THE LEGISLATURE.

[Raleigh Observer.]

SENATE.

February 17.

ELECTION OF MAGISTRATES.

Mr. Waddell introduced a joint resolution to postpone the day of election of justices of the peace till 12 m., on the 25th inst. Adopted and transmitted to the House for concurrence.

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS.

Mr. Williamson introduced the following important bill, which passed its first reading and was referred to the judiciary committee.

A BILL TO DEFINE THE DUTIES OF SHERIFFS PERFORMING THE DUTIES OF COUNTY TREASURERS.

That in counties where the office of county treasurer has been or hereafter may be abolished, and where the sheriff is authorized to perform the duties of county treasurer, the bonds he gives as sheriff shall be construed to include his liabilities and duties as such county treasurer, and may be increased to such amount by the county commissioners as they may deem necessary to cover the trust funds coming into his hands.

Mr. Eaves introduced a bill to charter the Rutherford and Spartanburg Railroad Company, and for other purposes. Passed first reading and referred.

Mr. Snow introduced a bill to restore lost records in the county of Burke. Passed first reading and referred.

A message was received from the House transmitting engrossed Senate bill to regulate the fees of jailers, with an amendment, and asking the concurrence of the Senate.

Mr. Henderson explained that the bill as it went to the House had fixed the maximum fees of jailers, but left the minimum open. He moved that the Senate do not concur, and asked for a committee of conference. Adopted.

On motion of Mr. Williamson, the rules were suspended, and the bill in relation to the staff of the Governor was taken up. [The bill provides for the creation of eight additional aides, with the rank of colonel, and such other officers as may be deemed necessary, subject to army regulations—said officers to receive no pay in times of peace.] The bill passed its several readings and was ordered to be engrossed.

On motion of Mr. Brower, the vote by which the bill concerning freights of railroads and other transportation companies passed its third reading on Saturday, was reconsidered, and the bill was recommitted.

CALENDAR.

The following bills passed their third reading and were ordered to be engrossed:

To authorize the commissioners of McDowell county to levy a special tax not to exceed $3,000, to liquidate the county debt—subject to the approval of a majority of the commissioners and justices of the peace.

House bill to authorize the commissioners of Caldwell county to levy a special tax to pay the county debt, passed its third reading and was ordered to enrolment. [The bill provides that the sum required—$3,000—may be raised in two years, but not more that $2,000 shall be levied in one year.]

On motion of Mr. Davidson, and at 11:50 o'clock, a message was sent to the House proposing to adjourn immediately in respect to the memory of the late Joseph A. Engelhard, Secretary of State.

On motion of Mr. Scales the rules were suspended, and Senate bill to incorporate the Grand Lodge of Good Templars of North Carolina passed its second and third readings, and was ordered to be engrossed.

Mr. Harris moved that when the Senate adjourn it do so to meet again at 7½ p. m. Adopted.

A message was received from the House announcing the concurrence of that body in the Senate resolution to change the day for the election of justices of the peace; also concurring in the Senate motion to adjourn immediately; whereupon

The Senate adjourned till 7½ p. m.

NIGHT SESSION.

On the re-assembling of the Senate at 7½ p. m., the unfinished business of Saturday was resumed, being the bill to incorporate the Yadkin Railroad Company, the question being on the passage of the bill on its second reading as amended by the substitute of the committee on internal improvements.

Mr. Austin said he had been misrepresented in the reports of Saturday. While he favored the bill, he was opposed to a reckless system of chartering such corporations.

Mr. Shackelford moved to amend by providing that the company should have convict labor pro rata instead of the 150 convicts provided for in the bill.

Mr. Henderson objected to this new feature being engrafted on his bill. He had no objection to the principle of the amendment, and thought the object could be obtained by the passage of a supplemental bill in which the question of convict labor might be arranged so as to apply fairly to all public works.

Mr. Mebane inquired why two points were named as termini on the Central railroad?

