THE GOSPEL OF PEACE.

The recurrence of decoration day is always the occasion for the revival of much bad feeling being stirred up, not so much by the memories that the day itself invokes as by the effusions of the speakers. Prominent among the cruel and sectional speeches which marked the observance of national decoration day was that of Gen. Hamilton, who advised his hearers against strewing with flowers the graves of Confederate dead, because, as he said, the Democratic majority in Congress was plotting treason against the Union and pursuing a revolutionary policy with regard to the appropriation bills. In pleasing contrast, however, with this we give an extract from the address of Rev. Charles F. Lee, delivered on decoration day in Charlestown, Massachusetts. It breathes a spirit of brotherly leve and charity which does credit to its reverend author and shows that he is indeed a messenger of that "peace on earth" and "good will toward men," which is the keynote of the Christian Gospel: "I can but remind you, as much as I believe the late war was a righteous one, of the heroism which the Southern brethren displayed. The memory of every Southerner that died in the belief that he was battling for his heaven-born rights shall be precious to me. I feel now that there is a lasting fraternity between the blue and the gray as I know they look down upon our loved Union with equal solicitude and affection, and shame be to that man who cannot pay the tribute due to thousands of men who battled nobly defending that which they thought they were born to uphold. We ought to make one hard, determined effort to put aside all angry feelings of hate or jealousy, and join hand in hand as one man, North, South, East and West, over the graves of the blue and the gray, with all sincerity and love as we think of the thousands of fallen heroes whose remains are embosomed in the soil of the South. My friends, I believe that the greater part of our emy, Mecklenburg county, took place Southern brethren reciprocate our feel- on Friday, 6th inst. I had the pleasure ings. The system of instruction in the school is admirable and well calcuglad to believe that such sentiments as those find a hearty response in the importance of education, as well as to hearts of the great masses of the North, and that the malice and uncharitableness that never forgets and never for- eral departments. THE LIQUOR TRAFFIC.

The following facts condensed from the last report of the commissioner of internal revenue will be of interest, especially in our own State. The whole amount of revenue derived by the United States from the tax on liquors for the year ending June 30, 1878, was $50,-420,815, which is a falling off from the previous year's receipts from the same source of $7,048,603. In the business of distilling, or at least in the number of be easily seen the promise of fine oradistilleries, North Carolina takes the lead with 1552 distilleries; next follows 316. By far the larger number of the ers. Southern distilleries confine themselves to the manufacture of peach brandy and apple jack, though some in Georgia proffer to the world a sweet potato brandy. Pennsylvania foots up 76 distilleries, 63 making whisky straight, and 13 fruit brandy. The grain distilleries, though fewer in number in the North, greatly exceed in capacity those in the Southern States, and the production of southern States, and the production of spirits is much greater. Illinois leads morning. Her hands and feet were the other States, using last year in her tied. She was blindfolded, a gag was in distilleries 5,399,179 bushels of grain, chiefly corn. Ohio comes second with tents. Mrs. Hull retired at the usual 2,953,905 bushels, Kentucky third with 1,788,792 bushels, Indiana next with 1,-528,700 bushels. Pennsylvania consumes in its stills 397,976 bushels of grain, chiefly rye, and in addition 5,920 gallons her lying dead on her back in the bed of molasses. The entire number of in a semi-nude condition, one foot bushels of grain manufactured into bound to either rail of the bed, her hands bound across her breast and tied spirits in the United States for the year ending June 30, 1878, was 14,680,552. In strapped around her neck and across addition to this, there were consumed her mouth, and it was evident that her 1,995,645 gallons of molasses in making New England rum and flavoring Pennsylvania whisky. The number of gal-lons of proof spirits (containing 42 per cut two rings from her fingers, one concent. of alcohol) rectified in the entire United States for the year ending April 30, 1878, was 39,096,063. In this industry tained. Ohio heads the list with 9,832,216 gallons. New York comes next with 8,-009,444 gallons. Pennsylvania comes third with 5,042,417 gallons, Kentucky 4,107,821 gallons, Illinois 4,038,207 gallons; then follow in succession Missouri, Maryland, California, Massachusetts and Louisiana, each producing over a million gallons.

The Atlanta Constitution does not favor the opinion that the New York Tribune has been improved since the demise of Horace Greeley, and says: "Whitelaw Reid is going to address the Ohio editors on 'Success in Journalism.' Whitelaw's success as a journalist has been brought about by a gradual descent from the plane of independent republicanism to turn the crank of a howling organ."

The Essex statesman has been heard from. He says: "Congress is to blame for the present condition of affairs. Congress seems to be trying to get up a row on the Southern question when there is no need of having one. I don't object to a row, but I want it to be for some cause." When he was in Congress he never failed to provide a cause.

PROCTOR KNOTT'S REPORT. The IN CONGRESS YESTERDAY. elegraphic outline, published in yesterday's OBSERVER, of the reply of Proctor Knott, chairman of the House judiciary committee, to the President's messages vetoing the army appropriation bills, affords good ground for saying that the report is in every way a masterly document. It knocks into a cocked hat the Executive's so-called arguments in support of his position, and is a document upon which the Democracy can well afford to go to the country. We are given to understand that it is very lengthy, and enough is known of it now to satisfy us that it is thoroughly exhaustive. This report is intended as a Democratic campaign document, and ing the people as to who stands in this contest on the side of popular liberty $50 per month to Mrs. Fletcher Weband who against it.

