HOME PENCILINGS.

There ought to be a general burning out of chimneys the first rainy day we have.

There will be a german in the Assembly rooms Friday night. No postponement this time.

Yesterday was the day dedicated in the calendar of the Catholic church to the glory of St. Joseph.

The provision and cotton markets were both up yesterday and were more or less feverish all day.

It is estimated that, on an average, about three chicken coops are robbed in Charlotte every night. It never stops.

Judge Kerr was better yesterday than at any time since his illness in this city. It is expected now that he will improve rapidly.

There is to be a sacred concert in the Baptist church some time next week. Due notice of the exact time will be given.

If there is anything that makes a fireman mad, it is to run a half mile towards a fire and find that it is only a chimney burning out.

The cold weather has not materially harmed the rapidly growing vegetables, which are now far advanced for this season of the year.

The mule trade has become quite extensive in Charlotte this season. About one hundred of these animals, shipped mostly from Kentucky, have been sold here within the last month.

The Rudisill Mining Company have had another assay of their ore made, which shows the vein recently discovered, to be much richer than that from which ore was taken worth $78 per ton.

A prominent business man of this city says the business outlook for the coming year is better than it has been for several years past, and he is prepared to show it.

An alarm of fire was caused yesterday about 2:30 by the burning out of a chimney in the Mansion House. A good deal of excitement prevailed for a short time and all the companies started out.

At a late meeting of the board of commissioners of New Hanover county, Capt. T. L. Vail, chairman of the Mecklenburg board presented a claim for the payment of some sixty odd dollars for maintaining a pauper from that county, in the Mecklenburg county poor house, which, by advice of the county attorney, the board refused to pay.

Two Ears.

Speaking of rabbits' ears Billy Hand, at Wriston & Co's drug store, has a pair five inches long and large accordin'. They were sent him by a friend in Texas and once rested on the head of a prarie rabbit—more commonly known as a jack-rabbit, because the ears look so much like a mule's. Another thing about these ears is that they were sent all the way from Texas by mail for two cents.

Dyspeptics.

We would call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Vest Pocket Cure for dyspepsia. The Religious Herald, of Richmond, the official organ of the Baptists of the South, says: "It is endorsed by the direct personal testimony of men of national fame and of strictness of speech. It is not too much to say that no medicine ever had such support in its favor as a specific. The word of any one of the eminent divines who underwrite this antidote to dyspepsia has deserved weight. Their united witness joined with the experimental use and approval of the preparation by well-known physicians, removes all doubt. It is, beyond question, a wonderful therapeutical agent."

Church Dedication.

The Spartanburg Spartan of the present week says: "The Presbyterian church at Gaffney's was dedicated last Saturday. Dr. Miller from Charlotte preached Saturday and Sunday. His sermons are highly spoken of, especially the one preached Sunday. The subject was, 'Christ the Corner Stone,' and the sermon will be long remembered by those who heard it. We congratulate our friends on the completion of their church, and hope they will fill up a gap in the battle line that is waging war against sin and iniquity."

A Practical and Scientific Farmer Wants a Place.

The following letter addressed to the editor of this paper by Mr. Ira Fredrick, now in Columbia, is copied in the hope of its being the means of aiding a foreigner who has come to settle among us:

"I am a practical as well as a scientific farmer of Germany; have managed large farms, first in Prussia, then near Odessa on the Black Sea in South Russia, and lastly in Mecklenburg, a small principality in Germany. I am poor, have no means, and yet it may be possible that, through your large acquaintance with planters who may want a practical farmer and manager, I could get a situation, profitable as well for the farmer or planter as to myself, if you would be kind enough to aid me and extend a helping in my endeavors so to do.

"Hoping to receive a few lines of you in regard to the matter in which I have expressed myself, I beg you be assured that I am Yours, &c.

Absent Minded People and the Postoffice.

