SOME CENTRE SHOTS.

Recently the Radical paper published at Greensboro, contained an editorial as foul and malignant as ever saw the light in the dirtiest days of the Wilmington Post and Raleigh Constitution alleging that there is no freedom of thought or speech to Republicans living in North Carolina, and asserting further that Northern persons who had come here since the war have been forced to abandon their all and "seek a home where they can speak their sentiments and vote as they deem best, without subjection to the insult, abuse and villification of such men as Gov. Vance." At the time of this publication the Raleigh Observer made the excellent point upon the Radical editor that the fact that he could thus publicly denounce Gov. Vance and such men as villifiers, without the slightest risk of personal or legal responsibility, carried on its face the most complete refutation of the charges of persecution; and the Radical editor having then undertaken to bolster himself by the publication of the names of persons whom he says have been thus persecuted and driven away from Guilford county, our Raleigh namesake comes back at him after this sledge-hammer fashion:

But we do not believe any such thing, and we apprehend that there are but few persons in North Carolina who will believe it. The 108,000 Republican ballots cast in 1876 are so many assertions only persons in Guilford county who have been interfered with during the past few years, in political matters, have been negroes who had voted, or who desired to vote the Democratic ticket; and that such interference and persecution came from Republicans and not Democrats.

We will also ask the editor of the State how many of these sixty six persons who left us, as he believes, because they were not allowed to vote the Republican ticket in peace, were Canahere at all; and how many of them have removed to Manitoba, up in British America towards Hudson's Bay peace, did they not stop at Philadelphia, where, it is said, some Republicans are not content with a single ballot, but cast many, and save their country early and often? Or again, why did they not remove them afraid, instead of going a thoufand miles to a foreign country where there are no Republican tickets, and where they have, by expatriating themselves, deprived themselves of casting that ballot to which they attach so much importance?

A complete answer to all these charges is found in the above questions. Since our namesake has undertaken to reply to these slanders it is to be congratulated upon having done it so effectually.

RESIGNATION OF OUR MINISTER TO Baltimore Sun. ENGLAND.-Hon. Jno. Welsh. American minister to the court of St. James, has forwarded his resignation to the State family affliction and a desire to retire from public life are assigned as the causes of the resignation. Mr. Welsh is a citizen of Philadelphia a merchant Department. Advanced years, recent causes of the resignation. Mr. Welsh is a citizen of Philadelphia, a merchant by occupation and was the financier of the centennial exhibition. He having hailed from Pennsylvania, and that State having now no appointment of national importance, Bayard Taylor having died, the politicians of the Keystone State are expected to fall at Washington in force to true mon the President the filling of the vacant English mission with a Pennsylanian, Among the names suggested in this connection are those of ex Gov. Hartrant, Col. M. S. Quay, Gunsha A. Grow, Benjamin Harris Brewster and Wayne MacVeagh.

A LIFT FOR GRANT.-Now wait for the howl. One county in Mississippi has declared in favor of Jefferson Davis for United States Senator. True, Mr. Norfolk, Va., July 30.—Rev. Jno. R. Davis is still laboring under political disabilities, and could not take his seat in the Senate if elected, and true also for United States Senator. True? Mr. in the Senate if elected, and true also that he does not want to be Senator and would not take his seat if he were elected and could, and true again that he probably could not be elected if he wanted to be-still the fact that one Mississippi county has expressed a preference for him will serve to give a boost to the Grant boom, as it will furnish provocation to the stalwarts to revive the "rebellion" and point out the "treasonable purposes" of the "rebel Democracy."

The duel which was pending a few days ago between Judge Robt. Ould and Dr. A. Speers George, of Richmond, grew out of the recent trial of the celebrated and long-standing "George case," which was disposed of in one of the courts of Richmond a few weeks ago by compromise. Dr. George was one of the Richmond heirs to the estate in dispute, and Judge Ould had appeared as counsel for the Philadelphia claimants.

INGERSOLL AND THE JEWS.

