

Subscription Rates: Daily, one year, $6.00; Six Months, $3.50; Three Months, $2.00; One Month, $0.75.

VOL. XX.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., FRIDAY, AUGUST 15, 1879.

NO. 3,267.

THE OBSERVER JOB DEPARTMENT: Has been thoroughly supplied with every needed want and with latest styles of type, and every manner of Job Printing can now be done with neatness, dispatch and cheapness.

Furniture. BURGESS NICHOLS, Wholesale and Retail. ALL KINDS OF.

FURNITURE, BEDDING, & C.

CHEAP BEDSTEADS AND LOUNGES.

PARLOR & CHAMBER SUITS.

Drugs and Medicines. DR. J. H. McADEN, DRUGGIST AND CHEMIST.

Drugs and Medicines. DR. J. H. McADEN, DRUGGIST AND CHEMIST.

Drugs and Medicines. DR. J. H. McADEN, DRUGGIST AND CHEMIST.

Drugs and Medicines. DR. J. H. McADEN, DRUGGIST AND CHEMIST.

Drugs and Medicines. DR. J. H. McADEN, DRUGGIST AND CHEMIST.

Drugs and Medicines. DR. J. H. McADEN, DRUGGIST AND CHEMIST.

Drugs and Medicines. DR. J. H. McADEN, DRUGGIST AND CHEMIST.

Drugs and Medicines. DR. J. H. McADEN, DRUGGIST AND CHEMIST.

Drugs and Medicines. DR. J. H. McADEN, DRUGGIST AND CHEMIST.

Drugs and Medicines. DR. J. H. McADEN, DRUGGIST AND CHEMIST.

Drugs and Medicines. DR. J. H. McADEN, DRUGGIST AND CHEMIST.

Drugs and Medicines. DR. J. H. McADEN, DRUGGIST AND CHEMIST.

Drugs and Medicines. DR. J. H. McADEN, DRUGGIST AND CHEMIST.

Dry Goods, Clothing, & Another Decline.

SUMMER FABRICS, DRESS GOODS, COTTON AND LINEN LAWS, DRESS LINENS, LINEN DRILLS, &c., &c.

MILLINERY. Is good, and going off at figures below New York Cost.

STRAW HATS. In white and colors is good, and at prices to suit you.

PARASOLS & FANS. At greatly reduced prices. We have on hand a good stock of Mosquito Nettings, AND CANOPIES.

SUMMER GOODS. Will do well to call on us before buying.

Bottled Lager Beer, ALE AND PORTER.

LAGER BEER. HAPPY JOE FISCHESSE.

Hotels. $2.00 MARSHALL $2.00 HOUSE HOUSE SAVANNAH, GA.

Miscellaneous. STOP AT THE BOYDEN HOUSE.

RYE, GRAHAM AND WHEAT BREAD.

CAKES! CAKES! Found Sponge, Fruit, Jelly, and all kinds of Fancy Cakes at PRATHER'S.

WELL IMPROVED CITY PROPERTY FOR SALE.

THE SILENCE OF THE PRESS.

THE SILENCE OF THE PRESS.

THE SILENCE OF THE PRESS.

A Common Story. MISS MULLOCK. My old love whom I loved not, is this your friendly hand?

My old love whom I loved not, do you regret— The first of which best were dead.

My old love whom I loved not, O kind love, whom I loved not! O faithful, firm and true!

My old love whom I loved not, Mrs. Langtry, the English beauty, is only 24 years of age.

My old love whom I loved not, The New York Journal of Commerce says that it is correct to say "that his politics, because 'politics is a noun singular, and in its primary meaning requires a verb in the singular number."

My old love whom I loved not, Large pictures of Talmage now adorn the walls of this city, and it is quite affecting to see scores of little children peep at it in his mouth and try to stuff him with peanut shells.

My old love whom I loved not, This is my birthday. I have reached a comfortable, responsible, satisfactory age, and I am going to stick to it.

My old love whom I loved not, How the New York Senator and the Daughter of Chief Justice Chase Set the Tongues Wagging at Washington—Matters that Have Been Common Talk.

