

A Bill to be Entitled "An Act to Relieve the Tax-Payers of North Carolina."

WHEREAS, The cost of maintaining the convicts is one of the most onerous burdens under which our people suffer, and which demands at the hands of this Assembly immediate and effective relief...

Section 1. That all persons sentenced to the penitentiary, who may by law be hired, farmed out, or employed without the writ of the penitentiary, shall be hired and farmed out in the following manner, to-wit:

Section 2. That if all shall not be thus hired or farmed out, then the same to be let to such individuals or corporations as will give bond for the proper maintenance and guarding of such prisoners.

Section 3. That each bidder shall be required to furnish a justified bond, approved by some judge of the Superior Court, in the sum of five hundred dollars for each convict bid for, to secure the hire, maintenance, and guarding of the same...

Section 4. That all laws and parts of laws now in force providing for the hire of convicts in any other manner, and all laws donating convict labor to aid in the building or completion of railway or other corporate works, be and are hereby repealed...

Section 5. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

It is reported that there is some disposition on the part of Congress to vote the "supplies" necessary to carry into effect the so-called rearranges of pensions act.

The one redeeming trait in all boss wives is the woman in them. I never saw a boss wife who didn't have her feminine spells. Some of them retire to their rooms once in three or four weeks, stop up the key-hole, and have a good cry before the glass.

THE LIFE OF BRIGLIOLI SECURE A DIVORCE. In the Supreme Court of New York City, last Saturday, the wife of Briglioli, the actor, was granted a divorce from her husband on the alleged ground that he had during the year 1878 broken his marriage vows on several occasions.

STOLEN AN EAR-RING ON FIFTH AVENUE. New York, February 14.—A most daring highway robbery was perpetrated in broad daylight on Fifth Avenue in the city of New York on Friday last.

A SOURCE OF MUCH BODILY EVIL. If the fumes of body become stagnant, much evil is inflicted on the system. The stomach becomes dyspeptic, bilious symptoms develop themselves, the circulation is contaminated, and the nerves share in the general disorder.

REMARKABLE REALTY.

It makes no difference how many physicians, or how much medicine you have tried, if it is now as usual, the fact that you are suffering from the disease of which you have given complete satisfaction in several instances, is a fact that should be taken into consideration.