The reports just collected by the cotton exchanges of the leading Southern cities as to the condition of the cotton crop are very encouraging. There has been a slight increase in the acreage and the crop generally is earlier than last year. The Kansas exodus has not materially disturbed the labor supply, even in Louisiana and Mississippi, and the prospects for securing a large crop in prime condition are excellent.

The few colored brethren who were in the Ohio Republican convention, were bitterly opposed to the nomination of Mr. Foster, and threaten to resuscitate the clubs that were formed two years ago when their favorite for governor, Father Taft, was in opposition to the policy of the administra-

Hon. Ben Hill's speech in the Senate Wednesday was evidently another of his master efforts. The associated press reports grant that it was eloquent and effective and represents that it was frequently applauded by the galleries tion. which were crowded with visitors.

An Old Lady Found Dead in Her Bed, Bound Hand and Foot, and Her Trunk Robbed.

NEW YORK, June 11.-Mrs. Jane L. D. F. Hull, aged 58, wife of Dr. A. Grandison Hull, was found dead in her bed her mouth, and her trunk at the side of hour last evening, and no disturbance was heard during the night. This morning one of the servants went to Mrs. Hull's door to call her, but receiving no response entered and discovered death resulted from strangulation. On the body were found several contusions and slight wounds received in the scuftaining a large diamond and the other a costly emerald. No clue to the perpetrators of the murder could be ob-

MR. BLAINE BEPLIES TO MR. HILL.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—SENATE.— Beck offered an amendment in the nature of a substitute for the legislative. executive and judicial appropriation bill. The substitute does not change the amount appropriated but is intended to improve the form of the bill. Or dered to be printed and referred to the committee on appropriations.
Wallace, from the committee on appropriations, reported without amendment the House bill making appropriations for certain judical expenses and said he would endeavor to call it up for action to-day. Placed on the calendar. The bill continuing Gen. Shields' pension of $100 per month to his widow as such it will do its work in convinc- and children was taken up. An amendment by Dawes, granting a pension of ster, was adopted. Logan supported the bill and warmly eulogized his late friend, Gen. Shields.

A resolution offered by Mr. Bayard was adopted, ordering to be printed for the use of the committee on military affairs, the papers and proceedings in the original Fitz John Porter case. Blaine called up the McDonald bill and proceeded to reply to Hill's speech of yesterday.

Mr. Blaine spoke at length and at his conclusion Hill replied that Blaine had said nothing to which a sensible man need reply. True the statement of facts had not satisfied him but he would make no further answer.

House.-Stephens, of Georgia, gave notice that during the day he would report from the committee on coinage, a bill in relation to the trade dollar and would ask action upon it.

Murch, of Maine, from the committee on public buildings, reported a resolution for the investigation of the public buildings of the government, with power to sit during recess at Washington and other cities. Under a point of order made by Garfield the resolution was referred to the committee of the whole. A bill has been reported from the committee on civil service reform, prohibiting officers or claimants against or contractors under the United States from contributing money for political

The chairman was of opinion that the committee had nothing to do with the matter, but Hoar thought it had. Houston said: "When it comes up here we can argue it," and Hoar retorted that they would argue it when it seemed proper. Merrick said DeLacy was one of his vitnesses. Hoar remarked that the universal rule was that while any cause was pending criminal process was never used as a means of coercion of a wit-

MCCRARY'S CASE. The Senate judiciary committee has eferred to a sub-committee the question raised in regard to Secretary Mc-Crary's nomination for the circuit judge-ship to be vacated by Judge Dillon next September. The novel question is whether a nomination can constitutionally be confirmed to fill a vacancy not yet created, if at the same time it be stipulated that the person nominated is to continue to occupy another office un-til the position to which he is prospectively appointed shall have actually be-come vacant by resignation or otherupon the Secretary's nomination until after they pass upon this question. SPARKS FROM THE WIRES.

The Death-Rate of

Our country is getting to be fearfully alarming, the average of life being lessened every year, with out any reasonable cause, death resulting generally from the most insignificant origin. At this season of the year especially, a cold is such a common thing that in the hurry of every day life we are apt to overlook the dangers attending it and often find too late, that a Fever or Lung trouble has already set in. Thousands lose their lives in this way every winter, while had Boschee's German Syrup been taken, a cure would have resulted, and a large bill from a doctor been avoided. For all diseases of the Throat and Lungs, Boschee's German SYRUP has proven itself to be the greatest discovery of its kind in medicine. Every Druggist in this country will tell you of its wonderful effect. Over 950,000 bottles sold last year without a single failure known.

Thousands Use it, Why Hesitate. It is adapted especially to those cases where the womb is disordered, and will cure any irregularity of the "menses." Dr. J. Bradfielu's Female Regulator acts like a charm in "whites," or in a sudden check of the "monthly courses," from cold, trouble of mind, or like causes, by restoring the discharge in every instance. So also in chronic cases its action is prompt and decisive, and saves the constitution from countless evils and premature decay.
