

LYNCH LAW IN SOUTH CAROLINA.

A portion of the people of Spartanburg county, S. C. have become a law unto themselves. They have introduced a man who robbed, raped and murdered a woman, to that species of wild justice administered by Judge Lynch.

While this occurrence per se argues nothing against South Carolina—there being hardly a State in the Union in which Judge Lynch has not at one time or another exercised his sway—it is to be regretted that its enemies have been given a peg upon which to hang a charge of insubordination to lawful authority.

The greatest fools in the world are the man Goldsmith and his wife who are undertaking to make a trip around the world in a boat 18 1/2 feet long.

Mr. Tilden is keeping very quiet about it, but he is making all of his arrangements to run Hon. Clark N. Potter for Governor of New York next fall.

Wilmington is to have a brewery. An out-door religious meeting on the outskirts of Wilmington Sunday afternoon was attended by nearly a thousand people.

Stewart Ellison and Cary Irvin, two colored men of Raleigh, have been appointed residents of this city and principal of the United States postoffice in that city.

Ullman Norton, on trial in Richmond court last week for the murder of Godfrey Norton, was acquitted. He was defended by Messrs. H. T. Bennett and John B. Shary.

Goldboro Messenger: An old negro woman, named Clara Strickland, claiming to be 108 years old, made application for paper support to our county board of commissioners at their last meeting.

Wilmington Review: Our entire community was inexpressibly shocked yesterday afternoon to hear of the death of Mr. John N. Hinton, a highly esteemed resident of this city and principal of Wilmington high school.

Wilmington Star: In the case of the people of the State of North Carolina upon the relation of S. P. Swain vs. M. C. Quigley, being a quo warranto to test the validity of the title of the defendant to the office of Superior Court clerk of Brunswick county, heard in the Superior Court of New Haven on Wednesday, His Honor, Judge Reynolds rendered a decision yesterday in favor of the complainant.

THE TALK AT WASHINGTON.

MATTERS DEBATED BUT NOT FINISHED. The Army Bill in the Senate—An Act to amend the act of 1793 for enrolling and licensing vessels in the coasting trade was again taken up.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—SENATE.—The bill to amend the act of 1793 for enrolling and licensing vessels in the coasting trade was again taken up.

HOUSE.—Atkins, chairman of the appropriations committee, reported back the legislative appropriation bill and the Senate amendments thereto, with a report recommending concurrence in some and non-concurrence in other of the amendments.

It is said that the reason why Butler sought the gubernatorial nomination was because he had not been fairly treated by the Republicans. The best news of the day is that the bill is abandoned.

Thousands Use It, Why Hesitate. It is adapted especially to those cases where the stomach is disordered and the bowels are constipated.

INTERNAL DIMENSIONS IN TURKEY. CONSTANTINOPLE, June 17.—Confusion amounting to a crisis prevails in ministerial circles. It is reported that Khairidin Pasha, grand vizier, will resign.

Judge Lynch Getting In His Work at Spartanburg, S. C. A special dispatch to the News and Courier from Spartanburg to-day says that at about 12 o'clock last night a body of a hundred and fifty armed men entered that town.

BRIEF FOREIGN ITEMS. A telegram from Odessa to the Galois says the receiver's office in Cherson, Southern Russia, has been undermined and robbed of a million and a half roubles.

MARKETS FROM THE WIRE. A special-cashier of the National Bank of Wilmington and Brandywine, has been guilty of embezzlement and false entries, and has been sentenced to five years imprisonment.
