-([To be continued.] Yes, I am Proud of the Name-Woman's Best Friend.

To relieve the aching heart of women and bring joy where sorrow reigned supreme, is a mission before which the smiles of kings dwindle into utter significance. To do this is the peculiar province of Dr. J. Bradfield's Female Regulator, which, from the numberless cares it has accomplished, is appropriately styled Woman's Best Friend. The distressing complaint known as the "whites," and the varieus tregniarities of the women, to which woman is subject, disappear like magic before a single bottle so thir wonderful compound. fire last Friday night. The decision of Judge Buxton in the Swepson case is reversed by the Su-preme Court, and the case is adjudged to be in Franklin, where it will stand for trial at the next term. Wilmington Ster: There are some half dozen railroad (civil) engineers in North Carolina, who would be glad to have work. The Oxford & Henderson

Railroad goes to New England in search of one. That is characteristic. The Robesonian tells of a colored boy having stolen a pocket-book from the safe of McCaskill & McLean, of Lau-rinburg. He spent $11 of the money, gave the balance to his mother, was arrested, confessed, and the pocket-book with its contents was found where the old woman had buried it. The boy was brushed and the old woman let off with-out punishment.

Last Sunday morning at 3 o'clock a keg of powder exploded in the store of F. W. Lessman, of Wilmington. In a moment the building was on fire, and the water thrown upon it by the firemen destroyed almost the entire stock.
