OUR CONGRESSIONAL TICKET. SIXTH DISTRICT ALTER L. STEELE.

ELECTION, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 5TH. THE LAST CAMPAIGN.

of Richmond.

The National Republican, of the 20th, in a long editorial reviews the result of our August election, and satisfactorily concludes that the Republicans and independents may draw large draughts of consolation over the result, inasmuch as Democratic majorities were cut down very much in some portions of the State. The Republican ought to know that the Democratic State ticket for the Supreme Court bench had no opposition, and that hundreds of Democrats, knowing the result to be a foregone conclusion, took little or no interest in the election, and the fact that the present is an "off year," the strength of the Democracy was not brought out.

· We have had some sore heads and disorganizers in our ranks, but whenever they exhibit a desire to repent they will be received, back into the fold, and where they do not they will desert the Democratic standard and be turned over to the Republican party, where they belong. The Republican will find whenever occasion requires that the Democrats of North Carolina are neither shorn of their locks or despoiled of their strength.

MR. KEY AND THE VICE PRESIDENCY.

Grant ring as a spitable candidate for Vice Presidency, on the Grant ticket. Of all the propositions that have been submitted to the American people, we believe this one lacks most the requisite amount of thickness, if it is exected thereby that any considerable number of Democrats at the South are expected to swing from their political noorings and embrace the Key faith. Mr Key said when he accepted a position in the cabinet of a fraudulent President that he did so because the olive branch had been extended, and that he thought he could do something for his people He made this statement in a public speech in Charlotte. Mr Hayes makes all appointments for post offices of the first class, and Mr Tyner, the First Assistant Postmaster General, makes all others. Mr Key seems to be a kind of head clerk, with little or nothing to do but to have a good time; to

The idea that Mr Key is a representative Southern man is preposterous, and the further idea that any considerable number of Southern Democrats could be soft-soaped into supporting the Grant ticket with Key hung on to the tail is simply ridiculous. The idea that the old Whigs of the South would join the coalition, is an insult to their intelligence. He has not developed the first positive quality, and the only merit he has thus far shown is in toadyism.
