the scratch with a corresponding number. The remaining birds, after making the selection of thirty-one to be used in the main, will be fought in various ways and for various sums of money. It is the intention of the gentlemen who represent Georgia in the main to fight or offer to fight every chicken that they carry to New Orleans. They have no desire to bring any of them back home, as they have hundreds still left in our State upon which they can draw at any time. It is thought that the fighting will continue several days. probably an entingweek, after the main is decided.

THE INITIAL BATTLE.

The first battle of the main will be fought Thursday, February 20th, and the fighting will be continued Friday and Saturday. Sunday no battles to be included in the main will be fought. Monday the remaining fights will take place, and the main will end upon that day.

Each battle will be fought for a sum of $250 a side, and upon the deciding fight each side will wager $2,500.

In this main 2% inch drop-socket steel gaffs will be used. The birds will be trimmed of all useless plumage, so as to make them fight as light as possible, and at the same time to keep them from getting over-heated while fighting. The birds fought will range in weight from 4-10 to 6-2. These weights are best fighting fowls.

PITTING THE FIGHTERS.

Mr. Charley Brown, of Columbus, Ga., will handle and pit the Georgia fowls. He has had much experience in this line of business and is said to have no superior.

Mr. Tom O'Neil, of Louisville, Ky. assisted by .Mr. Tom Moore, of Crab Orchard, Ky., will handle and fight the Kentucky fowls. Each of these gentlemen, it is said, possesses a large amount of experience in the practice of fighting chickens.

The main will close the day before Mardi Gras, and it is thought that the sport will be witnessed by the largest audience that ever attended a similar entertainment in New Orleans. Those who arranged the main to come off just before Mardi Gras have selected an admirable date, as at that time the city of swim the sea of slaughter till my eyes New Orleans will be crowded with vis- stick out like ink bottles. ## A Beautiful Story.

A touching begging story with a good moral, is told by the Pittsburg *Tele-*graph: A young man who had been on a three days' debauch wandered into the reading-room of a hotel, where he was well known, sat down and stared moodily in the street. Presently a little girl of about ten years came in and looked timidly about the room. She was dressed in rags, but she had a sweet. intelligent face that could scarcely fail to excite sympathy. There were five persons in the room, and she went to each begging. One gentleman gave her a five cent piece, and she then went to the gentleman spoken of and asked him for a penny, adding, "I haven't had anything to eat for a whole day." The gentleman was out of humor, and he said crossly: "Don't bother me; go away! I haven't had anything to eat for three days." The child opened her eves in shy days." The child opened her eyes in shy wonder and stared at him for a mo-the appearance of an overstocked tene-The turned the knob, and then after hesitating a few seconds, walked up to him, and gently laying the five cents she had received on his knee, said, with a tone of true girlish pity in her voice, "If you haven't had anything to eat for three days, you take this and go and buy some bread. Perhaps I can get some more somewhere." The young fellow blushed to the roots of his hair, and lifting the Sister of Charity in his arms, klassed her two or three times in delight. Then he took her to the persons in the room, and to those in the corridors and the office, and told the story and asked contributions, giving himself all the money he had with him. He succeeded in raising over $40, and sent the little one on her way rejoicing.

More Emigrants.

[Charleston News and Courier, 20th.] On Saturday morning last another

batch of emigrants for Liberia arrived casional headache, with humming or throbbing of in the city by the Northeastern Rail-road train. The party, consisting of the ears; an unusual secretion of saliva; slimy or two men, four women and ten children, hail from Fremont, Wayne county, North Carolina. They had heard of the return of the Azor and came without notifying any of the Grand Mogu's of the L. E. A., and consequently met with entirely gone; fleeting pains in the stomach; occano warm reception at the depot or headquarters in Exchange street in the rear of the post-office. It required three wagons to carry from the depot the numerous articles brought with them, such as pots, kettles, jugs, bedding and everything useful to the ordinary countryman. After waiting for over an hour in the street, and attracting around them many curious persons, one of the shining lights of the L. E. A. appeared teeth; temper variable, but generally irritable, &c. Whenever the above symptoms are found o exist ment. The would-be emigrants don't seem to have a very clear idea of how they are to reach the promised land. They came down blindly and appear to be satisfied to wait. Up to a late hour Saturday evening none of them had paid up the $37.50 passage money. So far about eight or ten negroes from on the wrapper. Georgia have engaged passage. The money has been placed in bank as well as the money paid by any who desire to secure passage, and in the event of a failure to secure the required number of passengers will be faithfully returned to the owners. In this instance the L. E. A. does not have the custody of the funds.

The Next Senate.

In the Forty-sixth Congress the Republican side of the Senate will be mentally and morally, as well as nu-merically, weaker than it has been for a score of years, while the Democratic side will be strönger in the same proportion than it has been since the day when the Democracy fell into the arms of secession ... Thurman, Bayard, Wallace, Kernan, Pendleton, Voorhees, Mc-Donald, Hampton, Hill, Gordon, Vance, will find only an Edmunds as the peer of any of them in the heavy artillery of debate, and Blaine about the only foeman fit to cope with them in the use of the lighter and keener weapons of parliamentary warfare.
