POLITICAL MURDERS IN NORTH CAROLINA. Last Thesday in the House Mr. Frye, of Maine, began throwing around promiscuously his charges of political murders in the South, Mr.

As a display of oratorical ability, if Steele, of North Carolina, brought him | not of statesmanship, the House debate up standing by demanding that he on the army bill, now brought to a close, specify, and by inquiring of him what has been remarkable. There have been political murders he knew of having some strong, even brilliant, speeches on either side, and the average is above Mr. Frye confessed that he knew of pages of the Congressional Record. Mr. ily silenced by the circulation of the none, and throughout the remainder of Garfield, Mr. Robeson and Gen. Haw-report that the general was ill. He was Mr. Frye confessed that he knew of none, and throughout the remainder of his speech talked a little less loosely. The Washington Republican then, with The Washington Republican then with The Washington Republican the The Washington Republican the Washington Republic The Washington Republican then, with a view to helping Mr Frye's case, slept upon the matter until Spairday three days afterwards, and then undertook to reply to Mr Steele. Hy way of doing so it quotes from the House report on "Affairs in the insurrectionary States," second session, Forty-Second Congress, relative to North Carolina, wherein, it seems, are rehearsed all manners of outrages alleged to have been perpetrated in this State by the "rebel Democracy" upon negroes and white Republicans. It is careful to conceal the names of those who gave the testimony which it utilizes, and is equally careful to conceal the declared motives of those who did the whipping and scourging charged to their account. The truth of the business is just this: that time in North Carelina known as the Ku-Klux Klan. It was organized four private directors stands. to administer the justice which the courts denied to decent people. The judiciary was in large part in hands of thieving carpet-baggers and contains a negro or a Radical the conviction of a negro or a Radical the was an end about as difficult to compass his own request that he resumes his old as the acquittal of a white Democrat, post. The extended line will give him The respectable people had, therefore to administer justice themselves or see to administer justice themselves or see to administer justice themselves or see D. Williams, Esq., A. A. McKethan, Esq., Capt. Hurt and E. J. Lilly, Esq., as directors on their part; and Col. John A. were in their own right hands, and that they applied them is not, under the circumstances, surprising. That people Benbow, of Greensboro, Dennis Curtis, were whipped, shot and hung for polit- of Franklinsville, and Lawrence J. were whipped, shot and hung for politors of Franklinsville, and Lawrence J. It not to be denied that it is a some point between there and Mount very bad state of society which makes | Airy it necessary for the people to take the law into their own hands, but in this pany it was determined under the recase we invite the attention of the National Republican and of all others concerned to a consideration of the question, who precipitated this state public, thieves and scoundrels of every grade of villainy. - In the course of its senseless tirade, the Republican says:

He [Mr. Steele] will find that the masked savages who elected him to a seat in Congress did not confine their murdering and whipping to men alone, but the old women and young children; were whipped and shot; that an old m m, who was a soldier of the war of 1812, and a native of the State, was beaten because he was a Republican, and that all this was done by masked ruffians.

press of the State at large, that the 20th of May be made a general holiday, and we hope the suggestion will be taken up and acted upon. For a long while Another Expected. It has been a holiday in Charlotte, but the event which the day commemorates was of no mere local importance. The Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence is a common glory; its fame belongs to the State, and every section should show respect for the day which marked its promulgation by an annual observance of that day, if not by a celebration at least by a holiday. It is our most illustrious day, and how can we expect strangers to reverence it until we ourselves set the example? The sentiment in favor of making the 20th of May a general holiday, we have been pleased to observe, is growing

We second, with a great deal of cordiality, our Wilmington contemporary's suggestion. What say the press and the people? We have too few holidays, anyway, and what day, more than this, is entitled to the dignity we would give it? It would be better for us to keep its memories green. "The canaille of Paris and the lazzaroni of Italy have respect for their traditions," and let it not be said that see have less regard for the glorious achievements of our ances-tors than they for those of theirs.

Messrs. Armfield and Kitchin, of North Carolina, fleshed their maiden swords in the House last Thursday when the army bill and the political amendment thereto were under consideration. Both withheld their remarks for revision and they will appear in the Con-gressional Record hereafter.

A NOTABLE DECISIO

We said one day last week that the discussion upon the army bill in the House was of such a character as was calculated to give the country a higher opinion of the National Legislature. The Philadelphia Times, which is independent in politics, holds the same views, and its review of each of the more notable of the speeches which were delivered last week, is so terse and

THE ENGLISH LABOR SITUATION.

A Strike Averted, Yet Many Works on the Eve of Closing.

London, April 7.—The strike of the Preston weavers against the introduction of the Blackburn standard list of wages, has now fixedly collapsed, the operatives submitting under protest. Although a general strike has been averted by the acceptance by 10,000 men of the masters' terms, the decision of two-thirds of the pitmen at Durham to This is simply basely false. No such strike against the reduction will have the effect of stopping nearly 90 pits and throwing idle 25,000 hewers, and should the struggle continue more than four or five days, other industries closely conject when we say that the paragraph nected with the coal trade will be par-

The duce Exchange of that city and to the whole number of pitmen employed at their eight or nine colleries are among those out on the strike.

