

Subscription Rates: Daily, one year, (post-paid) in advance, $8.00...

VOL. XX.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., THURSDAY, MAY 22, 1879.

NO. 3,194.

Dry Goods. SUN UMBRELLAS.

ELIAS & COHEN'S.

DRY GOODS

WHITE GOODS,

Furniture.

BURGESS NICHOLS,

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL.

DEALER IN

FURNITURE

CHEAP BEDSTEADS!

LOUNGES!

LOUNGES!

PARLOR AND CHAMBER SUITS!

COFFINS of all kinds on hand.

CHARLOTTE, N. C.

Ladies' and Gentlemen's Burial Robes—a

BARGAINS

H. MORRIS & BROS.

SPRING CLOTHING.

W. KAUFMAN & CO.

K. G. ROGERS' WAREHOUSES.

BLUE FLANNEL SUITS

Boys' Shoes and Slippers.

PARLOR, CHAMBER, DINING ROOM

OFFICE FURNITURE

BARGAINS

All Goods Packed Free of Charge!

Dry Goods, Clothing, & MILLINERY GOODS, &c.

LADIES' HATS,

DRESS GOODS.

FANCY HOSIERY,

DOTTED SWISSES

PLAID ORGANDIES.

MORE MORE

ATTRACTIONS.

OUR

5 CENT COUNTER

NEW STOCK,

MUCH MORE USEFUL AND ATTRACTIVE

THAN OUR FIRST ASSORTMENT.

EVERYBODY SHOULD CALL AT ONCE TO

BARGAINS.

ALSO A FULL LINE OF

DRY GOODS,

CLOTHING.

SHOES OF ALL KINDS, HATS, &c., &c., &c.

We are offering GREAT BARGAINS this

H. MORRIS & BROS.

W. KAUFMAN & CO.

BLUE FLANNEL SUITS

Boys' Shoes and Slippers.

PARLOR, CHAMBER, DINING ROOM

OFFICE FURNITURE

BARGAINS

Can be had at

W. KAUFMAN & CO'S,

STATE NEWS.

C. T. Willis has been elected captain of the Shoe Heel Rifles.

Allen O. Tomlinson, a good citizen of Randolph county, is dead.

There are 35 moonshiners in jail at Asheville awaiting sentence.

Jan. J. Metts has been elected captain of the Whiting Rifles, of Wilmington.

M. H. Justice was elected mayor of Rutherfordton, defeating C. Burnett by one vote.

The old-time whipping-post still stands in the jail yard at Murphy, Cherokee county.

The Robesonian says that what is known as "the big roof" is playing havoc in Lumberton gardens.

The Episcopal convention, which was in session last week at Fayetteville, adjourned to meet next year at Winston.

Robert Anderson, whose home is in the Brushy Mountain, Wilkes, mysteriously disappeared and there is no clue to his whereabouts.

Miss Ella V. Holt, of Graham, and Mr. John G. Staples, of Reidsville, were married last Wednesday evening in the Presbyterian church of Graham.

Drs. Bahnon, Haigh and Graham of the State board of medical examiners, Monday examined twenty-one applicants for license to practice medicine and ten were to have been examined Tuesday.

An old lady 84 years of age, resident in Sampson county, was in Goldsboro the other day. She had never before been more than sixteen miles from home, and this was the first time she had ever seen a railroad train.

A horse kicked Mr. Wilson McCullough, of Person county, The Hillsboro Recorder says several of his teeth were knocked out and the bones of his right shoulder were terribly shattered, the bones protruding through the flesh.

The Witness says that the clothes of a little five-year-old boy, of Mr. Arthur Forrester, of Wilkes, while standing near the fire a few days ago, caught on fire and she was burned to death before the flames could be extinguished.

Two young sons of Mr. J. M. Pool, of Raleigh, aged 9 and 11 years, were drowned Monday afternoon in Monticelli's pond, near Raleigh. The News says the sudden event is believed to have dangerously affected their father. The bodies were recovered.

The Wilmington Star says that Revenue Agent O. H. Blocker, on the night of the 17th inst., raided and captured two illicit whiskey distilleries several miles east of Fayetteville, and destroyed twenty-one fermenting or beer stands and 865 gallons of beer or mash, a quantity of malt and a small quantity of low wines.

Raleigh Observer, Tuesday: This morning about 2 o'clock Mr. N. A. Blake was stabbed, it is feared fatally, by a man named Dors. Flemming. They had some words in front of the Higgs House, but were persuaded not to fight. Mr. Blake left, and as he walked across the street he was run up to him and stabbed him several times. These were the scant facts that we could learn of the terrible affair.

Fayetteville correspondence Lumberman: On last Friday in Quehville township, Peter Elliot, a negro, attacked three other negroes with an axe, wounding them in several places, but not seriously, whereupon one of the three fired upon him (Peter Elliot) with a pistol and killed him. They surrendered themselves and had a hearing before Justices Gillis and Myers, who after hearing the evidence, discharged them, the evidence being conclusive that it was a justifiable homicide—purely in self-defence.

"Roscoe Conkling" has been selected as the name for Senator Bruce's month-old offspring.

Judge Asa Paeker, president of the Lehigh Valley railroad, died in Philadelphia Saturday evening, in his 74th year.

The new company formed to run the Cincinnati Southern railway temporarily organized at Cincinnati, Monday, and increased the capital stock to $1,000,000.

Wm. Gordon, a mail clerk in the employ of H. B. Claflin & Co., New York, has been arrested, charged with luring his employers out of nearly $6,000 within the past three years. He confessed his guilt.

