SATURDAY, MAY 24, 1879. SEVATOR VANCE'S SPEECH.

free-born reason."

We have hitherto made no comment whatever upon Senator Vance's first speech in the Senate, delivered last Monday on the legislative, executive and judical appropriation bill, prefering first to see it in its entirety. The speech is published in full on the outside of this morning's OBSERVER, as it appeared in the Congressional Record of Wednesday last. It has been awaitnearly every North Carolinian into whose hands it may fall. The effort was one in every way worthy the distinguished gentleman who delivered it. The argument advanced is unanswerable, the condensation of the Republican proposition is singularly happy, and the occasional flashes of wit, ridicule, satire and eloquence which mark it, are the sauce which will give men appetite to digest the arguments,

We were sure that in his maiden effort Senator Vance had done himself no discredit, and the text of the speech fully justifies this confidence. No matter what the time, the place or the occasion, he always speaks well. As a matter of course the speech loses by a read. ing of it; to be fully appreciated Gov. Vance must be seen and heard; his voice and manner are peculiarly captivating; but as a piece of writing the speech must command public attention, and it will, by its originality of thought and aptness of expression add to the anthor

A GOOD WORD FOR OUR CELEBRA-TION.-The Philadelphia Times says editorially of our celebration here last Tuesday: "The people of Mecklenburg county, N. C., have just been celebrating the anniversary of the first declaration of independence ever made in America. which the Old North State claims was was made there on the 20th of May, 1775, and that the first convention of the resistance to British authority was held in the same historic town eleven days later. It is a good anniversary to celeon Tuesday indicates that the custom of observing the day is gaining strength sion trains were run from all the country round; there was a firemen's parade and a great display of military, the declaration was read and ex-Congressman Robbins delivered an cration and the fsstivities wound up with a grand ball in the evening."

THE ADJOURNMENT QUESTION .-The Washington correspondent of the Richmond State says the feeling is growing that Congress will adjourn between the 1st and the 15th of June. On the other hand the Washington correspondent of the New York Herald says: "Speaker Randall tells his friends that Congress will sit until the 1st of July, and the Speaker's friends say that he encourages a prolonged session, and holds that the army appropriation bill ought not to be passed and that the struggle with the President ought to be made as pronounced and bitter as possible." The correspendent adds that "the Speaker has a good deal of influence in the House, which gives his opinions and wishes importance."

THE GALLOWS.

Its Work, Yesterday, in Georgia and Louisiana,

SAVANNAH, May 23.—A special dispatch to the Morning News says S. Kelly, white, was hanged to-day at Blackshear, Ga., for wife murder. He confessed and said the man who caused him to kill her was present. Fifteen hundred people were present. He died apparently unconcerned.

LAKE CHARLES, LA., May 23.—Absalom W. Ford was hanged here to-day for the murder of Dr. Joseph Bazer, June, 1878. He broke jail here last winter, after sentence, and was recently recaptured in Henderson, Texas, after being desperately wounded. He afterwards broke his wounded leg in attempting to escape from Henderson county jail, and consequently had to be supported by the sheriff and deputies to the scaffold, where he was seated in a chair. Though suffering intense pain from his effort to use the wounded leg, his features were calm and composed during the reading of the death warrant and the prayers of the priest. He occasionally puffed a cigar, and looked composedly at the sky and at the crowd of over five hundred persons present. He did not show the slightest tremor. His contortions were violent for five minutes and he lived nearly twenty

CONGRESS YESTERDAY.

THE HEALTH AND SILVER BILLS. An Uninteresting Day's Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, May 23.-SENATE .-The Senate took up the bill making subsidiary coins exchangeable for lawful money of the United States, and to make such coins legal tender in sums up to $20. The committee amendment to substitute $10 for $20 was discussed The bill was supported by Bayard, Booth, Ferry and Kernan, and opposed by Edmunds and Thurman. The morning hour having expired, the bill went over without action, and the Senate took up the contagious disease bill.

