The actor pleads guilty to flirt-ing, "only that and nothing more," and, with an eye to business, hopes to be up and ready for work when the season opens. The husband expresses confi-dence in the honor of his wife, and she says she had gone out of the house ex-pecting to meet her husband, when she encountered Gray. So ended what all the parties interested claim was only a little flirtation. Atlanta Constitution, Sunday. On yesterday a colored man, some fifty years old, passed through the city, from Winston, North Carolina, en route to Waco, Texas. With his wife and children he has lived with his old mas- ter since the war, in Carolina. Some time back, his old master and the entire erowd moved to Waco, Texas, the old man remaining behind to work out some debts he had contracted. Having worked off the debts, he put out afoot for Texas. He appears to be an honest, clever old man. Thinks he will join his family and old master after awhile, though he finds the world much larger than he expected.
