

Free from the dotting scruples that fetter our free-born reason

WEDNESDAY, JULY 2, 1879.

CONGRESS ADJOURNED.

The extra session of Congress, which convened on the 15th of March last, adjourned yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock, after a session of three and a half months.

INCREASE IN REVENUE RECEIPTS.

It was stated in a brief news item in yesterday's OBSERVER that the internal revenue receipts for the fiscal year ending June 30th were $3,000,000 in excess of the receipts for last year, and this notwithstanding the prediction of the commissioner of internal revenue and the Republican members of Congress that if the tax on tobacco were reduced the receipts of the revenue department would be reduced so greatly that the expenses of the government could hardly be met.

THE SOUTH IN THE NEXT NATIONAL REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

A "Solid South" is one of the conceded points. South of Mason and Dixon's line the Republican party will not black the board in the next national contest, and this fact being universally admitted some alarm is being felt in Republican circles lest the delegates from this section should name the candidate for President.

The Southern States would have 188 votes in the convention, behind which there would not be ten electoral votes. The votes most easily manipulated would be from Democratic States.

DEMOCRATS IN COUNCIL.

BANGOR, ME., July 1.—The Democratic State convention met here to-day and was called to order by Edmund D. Bangor, chairman of the State committee.

THE ATLANTIC & NORTH CAROLINA RAILROAD.

In view of the railroad policy just adopted by Gov. Jarvis, matters pertaining to the management of the above named road become at once matters of State importance, and the proceedings of the stockholders' meeting, held at Morehead City last Friday, while a year ago they would have been of only local interest, are now of interest to our whole people, even as the new policy adopted to be put in operation is designed to, and must of necessity, affect the whole railroad system of the State.

And he then proceeded to pay a glowing tribute to the splendid harbors of Beaufort and Newbern, and expressed regrets that the advantages these offer to North Carolina commerce are not appreciated.

HOUSE.

Quite an amusing personal explanation was made this morning by O. Turner, of Kentucky, who denied a charge of drunkenness made against him by the Memphis Advertiser.

Resolved, That the stockholders of the Atlantic & North Carolina Railroad Company in general meeting assembled, do hereby express their desire that their road should become a part of a connected line of railway from the Tennessee line to Beaufort harbor, and that there should be established a first-class steamship line both at Morehead City and Newbern, and that the board of directors of the Atlantic & North Carolina Railroad Company are hereby authorized and requested as early a day as practicable, to secure the establishment of such terms as in their best judgment will ensure to the benefit of the Atlantic & North Carolina Railroad.

Resolved, That the practice of the directors of the Atlantic & North Carolina Railroad Company, giving free passes over its road to highly censurable, and is an unwarrantable assumption of authority on the part of those who give them, and that all conductors be required to disregard such passes and that in default of so doing they be held accountable to the company for the fares of all such as travel on the road on such passes, and that the amount of the same be deducted from their wages, and that a copy of this resolution be placed in a conspicuous place in each passenger coach.

THE SITUATION AT FALL RIVER.

There is little change in the situation at Fall River. The mill owners and operatives both remain firm, and there is not the slightest probability of an adjustment of the differences.

BRIEF FOREIGN ITEMS.

An iron merchant named Westray, of Middleborough, in the north riding of Yorkshire, England, has failed. Liabilities, $200,000.

England and the Tarco-Greek Question.

LONDON, July 1.—The official correspondence on the Greek question has been published. Lord Salisbury, British foreign secretary, suggested to the Porte that he should make a spontaneous cession of territory to Greece by which the Sultan's empire would be really fortified.

CONGRESS ADJOURNED.

AND THE MARSHAL BILL NOT PASSED.

WASHINGTON, July 1.—SENATE.—Eaton called up his adjournment resolution and moved to amend by fixing, Tuesday, July 1, 5 p. m. as the time of the final adjournment.

Windom then spoke on the resolution, explaining his action yesterday. Windom said his side had now exhausted all the legitimate powers conferred upon them by the rules of the Senate in order to induce the majority to make the necessary appropriations for marshals.

The adjournment resolution, as amended, was passed at 1:30 p. m. Harris moved to reconsider the vote by which the free quinine bill was referred to the finance committee yesterday.

At 2:45 p. m. a message from the House announced its concurrence in the Senate amendments to the final adjournment resolution. The Senate then went into executive session, and when the doors were re-opened, complimentary resolutions were passed, thanking Vice-President Wheeler for his courtesy and impartiality as presiding officer; also thanking Mr. Thurman as president pro tem.

After the passage of some unimportant bills, by unanimous vote, the House took a recess until 4 o'clock. Upon re-assembling, Gibson, of Louisiana, moved to suspend the rules and pass the bill amending the Mississippi river commission bill, so as to enable the President to appoint any of the commissioners to be president of the commission. Lost for want of a quorum.

THE PERPLEXING CONTEST OVER HIS TITLE.—English Honors to His Rival.

LONDON, July 1.—The Times's Paris correspondent says: "The majority of the Bonapartists are understood to concur with M. Rouher in acknowledging Prince Jerome Bonaparte as chief of the Napoleonic dynasty. They argue that the will of the late Prince Imperial, which asks the ex-Emperor Eugenie to cooperate with Prince Victor, is written on the assumption that the testator would survive Prince Jerome Bonaparte. This reasoning, however, is considered a transparent excuse for the non-observance of the impracticable will of Prince Imperial."

Partially Burned Cotton Bales Afloat.

LONDON, July 1.—The captain of a vessel just arrived from Galveston, Texas, reports that on the 17th of June, he lost 44,000 lbs. of cotton, valued at $100,000, and that the remainder of the cargo, consisting of 800,000 lbs. of cotton, was apparently in good condition, and which had not been many hours in the water.

815,000 Gone to Texas.

Mr. P. M. Spinnell, of Brownsville, Texas, has heard of the Louisiana State Lottery. Mr. Spinnell has been invited to visit the Louisiana State Lottery, which is being held at New Orleans, Louisiana, on the 17th of June.

A Lynching Spoiled by the Prompt Action of a Judge.

MEMPHIS, June 30.—Wm. Johnson, who committed an outrageous assault upon the child Lizzie Sherwood, last Friday night, was taken to Brownsville, Tenn., this afternoon, for safe keeping. The order for his removal was signed by Judge Ray, of the Criminal Court, it being understood that an attempt was to be made to-night to storm the jail and lynch the prisoner.

New Professor in the University of Virginia.

Corcoran, of Washington, D. C. Mr. Fontaine was student at this institution during the sessions of 1856, '57 and '58, graduating with the degree of M. A.

The business portion of Arthur, Ills., was burned Monday. The loss is estimated at $33,000; insurance $10,000. In accordance with arrangements with the postoffice department the Atlantic Coast Line commenced yesterday morning the new postal cars.

The Saviour of the Little Ones.

There would not be so many little graves in cemeteries and churches, if parents used the means which reach to save the sickly offspring, whose span of feeble life is in their keeping. The baby brain requires constant food, the sensitive nerves want steady toning, the rapidly changing tissues, incessant nourishment, often mother is herself nervously debilitated, and bodily worn out; mother and children may gain a new lease of life and health, by the persistent use of Scott's Emulsion of Pure Cod Liver Oil with the Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda.
