The Mayoralty. The unexpected withdrawal of Mayor

alty of the city was the chief topic on the streets yesterday, and has completely changed the status of affairs on this subject. His determination was only confided to a few of his most intimate numbers. Gen. Neil, of Steel Creek, friends, while a large number of his most ardent admirers and staunchest supporters had no idea that he contemjoin. Though beyond eighty years, he | plated such a movement until they saw or heard of his card in yesterday morning's Observer. Mr. Smith told a reporter yesterday that he did not fully determine not to appear as a candidate until a short time before his announcement to this effect had been handed in for publication. He says, what is a well known fact, that he has a large business at the North, which must either have his personal attention for five or six months in the year or be dropped altogether. The question, therefore, for him to decide year or be dropped altogether. The question, therefore, for him to decide was a very plain one. Dr. P. E. Hines, president of the State Medical Board, authorizes the following: "In order to regulate the practice of medicine and surgery in the State of North Carolina, the General Assembly at the session of 1858-'59, passed an act to establish a board of medical examiners. Without a license from this board no physician, who has commenced the practice of his profession in this State, after the 15th of April, 1859, shall practice medicine or surgery, or any of the branches thereof, or in any case prescribe for the cure of disease, for fee or reward, nor shall he be entitled to sue for or recover, before any magistrate or court in this State, any medical bill for services rendered.' See laws of North Carolina, 1858-'59. "In conformity with the previsions of this act, the State board of medical examiners will meet in the city of Greensboro on Monday, May 19, 1879.

Mexican Veterans.

Frequent allusions have been made by the press to the pensions not yet giv-en to the surviving soldiers of the Mexican war. The pension of the privates would be eight dollars per month—that of the officers according to their grade or rank. The pay of a lieutenant was thirty dollars, which was increased by commutation for rations, &c., to sixtytwo dollars per month. The pension of this officer would be half pay or fifteen dollars per month. The number of survivors is not large. The per centage of deaths annually has been about 3 per cent. This will leave ten living from every hundred. The amount of money required annually would not be one thousandth part of the revenue derived from the wealth of the country added to our domain by their efforts. Thirty years have passed, and but few of those soldiers, whose labors added so much to the material wealth of the country, are now living. Each year will lessen that number. Are they asking too much when they ask that this pension be given by the present Congress?

THE MAYORALTY. Mr. F. I. Osborne for the Position.

To the Editor of The Observer: We beg leave to suggest, in connection with the mayoralty, the name of our young townsman, Mr. F. I. Com. JAMES NORTHEY. CANDIDATES FOR THE MAYORALTY.

Maj. Flemming's Card.

Mr. Norment's Card to the Public.

To the Voters of the City of Charlotte: FELLOW CITIZENS—In this brief way I have concluded to announce myself an Independent Candidate for the office of mayor of the city of Charlotte, at the approaching election in May. Theroughly independent, I shall not be in the least influenced by any ring, caucus, or convention; I shall have no friends to reward nor enemies to punish; I shall not bribe nor purchase a vote, nor attempt in any underhanded way to secure one; but I particularly solicit the deliberate, independent vote. I am in favor of strict economy and low taxes. There is no politics in this election, therefore I shall run the race to the end and take the risk, let the result be what it may. In thus announcing myself, I think it unnecessary to elaborate or make any further statement of principles that may guide me; but will truly say that I shall ever cultivate a genial, brotherly spirit with those that I may become associated with; and permit me, in conclusion, to make FELLOW CITIZENS-In this brief way I have conclated with; and permit me, in conclusion, to make this pledge: That if honored with a majority of your votes and consequent election, my best exer-tions shall be directed to a fair, honest and im-partial discharge of my duties.

A Change that is a Blessing. There is no more remarkable feature, in the progress of science, and no greater change in any professional practice, than is illustrated by the contrast of the medical system of to-day, and thirty years ago. Then all medicines were copious in quantity, and nauseous to the taste. To take them was a trial to adults, and an overwhelming horror to the young. Now most doses are small, and conceptrated, and free from offensive flavor. Until recently, however, one of the most valuable and efficient of remedies was detestable to nearly all for whom it was prescribed, Cod Liver Oil, the only cure for wasting decline of vital energy, and contain means of renewing healthy tissue disgustcertain means of renewing healthy tissue, disgusted those to whom it should have done most good. Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with the Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda removes this only objection. Its flavor is really pleasant, its nourishand brain tonic in the world.

Ease Attainable by the Rheumatic. Yes, although they may despair of relief, it is attainable by rheumatic sufferers, for there is a remedy which carries off, by means of increased activity of the kidneys—Important channels for blood purification—the acrid element to which pathologists the most eminent attribute the painful symptoms—a theory completely borne out by urinary analysis. The name of this grand depurent is Hostetters, a preparation likewise celebrated as a remedy for constipation, which causer contamina-tion of the blood with the bile—and a certain means of relief in dyspepsia, fever and ague, and nervous ailments. It is, perhaps, the finest tonic extant, and is highly recommended as a medicinal stimulant by distinguished physicians and analysts who pronounce it to be eminently pure and very beneticial. The press also endorses it. Miscellaneous.

SCRIBNER'S ILLUSTRATED MAGAZINE FOR GIRLS AND BOYS.

AN IDEAL CHILDREN'S MAGAZINE. Messrs. Scribner & Co., in 1873, began the publication of St. Nicholas, an Illustrated Magazine for Girls and Boys, with Mrs. Mary Mapes Dodge as editor. Five years have passed since the first num-ber was issued, and the magazine has won the highest position. It has a monthly circulation of OVER 50,000 COPIES. It is published simultaneously in Londor, and New York, and the transatiantic recognition is almost as general and hearty as the American. Although the progress of the magazine has been a steady advance, it has not reached its editor's ideas