PHILADELPHIA, April 7.—A dispatch from Pittsburg this afternoon says the strikes among the miners on the Mon-ongehala River, the Panhandle Railroad and in the coke regions of Southwestern Pennsylvania are now over and work has been generally resumed. These strikes have resulted in an advance except in the coke regions, where a demand for an advance was withdrawn. A new strike, however, is expected in the works along the line of the Pennsylvania Railroad in Westmoreland county.

GARIBALDI'S RETURN TO ROME.

He Goes There to Dis—An Impressive
Scene Upon His Arriv'a. LONDON, April 7.—The correspondent of the Times at Rome says: "Now that the wild rumors as to the object of Garibaldi's visit to Rome have proved groundless, it is asserted that he has come to die in the city to attain which for Italy all of his strivings were directed. His friends assert that politics are wholly unconnected with his coming here. He found that his health was not improving at Caprera and thought the mineral springs at Civita Vecchia might benefit his gout. Garibaldi, replying to a syndic, who visited him on his arrival, said he did not himself know the reason of his visit. A more pathetic scene than that on Garibaldi's arrival at the railway station has seldom been beheld. Shouts were raised as the train entered the station but they were speed-Garibaldi. It was so impossible to move the general that at Civita Vecchia the side of the railway saloon had to be cut to admit the litter."

A dispatch from Rome to the Daily News says Garibaldi slept well Saturday night. His doctor thinks he will leave his bed within a week.

ONLY THE SENATE IN SESSION.

The New Hampshire Case Put Over and No Important Business Transacted.

WASHINGTON, April 7.-SENATE,-The army appropriation bill was re-ceived from the House and referred to the committee on appropriations.

The Senate resumed the consideration of the New Hampshire senatorial case, the question being on the amendment of Hoar to the resolution of the majority of the committee on privileges and elections, declaring that Charles H. Bell is entitled to his seat, the majority reporting that he is not. After a brief debate the further consideration of the subject went over till to-morrow. A resolution was agreed to that the President of the Senate appoint a select committee of five members on Freedmen's Savings and Trust Company, to take into consideration all matters relating to said institution.

NOMINATIONS. The President sent the following nomination to the Senate: Andrew P.

Economy and Luxury should by all means call at PERRY'S. The largest stock of Crackers, Candles, Cigars, &c., can be found there. In fact his assortment is as fine as in any city where the STREET CARS AND

POLICEMEN'S RATTLES are familiar sounds. Don't fail to try his celebra-ted 5c. Cigars, magnificent Carameis and delicious Taffy, Cocoanut Cream, &c. They are running ahead of all competition, just as the man who is

WANTED FOR MAYOR

Will at the coming election. A PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR.

$200 REWARD.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, RALEIGE, March 10th, 1879. RALEIGE, March 10th, 1879.

Whereas; Official information has been received at this Department that N. B. TAYLOR, late of the county of Moore, stands charged with the murder of S. W. Seawell; and whereas, it appears that the said N. B. Taylor has fied the State, or so conceals himself that the ordinary process of Rew cannot be served upon him;

Now, therefore, I. THOMAS J. JARVIS, Generate the State of North Carolina, by virtue of the State of North Carolina, by virtue of the clamation, offering a reward of Two Hundred Dollars for the apprehension and delivery of the said N. B. Taylor to the Sheriff of Moore county, at the Court House in Carthage, and I do enjoin all officers of the State and all good citizens to assist in bringing said criminal to justice.

Done at our city of Raleigh, the tenth day of March, 1879, and in the 103d year of American Independence. THOS. J. JARVIS. By the Governor: LEE S. OVERNAN, Private Secretary.

Taylor is about 38 years of age, about 5 feet 6 inches high, well set and will weigh about 160 lbs., and when last seen wore a heavy beard. mar 12d1tw5t. FAMILY MEAL.

OLD WASHINGTON

RYE WHISKEY. We call attention of dealers to this celebrated Whiskey, well known in Northern and Southern markets. It is smooth, pleasant to the taste, and perfectly free from adulterations. Read certificate of analysis of Dr. Taylor, State Chemist of Va.:

Having made a chemical examination of a sample of Washington Rye Whiskey, selected by myself from the stock of Messrs. Lathrop & Leigh, I am enabled to pronounce it to be a strictly pure article in all respects, suitable for use medicinally or otherwise.

WM. H. TAYLOR, M. D...
State Chemist of Va. LATHROP & LEIGH, Sole Proprietors, 1816 & 1818 Cary street,

"OLD ASHINGTON RYE WHISKEY."

I am now prepared to furnish the genuine Old Washington Rye Whiskey. It is of the most superior quality in taste and purity. A long experience justifies me in commending it to connoisseurs, and all who appreciate good Whiskey. Try it.
