The Lenoir Topic tells of a Caldwell county sheep having become entangled in a lot of briars and being held there for three months with nothing to eat except what it could gather immediately around it. It was alive when released as was also the teller of the story at last accounts.

Wilmington Sun: The work on Contingent Remainders and Executory Devises, by Wm. M. Coleman, has been highest praise from the leading law reviews and magazines in this country, and has been re-published in London.

Walter Lane, colored, living near Fremont, Wayne county, was shot and killed by another negro Tuesday evening. It seems that the parties had had a fight, growing out of improper intimacy of Lane's wife. Tuesday evening, while deceased was eating his supper, the assassin fired through the door, the ball taking effect in Lane's head, from which he died Wednesday morning. The murderer has not yet been taken.

New North State: We have a little girl in Greensboro, who includes among her play things, a cat which rides around in a doll carriage and lives by nursing a bottle. It is the most cunning thing we have ever seen. It lies down on its back or side, takes the bottle firmly in its paws and proceeds to suck. It will not drink milk in any other way. It submits to be dressed and kept in doll's clothes.

the wife of one of the sentenced revenue offenders came on foot from Randolph, 30 miles, to intercede with Judge Dick for her husband. She had with her seven children, the youngest four months old. There have been 494 cases of suicide at San Francisco within the last five years, and the Chronicle, of that city, shows that they have all resulted from stock gambling, which has become more of a curse to California than Mongolian immigration.

Deputy Internal Revenue Collector Dolson made a raid a few days ago on Blackwater, a dangerous locality in Southwestern Virginia, near Cumber-land Gap, had a fight with moonshiners, and killed the notorious Burt Gaines. None of the deputy's party were hurt.

Advices from Port-au-Prince, Hayti, April 25, report several sudden deaths from a fever, which some suppose to be vellow fever, of which heretofore only foreigners have been victims. The city is very filthy, and it is astonishing that epidemic disease has not developed there before.

The New York Produce Exchange received last Monday from Americus, Ga., the first barrel of flour from this season's wheat. The wheat was grown on the plantation of Capt. John L. Anderson, near Americus. It was cut on April 30 and May 1, and was thrashed and converted into flour May 2.

The President having received through the District authorities an invitation from Henry A. Hill, secretary of the national association of fire engineers, to deliver an address at their annual convention in Washington City in September next, has responded in a letter, in which he says: "Appreciating the conspicuous usefulness of your asso-ciation and the honor they have done me, I would gladly meet them on the occasion referred to if other engagements did not prevent. Under existing circumstances, I regret that it will not be practicable for me to attend your meeting.

Two years ago Danl. Edmunds, of Livingston county, Ky., left his family and eloped to Arkansas with a neighbor's daughter. A short time ago he started back to his former home with the young woman and her child, and when near the Mississippi river killed and buried both. The Cit zen Soldiery of the Carolinas.

[Columbia Register-Editorial.] We felt our hearts burn within us vesterday as we saw our brave young volunteers as of yore marching our streets with banners streaming to the wind, and martial music pealing the glad notes which bespeaks a freeman's proud tread in the land of his birth, where the supreme law declares that "a well regulated militia, being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed Proudly did our Carolina boys-ves, the boys of both the Carolinas-bear themselves on the 13th. The discipline of the men under arms was spiendid. The drill was unexcelled by anything we ever saw, and their deportment was too exemplary to escape universal remark and commendation. Not a man was intoxicated, whilst everything passed off so pleasantly and peacefully that it was hardly possible to believe that so many men from so many parts of the State could assemble without some manifestations of thoughtless impropriety. On the contrary, our volunteers and those of our twin sister, the Old North State, bemeaned themselves, as gentlemen always ought to do, with the most unexceptionable propriety. The Hornets, the special guests of our military organizations, are a splenpublished by the Johnsons, of Philadid band of soldiers. We are proud of delphia. The book has elicited the these Charlotte boys, for Columbia is their second home. Our boys expect to keep the latch-string always hanging loose for the Hornets (well, it must be said.) and a welcome and the warmest side possible for the North Carolina belles, whose smiles are as precious as young love, and whose tears, if they shed them at all, must be at the parting with their devoted admirers, the gallant men of South Carolina.

Somehow or other the relations of South and North Carolina are becoming nearer and more tender than they ever were, which arises very possibly in North Carolina boys advancing to our girls, and our boys, nothing loth,

DR. C. McLANE'S Celebrated American

WORM SPECIFIC

VERMIFUGE.

SYMPTOMS OF WORMS.

THE countenance is pale and lead en-colored, with occasional flushes, or a circumscribed spot on one or both cheeks; the eyes become dull; the pupils dilate; an azure semicircle runs along the lower eye-lid; the nose is irritated, swells, and sometimes bleeds; a swelling of the upper lip; occasional headache, with humming or throbbing of the ears; an unusual secretion of saliva; slimy or furred tongue; breath very foul, particularly in the morning; appetite variable, sometimes voracious, with a gnawing sensation of the stomach, at others, entirely gone; fleeting pains in the stomach; occasional nausca and vomiting; violent pains throughout the abdomen; bowels irregular, at times costive; stools slimy, not unfrequently tinged with blood; belly swollen and hard; wrine turbid; respiration occasionally difficult, and accompanied by hiccough, cough sometimes dry and convulsive; uneasy and disturbed sleep, with grinding of the teeth; temper variable, but generally irritable, &c.

Whenever the above symptoms are found to exist, DR. C. McLANE'S VERMIFUGE will certainly effect a cure. IT DOES NOT CONTAIN MERCURY in any form; it is an innocent preparation, not capable of doing the slightest injury to the most tender infant. The genuine Dr. McLane's VER-MIFUGE bears the signatures of C.

are not recommended as a remedy "for all the ills that flesh is heir to," but in affections of the liver, and in all Bilious Complaints, Dyspepsia and Sick Headache, or diseases of that character, they stand without a rival.

AGUE AND FEVER.

No better cathartic can be used preparatory to, or after taking Quinipe. As a simple purgative they are unequaled.

BEWARE OF IMPLATIONS The genuine are never sugar coated. Each box has a red wax seal on the lid, with the impression DR. McLane's LIVER PILLS.

Each wrapper bears the signatures of C. McLane and Fleming Bros. Insist upon having the genuine Dr. C. McLane's Liver Pills, prepared by Fleming Bros. of Pittsburgh, Pa., the market being full of imitations of the name McLane, spelled differently but same pronunciation.

It is an excellent corrective of indigestion. Have used it with prompt beneficial results. Rev. Dr. Mangum, Prof. University of N. C. I concur with Bishop Doggett in his estimate of the Vest Pocket Cure.

Rev. E. A. Yates, P. E. N. C. Conference.

Rev. Drs. Jeter, Broaddus, Dickinson (Bap.) It is endorsed by the direct personal testimony of men of national fame and of strictness of speech. It is not too much to say that no medicine ever had such support in its favor as a specific. The word of any one of the eminent divines who underwrite this antidote to dynpopsia has deserved weight. Their united winess loined with the experimental use and approval of the preparation by well-known physicians, removes all doubt. It is, beyond question, a wonderful therapeutical agent.—Editors Religious Herald, Va.

It is highly esteemed here by the regular Medical Faculty and the people. It is excellent for indigestion and fistulent colic sedative, soporfic, tonic, alightly aperient, without nausea.
