THE CABARRUS NATIONAL CANDIDATE.

Re-considers His Withdrawal and is Again a Candidate for the House.

Editor Charlotte Observer—Be kind enough to publish the following: Capt Wm H Orchard was nominated by the National party in this (Cabarrus) county, some two weeks ago. He withdrew after a week or so from the canvass. But yesterday he published a card, in which he states that his withdrawal was caused by misinformation; and he is again in the field, and pledges himself to the support of the principles and platform of the National party. CONCORD, N. C., July 27, 1878.

A MISSOURI SCANDAL.

The State Treasurer Charged With a $500,000 Swindle.

St. Louis, July 24.—Quite a sensation is created by the publication of a long article reflecting seriously upon the management of the State Treasury. It is charged that the treasurer, Elijah Gates, never complied with the laws relating to the filing of his bond, and that the bond has never been approved, as required by law, and upon legal test would be declared invalid.

One of the most significant facts published is the statement that five days before the National Bank of Missouri suspended, about a year ago, it received a deposit of $500,000 from the State Treasurer. The president of the bank, J H Britton, is one of the treasurer's bondsmen. The money was forwarded on June 15th to the State National Bank for the ostensible purpose of being sent to the Bank of Commerce of New York, to meet the July interest on the Missouri bonds, payable in New York July 14th.

The money, instead of being promptly forwarded, remained in the bank five days, at the end of which time the bank suspended payment, the State being in this manner victimized to the extent of $500,000.

A Good Country

[Augusta Chronicle, 27th.] Mr J H Alexander has returned from his trip to the mountains of North Carolina and gives a glowing account of the salubrious climate of that country. He says he saw a youth sixteen years of age who had never seen a dead person nor a funeral and the inference therefore is that no one has died in that section since he was born. Land can be bought cheap and summer cabins put up at a small expense.

Carrying It Around Loose.

[Danville (Va) News, 28th.] A man passed over the Richmond & Danville Railroad going north via the Virginia Midland Railroad last Thursday, with a bag of money containing $19,000 in gold, which he carelessly took along beside him on the car seats. In transferring he had to shoulder the bundle.

A Cure.

To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c. I will send a receipt that will cure you, FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the REV JOSEPH T INMAN, Station D, Bible House, New York City.

STATE POLITICAL ITEMS.

Col Roger Moore, of Wilmington, declines to be a candidate for sheriff of New Hanover.

Wilmington Star: The Democratic executive committee of the county of New Hanover, at a meeting held yesterday, prior to the joint meeting spoken of elsewhere, finally decided to make no nominations for county officers for the county of New Hanover.

The National Greenback party of Columbus have nominated a full ticket, Dr A H Robbins for the Senate and J W McCoy for the House.

Capt Swift Galloway, Democratic candidate for sheriff of the third district, made a fine speech at Wilmington, Friday night, to an enthusiastic audience.

Frank H Darby, of Pender county, declines to accept the nomination for Senator from New Hanover and Pender, and R K Bryan has been nominated in his stead.

J R Winchester has withdrawn from the canvass as a candidate for sheriff of Union. He was an independent candidate.

KEEPING COOL.

How They Order These Things in France—Paris in Midsummer.

[From the London Standard.] If we wish to escape sunstroke, even in its mitigated form of languor, lassitude and drowsiness, we must keep ourselves cool; and to do this as it ought to be done we must take precautions against the heat before it bursts upon us. Those who wish to know how this can best be effected have only to pay a short visit to Paris during the sultriest weeks of August. As soon as the weather demands a change Frenchmen apparel themselves in low shoes and trousers of duck or nanken; his shirt collar expands; his neck tie dwindles to an apology; waistcoat he altogether discards; his coat is of thin alpaca or the lightest Tussero silk; his hat of white felt or of straw; nor is he ashamed to boldly carry an umbrella.

His house, especially if it be on the sunny side of the street, is regulated with equal care and forethought. The carpets are taken up; the heavy jealousies are shut before sunrise and kept closed throughout the day; the courtyard is hourly watered, and in households where small expenses are of little moment a large bowl of ice and water or a pyramid of solid ice surrounded by flowers forms the centre ornament of the table. What the individual citizen does for himself that the municipality does for the entire city. Long before the Parisians are astir the streets have been well watered with a hose and the trottoir thoroughly washed down. Along the boulevards and in most of the principal avenues large trees gratefully cool the atmosphere and suggest a pleasant sort of lotus-eating dream of wood and field. Each thoroughfare has its shady side, and instead of the repulsive London "public," one comes at every few hundred yards across some little cafe, with its awning drawn over the pavement and with chairs and marble tables, where the thirsty soul who demands of the garcon even a cup of cold water and tenders for it his three half-pence will receive a courteous welcome.

