headache, have been cured by Merrell's Hepatine, is no longer a doubt. It cures Headache in twenty minthe most wonderful discovery yet made in medical science. Those afflicted with billousness and Liver Complaint should use Merrell's Hepatine.

It can be had at Dr J H McAden's, Wilson & Burwell's and Dr T C Smith's.

the remedial means and appliances for the cure of all those chronic diseases peculiar to females. The employment, in moderation, of tonic, chemical, employment, in moderation, of tonic, chemical, electro-thermal, and other approved hatis, is the many cases an invaluable auxiliary to the remedial means to which we resort in such cases. Dry friction to the surface, general shampooing, Swedish movements, and light calisthenic exercises, to enliven and equalize the circulation of the blood in the system, relieve congested parts, improve digestion, and strengthen the muscles, produce important beneficial results in all cases to which these means are applicated. No experimenting is resorted to in the treatment. The most approved medicines are carefully employed, and the judicious regulation of the diet, to suit the condition of the patient, the theorough ventilation of the sleeping apartment, the cheering influence of music, social intercourse, innocent games for amusement, and all those agencies which tend to arouse the mind of the patient from despondency, and thus promote resovery, are not neglected.

NERVOUS RISEASES—Paralysis, Epilepsy (Pita), Chorea (St. Vitus's Dance), and other nervous affections, receive the attention of an expert in this specialty, by which the greatest skill is attained and the most happy results secured.

LUNG BISEASES—This division of the practice in the Invalids' Hotel is very ably managed by a gentleman of mature judgment and skill. Bronchial, Throat, and Lung Diseases are very largely treated in this department, and with results which have been highly gratifying to both physician and patients.

EVE AND EAR*—Special attention is given to the delicate operations on the eye and ear, a distinguished oculist and aurist being under engagement to conduct this branch of the practice.