After remarks from several Senators it was reported back to the Senate and the amendments made in the committee of the whole agreed to. It was then read a third time and passed. The Senate then took up the bill relaed with interest and will be read by tive to the transportation of animals, but without action went into executive session and afterwards adjourned until Monday.

House.-Atkins, of Tennessee, from the committee on appropriations, reported back the Senate amendments to the legislative appropriation bill, and stated that he was instructed to move concurrence in all of them. It was hardly necessary, he said, to give a reason for that instruction. There were some of the amendments in which the committee would not, under other circumstances, concur; for instance, the increase of salaries of Senate officials from 20 to 100 per cent. more than the salaries of some of the corresponding employes of the House. This increase amounted to over $45,000. He stated in reply to Conger, that the Senate had made no amendments in the political features of the bill. The amendments were concurred in. The silver bill was resumed, and up to a late hour is still under consideration. Jamison was committed to jail. Animated filibustering practices are in operation by the Republicans.

THE COMING VETO. The cabinet discussed the points of the veto to-day. The legislative bill will probably reach the President toalready distinguished reputation of its | morrow, in which case the veto will be sent in on Monday.

THE VIRGINIA GOLD CASES.

RICHMOND, May 23.—In the United States Circuit Court to-day the evidence promulgated at Charlotte on the 20th of | Judge Hughes gave a statement and in- | son of the year especially, a cold is such a common May, 1775. There will always be dispute as to the authenticity of the Mecklenburg declaration in the form that it was de facto Governor of the defacto set in. The jury was further instructed that for so long a time as the defendant was engaged as above described, he was entitled to a pro rata allowance of salary, and is also entitled to such paper disbursements as he made during said period of such service, all to be credited upon the amount sued for. The case was fully argued on both number of years, occurred yesterday morning at about half-past eleven o'clock. Hugh Owens and S. Brock West became engaged in an angry dispute about a certain note said to have been written by West. The note, it seems, contained statements which retlected on the character of a female relation of Owens', and he told West that "the man who wrote that note was a d-n liar." West told him that he should take back those words or he would kill him. Owens refused to do so. West went immediately into his store, returned with a large navy pistol, and again demanded Owens to retract. Owens refused to do so. West then raised his pistol to fire, when () wens started to run, West pursuing him, firing four shots, three of which struck Owens, one entering the left side some inches under his arm, and coming out on his right side, another striking a right rib, glancing outward and lodging in his clothes; the third ball entered his right shoulder. When the third shot struck him he threw back his hands and exclaimed: "My Gcd, he has ruined me forever, but I'll never take it back: I'll be d—d if I do." He staggered up the street about a hundred yards to the office of Dr. James P. Bryan, who gave him the proper attention. Yesterday evening it was not thought possible for nim to live, but at this writing (7 o'clock a. m.,) he is doing well, and hopes are entertained of his recovery. ## Another Tragedy in Georgia

ATLANTA, May 23.—A special to the Constitution says that at Kingston this morning Thompson and Joseph Morris, brothers, violated the town ordinance by firing pistols. Burroughs, the town marshal, collected a dollar fine from each. Thompson Morris followed Burroughs to the depot and slapped his face. Burroughs drew his stick. Joseph Morris snapped his pistol at Burroughs, who commenced firing on his assailants and retreating across the railroad track, the Morris brothers advancing and emptying their pistols, then throwing rocks, until both fell from wounds. Thompson died in thirty minutes. Joseph is mortally

The subscriptions to the fund called for were made by States, with very encouraging results.

A Virginia Shooting Affray.

BALTIMORE, May 23 .- A special from Culpepper says: "In a difficulty here to-day between D. M. Ream, editor of the Culpepper Times, Philip M. Jones and G. W. Jamison, seven pistol shots were fired by different parties. Ream was shot in the abdomen and is, it is thought, fatally wounded, Jones received a ball in the shoulder. Jamison, who did most of the firing, was not hurt.
