STATE POLITICAL ITEMS.

There will be a convention of the Democrats of Cabarrus at Concord on the 13th inst. to appoint delegates to the congressional district convention at Monroe.

The Democrats of Cherokee county have nominated Col. J. H. Smith for representative in the Legislature, and endorsed J. L. Robinson for State Senator.

Milton Chronicle: There is some talk of the Hon. O. S. Winstead being an independent candidate for the State Senate in this district.

Harnett county has an independent candidate. Dr. J. W. Atkins is his name, and not having much practice he wants to be clerk of the Superior Court.

It is rumored that Mr. W. T. H. Ewing, of Montgomery, is a candidate for the Senate in the district composed of his county and Richmond, Independent.

The Concord Sun says: We mentioned about two weeks ago that some one had called another convention for Stanly county, to nominate another Senator, on the plea that the convention of the 15th ult. was not an expression of the people.

THE GREAT LOUISVILLE RACE. In Which Ten Brock Distances the California Mare in the First Heat.

LOUISVILLE, July 4.—At 10 o'clock this morning the streets were wellnigh impassable, the buildings were handsomely decorated, and unparalleled interest was felt in the great event of the day.

The first race was a dash of a mile and three-quarters, and was won by Dank, beating Harkaway easily; time 2:18. The second race was a sweepstakes for two-year-olds, and was won by Goodnight, with Kingston second and Charlemagne third; time 1:30.

When the drum tapped for the great four-mile race to day Ten Brock and Mollie McCarthy went by the string like twin bullets. Ten Brock had the outside of the track, and the mare, being on the inside, ran to the front from the start.

She will win sure" was heard in all directions, and more confident grew the cry as her easy movement continued, and the horse still driving. She passed the quarter in the third mile and leading, but the horse hung on to her close, and made a pace so murderous that many knew his bottom would have an effect ultimately.

Superior Court Rulings. [Raleigh News.] The judges of our Superior Courts have agreed among themselves on their rulings for the fall circuit of 1878.

Appointment of an Ex-Confederate. The Richmond (Va.) State announces that General Harry Heth, of that city, who served with considerable distinction in the Confederate army, has just received from the Secretary of the Treasury an appointment as a special agent of the Treasury Department.

THE CHARLOTTE METHODISTS.

The Impression of a Visiting Minister After Spending Two Sundays with Them.

[Correspondence of the Raleigh Christian Advocate.] DR. BOBBITT: It has been my good fortune recently to spend two Sabbaths in Charlotte, N. C., and to worship with our church in Tryon street, and I thought perhaps a few lines giving the impression received during this visit would be of interest to some of your readers.

THE SPIRITUALITY OF THE CHURCH. The spirituality of the membership is much better than I expected to find it. From what I had heard of Charlotte I thought they were a cold, formal people, not much given to piety and not very devoted to their pastors, but this is not the case by any means.

THE YOUNG MEN. They have here in the church a large number of promising pious young men who are doing a valuable work for the church. These young men hold a young men's prayer meeting every Sunday morning at 9 o'clock, and on communion Sundays they make this prayer meeting an experience meeting.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL. The Sunday school is a most excellent one and is continually improving. Dr. T. C. Smith is the superintendent and he seems to be plumb full of life and energy and enthusiasm in the Sunday school work.

THE APPROACHING CONFERENCE. The people here are beginning to arrange for the approaching annual conference which will convene in this city November 27th, 1878. They are preparing to make some improvements in the church building and they say they will have no difficulty in entertaining the conference.

THE FOURTH OF JULY IN SALISBURY. [Correspondence of the Observer.] The 4th was considerably celebrated here. The fire department, consisting of the Hook and Ladder Company, No. 1, Star Fire and Hose Company, and the Colored Fire Company, No. 3, with engine, trucks, etc., all beautifully decorated, paraded the principal streets, headed by Cornet Band No. 2, with the chief of the fire department, Mr. Theo. F. Klutz, the orator of the day, Mr. Frank Brown, and the reader of the declaration, Mr. B. F. Rogers, in a carriage, bringing up the rear.

That Bale of Cotton.

[N. O. Picayune, July 2.] It was rumored about the cotton exchange, yesterday, that the bale of "new" cotton that passed through here on Sunday, en route from Brownsville, Texas, to New York, was not all new.

Several experts, who examined the sample displayed at the exchange, found it to contain two totally different descriptions of the staple. Part of the cotton was very good, pulled well, and was quite strong, while another part was poor and weak. The opinion was expressed that some new cotton was in the bale.