Col. Robt. G. Ingersoll has addressed to Hon. J. J. Noah, a prominent He brew of New York, a characteristic let-ter in reference to the recent ill-treat-ment of Hebrews by the proprietor of the Manhattan Beach Hotel. In considering some of the points that he makes we may well forget to "consider the source," and take to heart, for instance, the following paragraphs: Neither should it be forgotten that with a religion, and that they are the only people, according to the degmas of our day, with whom the Almighty ever deigned to have any intercourse When we remember that God select-a Jewess for His mother, passing by the women of India, Egypt, Athens and Rome, as well as the grandmothers of Mr. Corbin, it is hardly in good taste for the worshipers of that same God to hold the Jews in scorn.

We should also remember that the Jews were the only people inspired. All the sacred writers, all the prophets, were of this race, and while Christians almost worship Abraham, notwith-standing the affair of Hagar, and his willingness to murder his own son, and while they hold in almost infinite respect David, the murderer, and Solomon, the Mormon, it certainly is not perfectly consistent to denounce men and women of the same race who have committed no crime. The Christians have always been guilty of this inconsistency with regard to the Jews—they have worshipped the dead and persecuted the living. I think it would be much better to let the dead take care of themselves, while we respect and maintain the rights of the living.

Further than this Col. Ingersoll says It will not do in this, the second century of the United States, to insult a gentleman because of his nation.

MEMPHIS, July 30 .- Four new cases of yellow fever were reported to the board of health this morning—Rose Hendricks, John C. Seeden, C. H. Smith and Maggie Townes. No deaths have been reported up to noon. W. W. Cor-coran, banker at Washington, D. C. has sent his check for $2,000, to be used for the removal of the poor and desti-tute from the city. Of the sick, Brooks Wilson, S. A. Hatcher, Miles Owen and Michael Athy are reported in a critical condition. The weather is now settled.

LATER.—Eight more cases were reported to the board of health this afternoon, including five colored. No deaths from the fever during the 24 hours ending 6 p. m. to-day.

Several cases were reported outside the corporate limits of the city, which are not included in the official report of the board of health. The Howard Association has 45 nurses on duty, distri-buted among 56 sick people. S. A. Hatcher and Brooks Wilson, telegraph operators, are reported dying to-night. Marrying and Giving in Marriage. Louisville Courier-Journal.

The fever of love burns hercer in Memphis than the yellow article itself. The marriages go on as if there were no blight on the air and no widows and widowers and orphans in the near future. The relations of sex could not be more perfectly kept up in a well-regulated poultry-yard. But this is not surprising. Few men consider of what and women die, and thus shift their burdens to the shoulders of others.

and I sat in the seat and managed the horses, four as handsome bays as ever man drew rein over. One day I found a stump right in my way. I hated to back out so I just said a word to the team, and, if you'll believe it, they just walked that plough through that stump as though it had been cheese." Not a soul expressed surprise. Hut Major S., who had been a quiet listener, remarked quietly: "It's curious, but I had a similar experience myself once. My mother always made our clothes in those days, as well as the cloth they were made of. The old lady was awful proud of her homespun—said it was the strongest cloth in the State. One day I had just ploughed through a white-oak stump in the way you speak of, colonel. But it was a little too quick for me. Wilmington Review: Captain Alexander H. Moore, a brave Confederate soldier, of Company D., 18th North Carolina infantry, in which regiment he served during the war, died at the residence of his father on Sunday night in Robeson county, from the effect of wounds received at the second battle of Manassas, on the 29th of August, 1862

Col. S. A. Sharpe has been appointed postmaster at Statesville, displacing Col. W. A. Eliason. The Landmark says: Col. Eliason is, though quiet, an avow-ed Democrat, while Col. Sharpe is equally as avowed a Republican; and the change was simply the stepping down and out of a Democrat to make room for a Republican.

The corner stone of the main building on the grounds of the Dixie Agri-cultural and Mechanical Fair Association, of Wadesboro, is to be laid on the 16th of August with considerable ceremonies. The Polkton Argus says Senator Vance, Gov. Jarvis, Commissioner Polk and other prominent gentlemen have been invited to be present and deliver addresses the excession liver addresses on the occasion.

The Shoe Heel correspondent of the Robesonian informs it that a colored child at Stewartsville, Richmond county, died some days ago under suspicious circumstances, and its body having been exhumed it was found that one of its hips had been broken and that it had received other injuries.