Another absent minded or careless person has just left a package in the postoffice addressed to Huntersville, on which there is no sign of a stamp. This sort of thing is frequently done, and is undoubtedly the cause of many unjust complaints againsr the mail service. Some time ago a professional man in this city, noted for accuracy in all the details of business, dropped a letter into the office which was not stamped. It was advertised but not claimed, and lay there for about a month. Finally one of the clerks, noticing that it could be opened without tearing the envelope, looked into it and found that it contained a check for quite a large amount, payable on an insurance policy. Suppose the gentleman's death had occurred while this letter remained in the office—a very serious supposition, by the way, but necessary to enforce the lesson—the whole amount of the insurance might have been lost. The fact that it wasn't does not detract from the force of the lesson which the little occurrence teaches.

The Passenger Ticket Agents.

The general passenger and ticket agents' convention, in session in New York, Saturday, agreed upon a new constitution and by-laws, which will come up for ratification at the next meeting, to be held in September next. The chief points in the constitution and by-laws are that the association shall hereafter be known as the National Association of General Passenger and Ticket Agents; that every railroad corporation and transportation line in North America issuing and receiving coupon tickets shall be entitled to one representative in this association; that passenger rates shall be fixed in open convention upon the report of the committee of the whole; and that the right to make through rates between common points shall be accorded to the company or companies having the shortest line between said points by the usual route over which through tickets are regularly sold, and trains run in connection; provided, that when a water route forms part of such line, and is in competition with a rail line, then the rates of the rail line shall be adopted in making the through rate; and, provided further, that such through rate shall not exceed the sum of the locals of any rail line between such points.

Descecration of the Sabbath—Railroad Trains on Sunday.

The act of the Legislature "to prevent the desecration of the Sabbath day" by the running and unloading of trains, &c., recently passed, goes into effect to-day. It reads as follows:

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

SECTION 1. That no railroad company shall permit the loading or unloading of any freight car on the Sabbath day (known as Sunday) within the limits of this State.

SEC. 1. That no railroad company shall permit any car, train of cars, or locomotive to be run on Sunday, on any road within the limits of this State except such as may be absolutely necessary for the transportation of the United States mails and except in cases of urgent necessity, other than for the purpose of business and pleasure. Provided, That the word Sunday as used in this act shall be construed to embrace only that part of the day between "sunrise and sunset."

SEC. 3. That any railroad company offending against either of the above sections shall be liable to indictment for a misdemeanor in each county in or through which said car, train of cars or locomotive shall pass or in which such freight car shall be loaded or unloaded, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than five hundred dollars for each offence.

SEC. 4. That the fine so imposed shall when collected be paid into the public treasury of the State for the use of the public schools of the State.

SEC. 5. This act shall be in force from and after the 20th of March, 1879.

Railroad Notes.

The White Line mail car has not yet made its personal appearance. It was expected to pass through last Sunday.

Two conductors run the day express on the Air Line Railroad between Atlanta and Charlotte. They are perhaps the hardest worked railroad men that come into town.

It is talked around that the Richmond and Danville men are being called upon to sign a "release," which absolves the company from all liability for damages received by any one while in the company's service. The legal value of such an instrument is, however, questionable in the extreme.

Every engineer on the Carolina Central Railroad has his own engine and nobody else runs it. He feels that the engine is as much his while he is on the road as if he had a deed for her When he rests she rests. Engineer John Baskerville has been running the "Monroe" for five years. When he was married a year ago or such a matter, and was given six weeks furlough, the "Monroe" got the same, and when he went back to work his engine was standing on the very spot where he had left her. Those engines, it is needless to add, get well taken care of.

The General Assembly just adjourned, passed an act, as is well known, to prohibit the pooling of freights by railroad companies, and to make the giving or taking of a rebate a misdemeanor. A meeting of representatives of the different railroads having lines in this State, has been called to take place at Raleigh on the 24th inst., to consider what is to be done by the companies in view of the enactment of this law. Charlotte railroad men, it may be added, treat the law as a huge joke on the Legislature.

Paymaster Biggers, of the Air Line road, came in last evening, settling up with the employes along the line for February.

Four Per Cent Refunding Certificates at the Postoffice.

