ROCKINGHAM SPIRIT OF THE SOUTH

Lincoln Progress: A peculiar disease, supposed to be caused by trichina, a very small and deadly parasite, has recently developed itself in the hogs about town. Maj. McLean killed a hog weighing about two hundred and fifty pounds that was so badly diseased, that every lean particle was literally covered with globular shaped substances which were evidently alive. The fat of the hog was not infested in this way. The major also lost a large porker that is supposed to have died from the same disease.