North Carolina Politics.

[Washington Post, 26th.] General Thomas L Clingman, of North Carolina, for eighteen years a member of Congress, before the war, and who left the Senate in 1861 to stake his fortunes with the Southern Confederacy, said to-day during an interview: "I see that in the North, a movement somewhat similar to one in the South, is growing rapidly. Working masses are cutting loose by degrees from the Republican and Democratic parties and trying to form an organization separate and independent. Now in my State there are 120,000 independent voters. They don't altogether believe in extreme measures. They've had enough of war, and are sick of demagoguism. The Republican party as a party is almost dead in North Carolina, but it is probable that the independent party will take its place. The colored vote will be divided. But there are thousands of white voters, who have, heretofore, been Democrats, or voted the Democratic ticket, who are tired of the contention and strife which has usually existed between the parties, and who have lost faith in the political integrity of both existing parties, and who will gladly join a new and independent organization. I should not be at all surprised to see a man of independent views elected as Merrimon's successor in the Senate in the coming fall. Gov Vance's and Senator Merrimon's friends are making a bitter fight against each other. It bodes no good for the Democracy. Southern people are tired of strife and disorder. When they begin to quarrel among themselves they make a mistake that might prove fatal to their cause afterwards. I am speaking of the Democratic cause, of course. There is an independent party growing in my State, and I believe all over the South."

Anything for Office.

[Augusta (Ga.) Chronicle, 27th.] Gen Clingman, of North Carolina, has written a letter in which he makes the following startling statement: "There are more than 120,000 Democrats in the State who, like myself, have not, since the war, been candidates for any high office, but have steadily labored for the promotion of others." Now, these 120,000 are so hungry for high office that they will strike an independent attitude and go hungrily for long-delayed loaves and fishes.

Future of the Phonograph.

The day is not far distant, murmurs the Elko Post, when the house-wife will glance into the woodshed, and finding that the husband has gone off without splitting the daily allowance of fuel, will take down the phonograph, howl into it a volley of epithets that will register one hundred and sixty pounds pressure to the square inch on the safety gauge, and then call out to her boy, "Here, John, go down town and grind that out to your lazy old father, and see that you turn the crank lively, too!"

The Spurs of the Liberator.

Gov Hampton, of South Carolina, has been sent by a Newport admirer, Mr W Woolsey, a splendid pair of silver spurs, with the following note: "These spurs were made by the Bogotano silversmiths after Bolivar struck the shackles from their limbs and made them free. They may well be worn by one who has made equal rights before the law a blessing and a reality to so many thousand freedmen."

A Narrow Escape.

[Spartanburg Speights, 28th.] We are pleased to state that Mr Chase's little girl, who fell out of the window of the Piedmont House last week, has improved so much that she is able to ride out. This is one of the most miraculous escapes that can be found upon record.

BEAUTY: OR, THE Secret of a Fair Face.

An Item of Interest to Every Lady who Desires to be More Beautiful than she now is.

Unfortunately not one woman in a hundred, subjected to the whims of an American climate possesses that basis and starting point of real beauty—a pure and clear complexion.

MAGNOLIA BALM

The MAGNOLIA BALM is a sure device for creating a pure and blooming complexion. It conceals all natural blemishes in the most surprising and effective manner.

It removes all roughness, eruptions, redness, blotches, freckles, and tan with magical power. It does away all evidences of fatigue and excitement.

It makes the plainest face beautiful. It gives the complexion a dazzling purity and makes the neck, face, and arms appear graceful, rosy, and plump.

It makes a matron of 35 or 40 look not more than 20 years old, and changes the rustic maiden into a cultivated city belle.

The Magnolia Balm removes all blemishes and conceals every disfigurement so beauty, and while it is so harmless to water, it is so life-like in its effect that the closest observer cannot detect its use.

Ladies who want to make themselves attractive can make an absolute certainty of it by using Hagan's MAGNOLIA BALM, and we know of no other way. It is the cheapest preparation in the world, all things considered, and may be had at any drug store.

IMPERIAL SALOON.

I TAKE pleasure in informing my friends that I will leave Charlotte on the 23rd June, for the Paris Exposition, and expect to be absent three months. During my absence my business will be under the management of my brother, Ambrose Fischesser. I trust that my friends will give the "Imperial" Saloon, during my temporary absence, the patronage that they have so generously given me in the past.
