the New York Tribune: "A ticket porter has won the grand diamond parure; a young man who sells ladies gloves at the Vieuxtemps, the locomotive; a girl employed in polishing pinchbeck rings, 25, 120 frames worth of brilliants; an employe in the lational, the fellow lot. So far there has not been a rich man or woman ravored by fortune with a gross lot. All the water does not go to the river. It is well for people, weightly handcapped by the ctreumstances of their birth, breeding and employment, to believe in luck as well as the saving power of merit." The scheme of the celebrated Louisland State Lottery is far more attractive, as presented for the next drawing in another column.