Mr. Henderson said that in fixing one terminus at Wadesboro a direct route to Charleston was secured, whilst by the way of Rockingham a direct route to Wilmington would be had.

After a lengthy debate upon the question of pro rata, and its meaning—whether in proportion to the amount of stock of the corporation, &c., and regardless of the interest of the State involved, or the public utility of the work—participated in by Messrs. Henderson, Davidson, Shackelford, Caldwell and Merritt, the amendment of Mr. Shackelford was adopted by a vote of 22 to 13.

The bill then passed its third reading and was ordered to be engrossed.

House bill in reference to a lien on colts, (extending the time from six to twelve months.) Passed its several readings and was ordered to enrollment.

House bill making the killing of stock on railroads indictable was discussed at considerable length by Messrs. Austin, Dortch, Bynum, Hoyle, and Graham, of Lincoln.

Mr. Dortch moved to confine the operations of the bill to the Carolina Central Railroad, a bankrupt concern, owned by northern men, in which the State had invested from two to three million dollars and been robbed of it.

The drift of the argument of the Senators was that all the complaint came from the people on the line of this Carolina Central, where their stock was recklessly killed; and where suits resulted, and judgments were sought to be enforced, the officers of the law were met by the plea that the entire road and its earnings were mortgaged, and could not be touched, and that the only way in which the concern could be reached was by criminal process.

Mr. Dortch's amendment was adopted, as also was another amendment by that Senator confining the operations of the act to the engineers and conductors of the road, as it was deemed impossible to reach in this way the higher officers of the company, who reside probably hundreds of miles away.

On a call for the previous question the bill as thus amended passed its second reading by a vote of 29 to 5. The bill was then put on its third reading and passed.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

February 17.

BILLS

were introduced by Messrs. Oliver Hewitt, Council, Orchard, Bruce, Huffstetler, Berry, Anderson, Amis, Carter, of Yancey, and Brown, of Mecklenburg

CALENDAR.

Bill in regard to public wharves and depots, allowing "runners" of hotels, &c., at such, without discrimination, was explained by Mr. Scott and passed.

Resolution to postpone the election of magistrates one week came over from the Senate and provoked considerable discussion, which was participated in by Messrs. Lewis, Norment, Carter, of Buncombe, Rawley and Blaisdell.

The resolution was finally adopted.

A message was received from the Senate covering the following resolution:

Resolved, That a message be sent to the House of Representatives proposing to adjourn immediately in respect to the late J. A. Enhelhard, the late Secretary of State, and that the General Assembly attend the funeral in a body.

This resolution was concurred in.

Thereupon Mr. Atkinson said: Mr. Speaker, in accordance with the resolution just adopted, I move this House do now adjourn.

Adjourned.

NIGHT SESSION.

CALENDAR.

Bill to make the prosecutor pay the costs in criminal actions wherever the prosecution is frivolous.

Mr. Carter, of Buncombe, spoke briefly in favor of the bill, and it passed.

The substitute adopted by the Senate for the House bill to abolish the office of State geologist next occupied the attention of the House. This substitute allows the Governor to appoint a State geologist, who shall be paid by the agricultural department.

Mr. Atkinson moved to refer the matter to the committee on propositions and grievances. This motion was discussed by Messrs. Foard, Norment, Lewis, Mebane, Anderson and Blocker.

Mr. Atkinson withdrew his motion to refer, and then the fight came squarely on the Senate amendment. On this subject speeches were made by Messrs. Blocker, English and Foard.

Mr. Atkinson offered an amendment by adding as follows: "Provided, That the operations of the agricultural department and geological survey are suspended in their operations for the term of two years, and the fund derived from the tax on fertilizers, and all other funds coming to either department, shall be turned over to the general fund of the State."

The amendment was discussed by Messrs. Atkinson, Richardson, of Columbus, Amis, Lewis, Davis, of Catawba, Blocker, Barringer, Hines, Dimsdale, Foard, Vaughan, Turner and Waddell, and was adopted.

