Mr. Jones replied that he was aware that on first sight the bill seemed obnoxious to the objections raised by Mr Cooke, but that the purpose of the tax on privileges and elections. Ayes and sought to be levied was to pay costs in noes being called for the vote stood a capital case and he thought this was, or ought to be, an exception. He moved the reference of the bill to the committee on judiciary. Mr. Lockhart stated that he also was eass on that question.

Mr. Turner said that he would like to vote for the bill. That he believed in giving members what local legislation they wanted, and he felt specially kindly to Mr. Jones, because that gentleman voted against turning him out of the caucus, but he too felt estopped by the constitutional objection.

Mr. Jones did not think that the bill was unconstitutional. He withdrew his motion to refer. Mr. Clarke renewed the motion to re-

Mr. Cooke said that whenever the State tax exceeded 22 cents on the hundred, the proof was conclusive that a bill of this kind was either unconstitutional or unnnecessary. That the way for the county to do was to retrench. Mr. Vaughan said that Mr. Cooke was ahead of the subject in that he assumed that the tax authorized to be levied by tional limit. The motion to refer was lost, and the bill failed to pass a second time, year 34, noes 80.

Mr. Jones moved to reconsider the vote just had. He said that he voted in the negative not because he thought the bill unconstitutional, but for the purpose of moving a reconsideration. After some further consideration the motion to reconsider prevailed.

Mr. Jones thereupon moved that the bill be referred to the committee on the judiciary, with instructions, to give in full the reason for such report as should be made. This motion prevailed.

On motion of Mr. Berry the resolu-tion to raise a joint select committee to investigate the affairs of the Western North Carolina Railroad and Western insane asylum was taken up, the substitute adopted by the Senate concurred in, and the resolution adopted. Mr. Lindsay moved that the rules be suspended and the resolution to raise a ment be taken up. The motion prevailed and the resolution was read. Mr. Turner moved to amend the resolution so as to give the committee authority to investigate all alleged frauds. After some discussion, the minendment was voted down. Mr. Turner then moved to amend by providing that if any evidence of fraud be discovered by the committee the parties against whom the evidence was should be arrested. SAFE AND SURE.

In 1872 your Vegetine was recommended to me and yielding to the persuations of a friend I consented to try it. At the time I was suffering its passage. The motion prevailed and the bill was read the second time.

Mr. Cooke said the bill was only of local force, But that in the present instance the law sought to be enacted was open to constitutional objection. The constitution of the State provide that the tax, State and county combined, shall not exceed a certain limit. If this limit was already reached in Caldwell county then the law could not be passed, if the limit had been reached then its passage was

VEGETINE

The following letter from Rev. G. W Mansfield, formerly pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, Hyde Park, and at present settled in Lowell, must convince every one who reads his letter of the wonderful curative qualities of Vegetine as a thorough cleanaer and purifier of the blood. Hyde Park, Mass., Feb. 15, 1876.

Mr. Lockhart stated that he also was restrained from voting for the bill by the constitutional objection.

Mr. McCorkle thought that the constitutional objection, if applicable, was final, but wanted the legal members to pass on that question.

Mr. Lockhart stated that he also was per situation and the best stated from years ago my health failed through the depicting effects of dyspepsia; nearly a year later I was attacked by typhold-fever in its form of a large deep-seated abscess, which was final, but wanted the legal members to operations by the best skill in the State, but received no permanent cure. I suffered great pain at times, and was constantly weakened by a profit discharge. I also lost small pieces of bone at dif-ferent times.

Matters ran on thus about seven years, till May, 1874, when a friend recommended me, to go to your office, and talk with you of the virtue of Vegetine. I did so, and by your kindness passed through your manufactory, noting the ingredients, &c., by which your remedy is produced.

By what I saw and heard I gained some confidence in Veretine. dence in Vegetine.

I commenced taking it soon after, but felt worse from its effects; still I persevered, and soon felt it was benefitting me in other respects. Yet I did not see the results I desired till I had taken it faithfully for little more than a rear, when the difficulty in the back was cured; and for nine mouths I have entered the best of bealth.

the back was cured; and for nine months I have enjoyed the best of health.

I have in that time gained twenty-live pounds of flesh, being heavier than ever before in my life, and I was never more able to perform labor than now.

During the past few weeks I had a scrottleus swelling as large as my list gather on another part of my body. of my body.

I took Vegetine faithfully, and it removed it level with the surface in a month. I think I should have been cured of my main trouble sooner if I had take en larger doses, after having become accust to its effects.

Let your patrons troubled with scrofula or kidney disease understand that it takes time to cure chronic diseases; and, if they will patiently take Vegetine, it will, in my judgement, cure them.

With great obligations I am