A summary of the results of the Republican county conventions held throughout Ohio Saturday shows that Judge Taft is likely to lead the gubernatorial candidates in the Cincinnati convention on the 28th of May. Not many of the delegations are instructed, but the preferences of most of them are known.

While a number of children were at play in the convent grounds in Somerville, Mass., one of them, a ten-year-old daughter of Wm. H. Goodspeed, picked up a ball which several boys had been playing with. Upon refusing to return it several of the boys pelted her with stones, one of which struck her on the temple, causing her death.

The leading theatres in New York are preparing to close for the summer. But few of them, it is said, have succeeded in adding materially to their bank accounts the past season, save in two or three instances, where "Pinafore" was the cant. One house is reported to have cleared $80,000 by that, but the figures are probably too high. Lower prices for next season are predicted.

A colored State convention was held in Richmond, Va., Monday, to perfect organization to enforce the rights of the colored race under the law. Speeches were made by ex-Congressman Cain, of South Carolina, and the chairman, W. Croane, a colored lawyer of Richmond, favoring the emigration of colored people to the West if their legal rights were not accorded at the same effect were reported and extensively discussed.

Senator Edmunds has made his arrangements to sail for Europe, with his wife and daughter, on the 11th of June. In conversation Monday he was asked whether he thought he could escape from his congressional duties by that time. He said that he had strong hopes of being able to do so; that as matters now appeared to him it looked as if the final adjournment might take place at any time after the next week. This is the way it looks to a great many who are perhaps better posted as to Democratic sentiment than Mr. Edmunds, but nothing positive can as yet be ascertained.

VANCE'S MAJESTIC SWORD.

Report of the Effort and Comments Thereon.

[Baltimore Sun Regular Report.]

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

Who made the South solid? Clearly the Republican party. Many Southern men opposed secession, but were drawn into it by the war.

IMPORTANT!

In the early part of every season there is a natural desire to know what are the newest, latest and most fashionable styles, and also who are recognized as standard authority in the fashionable world.

WEST END SACK.

THE PRINCE ALBERT FROCK.

It has many admirers among those who prefer new shapes and ideas instead of adhering to the old time-worn styles of the past—very stylish in appearance and cut from Cheviots of the newest designs.

April 27, 1879.

COME AND SEE BEFORE BUYING ELSEWHERE!

ALL WOOL CHEVIOT SUITS FOR $7.50.

THE FINEST LOT OF CLOTHING

Ever shown in this city. Remember that we are the rulers in Low Prices for Fine Clothing.

April 22, 1879.

Via Steamers to Portsmouth, Va., and thence all Rail and Through Cars, Enabling Quick-Possible Time to all Points South and Southwest.

NO DRAYAGE, NO COMMISSION, NO HANDLING EXPENSES, MINIMUM INSURANCE.

Mark Goods plainly via Sealord Air-Line. Freight received at any hour of the day, and Through Bills of Lading issued at Steamship Wharves or offices of the Line.

McSMITH MUSIC HOUSE, CHARLOTTE, N. C.

TRYON STREET, IN INSURANCE BUILDING.

BRANCH OF Ludden & Bates' Southern Music House.

PIANOS! PIANOS! PIANOS!

THE WORLD'S BEST MAKERS.

From $125 up to $1,200. Pianos $25 cash and $10 per month.

Another French Governmental Conflict.

PARIS, May 21.—The Radical members of the chamber of deputies will, on Saturday, propose the following order of the day: "The Republic is the only form of government that can ensure the distribution of pardons has not made an application more politic and more conformable with the amnesty law, and hoping that in future the government will so apply it as to avoid electoral conflicts and give the country pacification, it needs passes to the order of the day."

A Richmond Forger in Baltimore.

BALTIMORE, May 20.—Channing P. Redford, a young man of 18 or 20, resident in the building and loan commission house of Thomas Branch & Co., Richmond, Va., was arrested here this morning charged with obtaining about $500 from the Merchants' National Bank of Richmond, on forged checks of his employer's firm, on Friday last. Redford is held awaiting the arrival of officers from Richmond. He confesses to having drawn the money.

English Holiday—Destruction of Silk Worms.

LONDON, May 21.—The stock exchange will observe Saturday next as a holiday in honor of the Queen's birthday.

The Financier says that owing to advances from the south of France and Italy, reporting rapid destruction of silk worms by bad weather, the silk market yesterday was excited and prices are very buoyant.

Pensacola and all the gulf ports show clean health reports, and all of the towns on the sea coast are being thoroughly cleaned in order to prevent any yellow fever outbreak during the ensuing summer.

For upwards of thirty years Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for children. It corrects acidity of the stomach, relieves wind colic, regulates the bowels, cures dysentery and diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. An old and well known remedy. 25c per bottle.

Auction Sales.

MAXWELL & HARRISON

COMMISSION MERCHANTS,

Will give strict personal attention to all business entrusted to our care.

WELL IMPROVED CITY PROPERTY FOR SALE.

Liquors.

HEADQUARTERS FOR Bottled Lager Beer,

Is corner Trade and Boundary Avenue. Delivered to any part of the city, free of charge for $1.00 per dozen.

ALL ORDERS LEFT AT JOHN VOGEL'S TAILOR SHOP WILL RECEIVE PROMPT ATTENTION.

STOP AT THE BOYDEN HOUSE

C. S. BROWN, Proprietor.

1000 YRS SIMPLE DEEDS.

MOST APPROVED FORM.

Just Printed and For Sale at the OBSERVER OFFICE.

Undertaking.

UNDERTAKING

The undersigned is now prepared to fill all orders for every class of Undertaking. Having on hand full assortment of

COFFINS, CASKETS AND BURIAL CASES,