Not a Very Good Day for Eating. [Winton (N. C.) Sentry.] Mr. Robert J. Saunders, of Gates county, walked to Lumberton, about ten miles from his place of residence, a few weeks since, early Monday morning, and while there imbibed rather freely of "King Alky." He left for home about midnight, and on his way home vomited everything out of his stomach. He arrived at home a little after daybreak and asked his wife for something to eat, adding that he had eaten nothing since he left home, and was very hungry. She informed him that there was a cold baked raccoon in the cupboard, some cold bread and a pot of cold coffee, which she set on a table near his bed for him. In less than fifteen minutes the coon-the net weight of which was 18 lbs.—bread and coffee had disappeared, and he told his wife to hurry breakfast, that he was still very hungry. In a very short time breakfast was announced, whereupon he arose and prepared for it. For breakfast he ate eight herrings, six large slices of bacon—at least one lb. eighteen or twenty biscuits, he says he forgot which, combread in proportion, and drank another pot of coffee (half gal.) except one cup, which his wife drank. After breakfast he ate four cantaloupes, and then ate watermelons the balance of the day. The above statement is from the lips of Mr. Saunders, and he will testify to the same, ruptured.

The Next Senate

[Washington Republican, 7th.] The terms of twenty-four United States Senators will expire with the present Congress on the 4th of March next. They are: Alabama, George E. Spencer. Arkansas, Stephen W. Dorsey. California, Aaron A. Sargent. Colorado, Jerome B. Chaffee. Connecticut, Wm. H. Barnum. Florida, Simon B. Conover. Georgia, John B. Gordon. Illinois, Richard J. Oglesby. Indiana, Daniel W. Voorhees. Kansas, John J. Ingalls. Kentucky, Thomas C. McCreery. Louisiana, James B. Eustis. Maryland, George R. Dennis. Missouri, David D. Armstrong. Nevada-John P. Jones.

New Hampshire, Bainbridge Wadleigh.
New York, Roscoe Conkling.
North Carolina, Augustus Merrimon.
Ohio, Stanley Matthews. Oregon, John H. Mitchell.

Pennsylvania, James D. Cameron. South Carolina, John J. Patterson. Vermont, Justin S. Morrill. Wisconsin, Timothy O. Howe.

Of these sixteen are Republicans and eight Democrats. In ten States the Legislatures which choose the new Senators had been previously elected, and in the remaining fourteen they were chosen Tuesday. Of the Legislatures previously elected eight (those of Alabama, Arkansas, California, Indiana, Maryland, North Carolina, Ohio, and Oregon) are controlled by the Democrats, and two (those of Colorado and Vermont) have Republican majorities. Democratic Senators have already been elected in Maryland and Ohio. Of the State Legislatures chosen seven those of Connecticut, Illinois, Kansas, Nevada, New York, Pennsylvania and Wisconsin) will be controlled by the Republicans and six (those of Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Missouri and South Carolina) by the Democrats. In the present Senate there are 39 Republicans, 34 Democrats, and one unattached Independent; Republican majority, 4. In the next Senate the relative strength of the two parties will be as follows: Republicans, 33; Demo-

[Atlanta (Ga.) Independent.] A correspondent writing from Bellton, in this State, says that a most remarkable case of bagain and sale took place near that place a few days ago. It was a sale which almost equaled the famous buying and selling of the Presidency by the Southern returning It seems that a white woman, about twenty-one or two years oldcompos mentis-actually bought from an elderly woman her son, for the express purpose of making a husband of him. The young man was said to have been about twenty years old; the mother, however, sold him for a muslin dress and a few yards of calico. The trade was made Sunday and the man was to be delivered three miles from the purchasers' house the Tuesday following, and although that Tuesday was a bad day, one of those cold east rains that are common this season of the year prevailing, the fair purchaser walked her three miles in the rain to get possession of her investment. Says the correspondent: "This is no hoax, but true; the names could be given if necessary." The contract having been closed on Sunday, however, is void in the eyes of Kept His Word. [Winston (N. C.) Sentinel.] Mr. Lewis Cotton, of Bertie county. who was in town last week, states the following: "Soon after the late war he went to Petersburg, Va., with a drove of cattle. As it was necessary to take a wagon along he also carried a bale of cotton to make up his load. The last quotations he had received prior to starting cotton was selling at 50 cents per pound in Petersburg, and Mr. C. expected to realize that price for his bale; but cotton had declined, and 45 cents was the best offer he could get. After travelling all over the city and satisfying himself that he could not obtain a better price, he dumped his bale out in front of a commission house, remarking to the factor: "You may take this bale, as I may need the money, but I'll be damned if I ever sell any more cotton for that price." 'Tis needless to add that he has sacredly kept his word.