The question then being on the bill as amended, it was discussed by Messrs. Reid, of Macon, Foard, Bost and Vaughan.

Mr. Atkinson stated that he was willing to withdraw his amendment; that he and his friends had had a great triumph, as the vote on it had demonstrated the fact that the House at least wanted the abolition of both the geologist and the agricultural department, and he gave notice that he would hereafter introduce a bill to carry out this purpose.

On motion of Mr. Reid, of Macon, the amendment was stricken out and the House then concurred in the Senate substitute and adjourned.

Merchants, travelers, visitors to New York, don't fail to remember, that in order to accommodate and save your money, to make war on prices, and to fill the largest Hotel in New York, the Mammoth Grand Central, on Broadway, will hereafter be kept on both the American and European plans. The American plan including meals and lodging $2.50 or $3.00, and the European plan $1.00, and upwards per day. An elegant Restaurant, at moderate prices, is conducted by the Hotel.

THE "RISING SUN."

"CONQUER BY THIS SIGN."

SO thought Constantine when he became a convert, because a "Pagan" refused to absolve him from the guilt of his crimes, and the "christian" readily agreed, and specially manufactured for him a "sign" by which he was to "conquer."

Henry the VIII in turn rejected Constantine's specialty and became the "defender of the new Faith" with his six wives, one only outliving him.

Seven hundred years before Constantine lived Solomon, who built a Temple with out-houses, court, &c., on 20 acres of ground, 700 wives, 300 ditto—a good sized population to the acre. The Queen of Sheba admired his wisdom much more than his magnificence, and significantly remarked that "the half of his greatness had not been told her"; but after he declared that "all is vanity," built high places for the worship of heathen deities and died.

Napoleon Bonaparte, on his narrow escape from the inflowing tide of the Red Sea, while passing through on the spot where Pharaoh and his horse perished, exclaimed: "If I had perished here like Pharaoh, what a text I would have furnished Orthodoxy" and C. S. Holton to advertise his Confectioneries and Groceries at the "Rising Sun," on Trade street, opposite the Market House, where everything in the above lines may be found, including Ferry's Garden Seeds, Green and Canned Fruits, Nuts, Teas, Coffees, Sugars, Pickles, fine Cigars and Tobacco, Toys, &c. VEGETINE.

HER OWN WORDS.

Baltimore, Md., Feb. 13, 1877.

Mr. H. R. Stevens:—

Dear Sir—Since several years I have got a sore and very painful foot. I had some physicians, but they couldn't cure me. Now I have heard of your Vegetine from a lady who was sick for a long time, and became all well from your Vegetine, and I went and bought me one bottle of Vegetine; and after I had used one bottle, the pain left me, and it began to heal, and then I bought one other bottle, and so I take it yet. I thank God for this remedy and yourself; and wishing every sufferer may pay attention to it.

It is a blessing for health.

MRS. C KRABE, 638 West Baltimore Street.

VEGETINE.

SAFE AND SURE.

Mr. H. R. Stevens:—

In 1872 your Vegetine was recommended to me, and yielding to the persuasions of a friend, I consented to try it. At the time I was suffering from general debility and nervous prostration, superinduced by overwork and irregular habits. Its wonderful strengthening and curative properties seemed to affect my debilitated system from the first dose; and under its persistent use I rapidly recovered, gaining more than usual health and good feeling. Since then I have not hesitated to give Vegetine my most unqualified indorsement, as being a safe, sure and powerful agent in promoting health and restoring the wasted system to new life and energy. Vegetine is the only medicine I use; and as long as I live I never expect to find a better. Yours truly, W. H. CLARK, 120 Monterey Street, Alleghany, Penn.

VEGETINE

THE BEST SPRING MEDICINE.

Charlestown.