Postmaster Jenkins has received from the secretary of the treasury of the United States a circular letter calling attention to the four per cent refunding certificates of the United States to be issued under the following provisions of the act of Congress, approved February 26, 1879, entitled "An act to authorize the use of certificates of deposit in aid of the refunding of the public debt," to wit:

"That the secretary of the treasury is hereby authorized and directed to issue, in exchange for lawful money of the United States that may be presented for such exchange, certificates of deposit, of the denomination of ten dollars, bearing interest at the rate of four per centum per annum, and convertible at any time, with accrued interest, into the four per centum bonds described in the refunding act; and the money so received shall be applied only to the payment of the bonds bearing interest at a rate of not less than five per centum in the mode prescribed by said act, and he is authorized to prescribe suitable rules and regulations in conformity with this act."

The postmaster is invited to become agent for the sale of these certificates, one-eighth of one per cent being allowed him or any other officer of the government, upon his filing a satisfactory bond, the size of which shall regulate the amount of certificates he can obtain at any one time. All National Banks, upon complying with section 5153, Revised Statutes of the United States, are also invited to become agents of the government and depositaries of public moneys accruing from the sale of these certificates. Postmaster Jenkins has not yet signified his determination to become the agent for the sale of the bonds.

Prof. Hanna's Work.

Editor of the Observer.

Yesterday I was handed a pamphlet entitled "Statistics of mines and minerals of North Carolina." This has been proposed by the committee of the "mining board of Charlotte" and is really a very valuable paper. It discribes many of the principal gold, iron, coal and copper mines of the State, their location, quality of ores and mineral formations associated with them. The writer, who is evidently Mr. G. B. Hanna, of the mint, shows much knowledge of the geological formations of the State and its mineral matter. There is a modesty of style and a scientific precision in discribing minerals and ores that shows a familiarity with the subject of which he treats, that adds value to his historic and scientific statements. The concise history of the leading mines of the State will be interesting to many. The pamphlet was hastily prepared by one useful to our State but shows that the writer is worthy of a higher position than he now occupies in the Federal government. W.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA,
Dialectic Hall, March 15th, 1879.

WHEREAS, It has pleased Almighty God to call to his eternal rest the Hon. William H. Battle, LL. D., one of the most venerable and distinguished citizens of the State, long eminent as jurist and counsellor, in whom the law has lost a learned and faithful expounder, the Church a devout member, the University a steadfast friend, and society a shining exemplar of virtue and wisdom, the Dialectic Society mourning the loss of one of its chief ornaments, desires to place on record its sense of bereavement and full appreciation of departed worth and excellence; therefore be it

Resolved, 1st, That with submission to the divine will, and with gratitude for a life blessed in all its relations, lengthened out in the practice of every virtue, and conducted gently to its close with all that should accompany old age, as honor, love, obedience, and troops of friends, yet we mourn for the zealous member and faithful friend whose kindness and liberality had so endeared him to us all.

2nd, That we will cherish his memory, and seek to emulate his example of industry, of integrity, and of unfailing charity towards all men.

3rd, That we tender to President Battle, and to other members of the bereaved family, our respectful and heartfelt sympathy and condolence.

4th, That we wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days, and that these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the society, and that copies of them be sent to the bereaved family, to the faculty of the University and to the Wilmington Star, Raleigh Observer and CHARLOTTE OBSERVER for publication.

Ease Attainable by the Rheumatic.

Yes, although they may despair of relief, it is attainable by rheumatic sufferers, for there is a remedy which carries off, by means of increased activity of the kidneys—important channels for blood purification—the acrid element to which pathologists the most eminent attribute the painful symptoms—a theory completely borne out by urinary analysis. The name of this grand depurent is Hostetters, a preparation likewise celebrated as a remedy for constipation, which causer contamination of the blood with the bile—and a certain means of relief in dyspepsia, fever and ague, and nervous ailments. It is, perhaps, the finest tonic extant, and is highly recommended as a medicinal stimulant by distinguished physicians and analysts who pronounce it to be eminently pure and very beneficial. The press also endorses it.