The New York Elevated Railway.

[Philadelphia Times.]

They seem to be getting quite desperate over in New York in regard to their noisy elevated railway. The seriousness of the situation may be grasped by outsiders when we state that the World paused yesterday in the midst of its jubilations over the defeat of Tammany to suggest that "some practical man of science" shall "invent a mechanical appliance, by the use of which he reputable New York newspaper advises, produce temporary deafness it is evident that things are in a pretty bad way. Perhaps, though, the World only means that people had better put their fingers in their ears when the trains are passing, and is constrained to express itself in grandiloquent terms.

No More Sleepless Nights.

Somebody, who seems to have tried it, says: "The latest method we have heard of for curing sleeplessness, when unaccompanied by pain or disease, is the following: Get out of bed and take ter stamps. I. S. JOHNSON & CO., Bangor. Me. If another lady treads on a bit of or- a linen bandage-although a hankerange peel and scatters herself all over | chief, neatly folded longwise, will do as the sidewalk you will spend half an well, perhaps better. Dip one-half the handkerchief into water, pass the wet portion around the wrist, over this lay the dry half, and tuck in the ends so as to make all secure. Lie down again. The wet bandage will be bound to exer-cise a most soothing influence on the pulse; this will soon extend all over the nervous system, and calm, refreshing sleep will be the result."

> A Year of Disaster. [Philadelphia Record.]

The year 1878 will be a memorable It is a curious fact that, while there has been a decline in wages, and in prices of family supplies, there has been a gradual increase in funeral expenses.

Custom has made a rule for wealthy and poor, and both classes. Mullen Tea for Consumption.

[Riedville Times.] Capt. Gee, conductor on Richmond & Danville passenger, had a hemorrhage last Friday night, brought on from lift-ing a heavy trunk at Belle Isle. Capt. Gee had hemorrhages some years ago He spit blood Saturday at Danville but was still at his post, and ran his train by Monday night. We suggested mullen tea. An old gentleman siting near heard the suggestion and told Gee he had been drinking it a menth, at a quart a day, and he thought it was doing him good. We know of remarkable cures from mullen as well as from kerosene oil. But we trust this clever conductor will not have another attack. It might only have been a blood vessel

The Matter With Some of the Baltimore Churches.

Mr. Moody is laboring at Baltimore Chief among the evils in the churches, he said in a sermon last week, are church choirs—ungodly men and women who happen to have good voices, and often drunken organists. Mr. Moody denounced the methods employed in raising money by church fairs. Lotteries, voting and raffles were encouraged. The young men now, instead of going to a low gambling den, could go to God's Church and gamble. Actually, at one church fair, the sum of 25 cents was charged for the privilege of kissing the handsomest young woman in the church -presumably to help the work of God.

Kicking Him After He is Down.

[Philadelphia Times.] Now that he is down, Jay Gould's Tribune, which never opened its mouth to defeat him, is giving poor Ben Butler hot-shot in the way of paragraph squibs. That wasn't Horace Greeley's way of fighting. Future generations will refuse to believe that the Tribune was the journal that Greeley founded.

Gen. Butler.

[New York Sun.] Edward Everett was once defeated as a candidate for Governor of Massachusetts by one vote. Gen. Butler has something still to boast of in comparison. He was defeated, like the accomplished Everett, not by a single vote, but by a handsome majority. Beware of Cheap Excitants, And use, if you need a tonic stimulant and altera-tive, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. --A Remarkable Result.

It makes no difference how many physicians, or how much medicine you have tried, it is now an es-tablished fact that German Syrup is the only remetablished fact that German Syrup is the only remedy which has given complete satisfaction in severe cases of Lung Diseases. It is true there are yet thousands of persons who are predisposed to Throat and Lung Affections, Consumption, Hemorrhages, Asthma, Severe Colds settled on the Breast, Pneumonia, Whooping Cough, &c., who have no personal knowledge of Boschee's German Syrup. To such we would say that 50,000 dozen were sold last year without one complaint. Consumptives try just one bottle. Regular size 75 cents. Sold by all druggists in America.

Consumption Cured. An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a single vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure for consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its mondarful curative power in nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering. I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and using in German, French or English. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper. W.
