SHERMAN'S MAINE CAMPAIGN.

It occurs to us that nothing more scandalous in its character has been saddled upon the present administration of the national government, than Secretary Sherman's recent campaign in Maine. The negligence and thievery State, have taken up the refrain, and in the Treasury Department as exhibit- the names of half dozen other gentleed in the Glover report; the pardon of man have been added to the list. The whiskey thieves, as in the days of Grantism; the lying civil service orders; the President's broken promises and unblushing exhibitions of bad faith be done in the meantime. THE OB--none of these, it seems to us, bad as they are, could go further toward dis- in bringing on a canvass at this time. gracing the administration than at least It had no such idea when the original one of the speeches made last week in article was written. It has, however, Maine by Mr. Hayes's Secretary of the shown its journalistic judgment by dis Treasury. Let us quote from the par- cussing a matter which has been eagerticular speech alluded to. Mr. Sherman, at Lewiston, Me., after discussing the has been accomplished. If public senfinancial question, the Glover report timent within the next twelve months and other matters of national impor- shall crystalize in favor of any of the tance, proceeded, toward the conclu- gentlemen named, or upon some one sion, to say:

There are battles of the future which affect your speech and your honor more have the cordial support of THE OBthan all the money questions that I SERVER. could discuss. There are questions of the immediate future that rise above money and bonds, above property and profit. There is the safety and supremacy of the national government, which is again called into dispute by the very men who waged the war against us for four years; for doctrines which preceded civil war; the very doctrine of State rights, which led to war and caused the loss of blood and treasure to an extent for which there is no parallel. They man. are again coming up for discussion and decision. You cannot avoid them. An honest Greenbacker to-day told me that while he had some doubts on the greenback question, he had become alarmed at the danger of the Southern question. I tell you it is upon us. The Solid South is made solid by terror and violence. I cannot describe or depict the condition of the four or five million human beings we emancipated, who are now held in such terror and violence that they are practically deprived of the elective franchise. All that the Solid South wants is a few people in the North, on any kind of an issue, to act with them, and then through their caucus they can ' rule and govern this country, as they tried to through the civil war. The important question of the future is the question of Sonthern domination. It does not comport well with our ideas of propriety to see a cabinet officer lay aside his official duties and step into the political arena, stripped and girded for the fight. It may be too strict a notion-that which would keep them from active participation as stump speakers in partisan canvasses-but granting their right so to do, it must be granted that when they do the people have at least the right to demand of them that they should be fair and truthful and decent. None of these three has Mr. Sherman been, as witness the paragraph above. The country may well be surprised to read such words from him, and well may it blush for the blind partisanship, the falsehood, the demagoguery, the venom and the knavery of its chief financial officer. These utterances and such as these we are accustomed to hear and expect to hear from the small-beer politicians and from certain disreputable newspapers of the Republican party. but they are not expected from Mr. Secretary Sherman. He knows he tells untruths. He is guilty of falsehood and folly both when he tells his audiences that the "safety and supremacy of the national government" is in peril at the first place he is not able to say that the hands of Southern men, and he sins Southern soldiers in the war exhibited knowingly and maliciously and wicked- more valor than those of the North; against the Southern people every latter their flag and the memories time he says that the negroes of this which encircled it, and one was not more section "are held in such terror and vio- devoted to his cause than the other." lence that they are practically deprived | Individual bravery, he says, counts for of the elective tranchise." Shame, nothing in war; all depends upon orshame upon Mr. Sherman!/ He knows ganization, and the Northern forces he tells what is not so. If he had sinned were better organized than ours. He ignorantly he might have been excused, had never doubted that Southern men but he has not; or if he had falsified would make good fighters but they this or any other particular set of facts never acquired the machine-like organmore ingeniously, he might at least ization that the Northern forces enjoyhave been credited with superior cuned. "Men," says he, "must be fou ning while blamed for falsehood; but in blocks and masses, just as part of a he has chosen to follow in the old beaten machine. Nearly everything depends path; to repeat stale stories and re- on the commander. If the men have hearse stale homilies, invented in the confidence in him and his movements beginning by men inferior to himself, they will stand by him to the endbeginning by men inferior to himself. and to flaunt a garment which has long They will actually come to feel safer in since become tattered by the immoderate zeal with which it has been waved by all the smaller fry. Indeed Mr. Sherman should be ashamed of himself and all the country should be ashamed of him. Though his record is not clean we had never thought so are, they will not fight if they feel that poorly of him before as he now forces us to. Gen. Grant himself would not have said such things and shall it be said that Sherman is man than Grant?

