My story was immense, And it took me four nights a week For three years to tell it. When at length the tale was done, She gave me for my pains a world of sighs, She swore in faith 'twas strange, 'twas passing strange; 'Twas pitiful, 'twas wondrous pitiful, And laid over anything she had over heard By a large majority. She wished she had not heard ; yet she That heaven had made her such a man. She thanked me. And bade me, if I had a friend that loy I should but teach him how to tell my story And that would woo her. This was a complete give-away ; That is to say, tumble did I to the racke<sup>4</sup>, And we were wed forthwith, So there's the long and short of it. OBSERVATIONS.