Mr. H. R. Stevens:—

Dear Sir—This is to certify that I have used your "Blood Preparation in my family for several years, and think that for Scrofula or Cankerous Humors or Rheumatic affections it cannot be excelled; and as a blood purifier and spring medicine it is the best thing I have ever used, and I have used almost everything. I can cheerfully recommend it to any one in need of such a medicine.

Yours respectfully,

MRS. A. A. DINSMORE, 19 Russell street.

VEGETINE.

WHAT IS NEEDED.

Boston, Feb. 13, 1871.

H. R. Stevens, Esq.:

Dear Sir—About one year since I found myself in a feeble condition from general debility. Vegetine was strongly recommended to me by a friend who had been much benefited by its use. I procured the article, and, after using several bottles, was restored to health, and discontinued its use. I feel quite confident that there is no medicine superior to it for those complaints for which it is especially prepared, and would cheeerfully recommend it to those who feel that they need something to restore them to perfect health.

Respectfully yours,

U. L. PETTINGILL, Firm of S. M. Pettingill & Co., No. 10 State steeet, Boston.

VEGETINE.

ALL HAVE OBTAINED RELIEF.

South Berwick, Me., Jan. 17, 1872.

H. R. Stevens, Esq.:

Dear Sir—I have had dyspepsia in its worst form for the last ten years, and have taken hundreds of dollars' worth of medicine without obtaining any relief. In September last I commenced taking the Vegetine, since which time my health has steadily improved. My food digests well, and I have gained fifteen pounds of flesh. There are several others in this place taking Vegetine, and all have obtained relief.

Yours truly,

THOMAS E. MOORE, Overseer Card Rooms Portsmouth Co.s' Mills.

ST. NICHOLAS.

SCRIBNER'S ILLUSTRATED MAGAZINE

FOR GIRLS AND BOYS.

AN IDEAL CHILDREN'S MAGAZINE.

Messrs. Scribner & Co., in 1873, began the publication of ST. NICHOLAS, an Illustrated Magazine for Girls and Boys, with Mrs. Mary Mapes Dodge as editor. Five years have passed since the first number was issued, and the magazine has won the highest position. It has a monthly circulation of OVER 50,000 COPIES.

It is published simultaneously in London and New York, and the transatlantic recognition is almost as general and hearty as the American. Although the progress of the magazine has been a steady advance, it has not reached its editor's ideas of best, because her ideal continually outruns it, and the magazine as swiftly follows after. To-day ST. NICHOLAS stands

The arrangements for literary and art contributions for the new volume—the sixth—are complete, drawing from already favorite sources, as well as from promising new ones. Mr. Frank R. Stockton's new serial story for boys,

"A JOLLY FELLOWSHIP,"

Will run through the twelve monthly parts,—beginning with the number for November, 1878, the first of the volume,—and will be illustrated by Jas. E. Kelly. The story is one of travel and adventure in Florida and the Bahamas. For the girls, a continued tale,

"HALF A DOZEN HOUSEKEEPERS,"

By Katharine D. Smith, with illustrations by Frederick Dielman, begins in the same number; and a fresh serial by Susan Coolidge, entitled "Eyebright," with plenty of pictures, will be commenced early in the volume. There will also be a continued fairy-tale called

"RUMPTY DODGET'S TOWER,"

Written by Julian Hawthorne, and illustrated by Alfred Fredericks. About the other familiar features of ST. NICHOLAS, the editor preserves a good-humored silence, content, perhaps, to let her five volumes already issued, prophesy concerning the sixth, in respect to short stories, pictures, poems, humor, instructive sketches, and the lure and lore of "Jack-in-the-Pulpit," the "Very Little Folks" department, and the "Letter-obx," and "Riddle-box."

Terms, $3.00 a year; 25 cents a number. Subscriptions received by the publisher of this paper, and by all booksellers and postmasters. Persons wishing to subscribe direct with the publishers should write name, postoffice, county and State, in full, and send with remittance in check, P. O. money order, or registered letter to