THE BACE FOR CONGRESS IN THE | before the war ended he felt that we SIXTH DISTRICT, A YEAR HENCE.

Some weeks ago THE OBSERVER took occasion to forecast the political horo-scope of the sixth district a year hence, and mentioned the names of ten gentle-men living in the district who had been spoken of in connection with the position, only two of whom were thought to be candidates. Since that time the newspapers throughout the district, and we might add throughout the entire election does not occur until November 1880, and it is much too early to speculate upon what ought or ought not to

As to the first statement Col. Steele will not deny that he has so pledged imself, from the stump, in private conversations, and by private letters. Whenever he does so, THE OBSERVER will try and refreshen its memory, look up some old files of letters, and employ an attorney to inquire into the fact as to whether or not somebody has been counterfeiting that gentleman's chirography. As to the second charge there are no grounds whatever for the statement, so far as we know. Mecklenburg Democrats have stood solidly by the nominee of the party for eight years, and until this year has asked no hand in the con-

"No, sir," said he, "I regret nothing. I only did my duty. The war was a grievous error-an error of both sections-and for which both sections have deeply atoned. As for me, I only did my duty in an humble way as man and a soldier, and the same reverent, devoted sentiment that impelled me to draw my sword, filled my heart when I sheathed it forever."

Longstreet is described as genial and gentle in manner and noble in appearance. Mr. Grady has written three and a half columns of his interview with him, and all in all it is a most readable article.

A Care.

To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early de-cay, loss of manhood, dc., I will send a recipe that will cure you, FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the REV. JOSEPH T. INMAN, Station D, New York City.

Kase Attainable by the Rheumatic.

Yes, although they may despair of relief, it ttainable by rheumatic sufferers, for there is attainable by rheumatic sufferers, for there is remedy which carries off, by means of increase for there is a remedy which carries off, by means of increased activity of the kidneys-important channels for blood purification—the acrid element to which pathologists the most eminent attribute the painful symptoms—a theory completely borne out by urin-ary analysis. The name of this grand depurent is Hostetters, a preparation likewise celebrated as a remedy for constipation, which causer contamina-tion of the blood with the blie—and a certain means of relief in dyspepsia, fever and ague, and nervous dilments. It is, perhaps, the finest tonic extant, and is highly recommended as a medicinal extant, and is highly recommended as a medicinal stimulant by distinguished physicians and analysis who pronounce it to be eminently pure beneficial. The press also endorses it. and very

Something New Under the Sun.

A new era is dawning upon the life of woman. Hitherto she has been called upon to suffer the ills of mankind and her own besides. The frequent and distressing irregularities peculiar to her sex have long been to her the "directul spring of woes unnumbered." In the mansion of the rich, and in the housel of powerty sitter more her her her unnumbered." In the mansion of the rich, and in the hovel of poverty alike, woman has been the constant, yet patient victim of a thousand ills un-known to man—and these without a redemy. "Oh Lord, how long!" in the agony of her soul hath she cried. But now the hour of her redemption is come. She will suffer no more, for Dr. J. Brad-field's Female Regulator—Woman's Best Friend— may be relied on to cure all the diseases peculiar to women. Try it and be convinced. aug 1 in aug1 1m
