CRIMINAL BY A LOG.

Log-rolling, (in the literal, not the figurative or political sense) are still held in the western part of the State, and particularly in the sections. They are not infrequently attended with accidents, usually of a fatal character, owing to the fact that often the logs have to be rolled down steep declivities.

Blackmail and Perjury.

A case of blackmail was brought out in the office of the District Attorney yesterday. David Davidson appeared before the justice of the peace and swore a very serious charge against one J. Turner, colored, and a warrant was issued for Turner's arrest.

Mr. Davis Declines.

Please insert the following card: Appreciating the kindness of my friends in bringing my name forward as a candidate for an alderman, I thank you, I must, nevertheless, decline the honor, since my aspirations in that line have already been fully satisfied.

A Faithful and Zealous Alderman.

There is a candidate for mayor at the ensuing election in May. Ever-vigilant and cheerful obedience to your will, I am, and will continue to be, your obedient servant.

Mr. Norman's Card to the Public.

Home Fencings.

Articles regarding home fencing, including Easter Sunday, popular girls from Columbia, and a large fire-proof safe.

THE MUNICIPAL CALENDON.

A Declaration against the Men. The favorable opinion shown of your worthy Mayor, and of his competitor, Sol W. Ward, is gratifying, and will be diminished, if either of them should make a bid for votes, by declining the salary and limit the compensation of the Mayor to the fees of office, as proposed by "Citizen" in your issue of to-day.

Who is the Man?

The article of "Citizen," advocating economy and reform, meets with a responsive chord in the heart of every tax-payer. Reform should be made in every department of the city government and all alike should share the same fate, then there would be a large saving to the tax-payer.

From Ward No. 3.

Please announce at the choice of Ward No. 3 for alderman, H. C. Jones, W. W. Ward and Martin Weddington.

Candidates for the Mayoralty.

Maj. Fleming's Card. In compliance with the wishes of "Many Citizens" I am a candidate for mayor at the ensuing election in May.