My old love whom I loved not, Correspondence of the Philadelphia Times. WASHINGTON, August 12.—A dispatch in a New York paper of this morning says that ex-Senator Sprague was asked if he had ordered Senator Conkling from his house.

My old love whom I loved not, "Yes, I did." "For what reason, may I ask?" "Because," said he, "he has tried to destroy my household in Washington and now he seeks to do it here."

My old love whom I loved not, The Rhode Islander at this point cut the conversation off, after inquiring if his interlocutor had read the Washington papers last winter.

My old love whom I loved not, "If you have you ought to know why without asking." In these few significant answers lies hidden the whole gist of the recent Sprague-Conkling scandal.

My old love whom I loved not, It is needless to say that the column after column that has been published about the part which the German professor "who understood French" took in the row, as all know, is freely charged here that the professor's relation to the parties principal was simply that of a "pitiful goer-between."

My old love whom I loved not, Here's a sample bit of Washington criticism of the first dispatch which came over the wires from Narragansett Pier the other day—a dispatch, by the way, which bears all the earmarks of Conkling's own hand.

My old love whom I loved not, "Oh! that's an old scandal. That's the reason Mrs. Conkling don't live in Washington. 'Blow his brains out.' The great wonder in the average Washington mind is that Sprague hasn't done it long ago.

My old love whom I loved not, We have a good story here about Mrs. Conkling's treatment of the case. It is related that Mrs. Conkling had come down to live one winter at the capital, and had made all her preparations to do so, when one afternoon some rare flowers, with a billet doux that accompanied them, fell into her hands.

and then what the curiosity of the Sunday reader by speaking of some incident in which "an eminent Senator from a great State and the charming daughter of a great Judge, and wife of a rich—"

And then, too, the reckless boldness with which the twain carried on their little game of love. They did not seem to make any pretence of concealing their billings and cooings from the workmen in the capitol corridors.

Even the Senator's most brilliant speeches seemed to take their color from the admiring eyes of the lady in the gallery. As she tripped down the stairs to her seat it was a frequent sight for the knowing ones to glance over to Conkling's desk and observe the arranging of the curly gold locks and the red necktie, the posing of the stairward legs and the broad shoulders, to say nothing of the animated way in which the Senator would grip up his trip-hammer to crack for the moment before the Senate.

Within the past year Mrs. Sprague's attendance upon the debates has been more frequent and her correspondence with the Senator by means of her eyes and the use of a pencil and paper—not passing to and fro with unblushing publicity and frequency. Almost daily and even nightly during the extra session just closed these pranks were carried on in the sight of galleries full of ordinary spectators, Senators and the lackeys of the Senate.

Half a hundred incidents might be told of these two people, which, if told about men and women in ordinary life, would close them out of the circles of ordinary society.

But in the last "effort" of the Senator in the presence of the wife of the ex-Senator at the daughter of the dead chief justice the distinguished senatorial pasha seems to have run up against his "kismet" when Lamar flung in his fine teeth the words that "no good man would deserve and no brave man would wear."

STATEMENT FROM THE GERMAN PROFESSOR, ETC. Prof. George Linck, who is mixed up in the Sprague-Conkling trouble, prints a long statement in the Providence Journal. He says that Gov. Sprague gave him an insulting glance when they first met some weeks ago, and that afterwards he improved every opportunity to repeat the insult.

Prof. George Linck, who is mixed up in the Sprague-Conkling trouble, prints a long statement in the Providence Journal. He says that Gov. Sprague gave him an insulting glance when they first met some weeks ago, and that afterwards he improved every opportunity to repeat the insult.

Prof. George Linck, who is mixed up in the Sprague-Conkling trouble, prints a long statement in the Providence Journal. He says that Gov. Sprague gave him an insulting glance when they first met some weeks ago, and that afterwards he improved every opportunity to repeat the insult.

Prof. George Linck, who is mixed up in the Sprague-Conkling trouble, prints a long statement in the Providence Journal. He says that Gov. Sprague gave him an insulting glance when they first met some weeks ago, and that afterwards he improved every opportunity to repeat the insult.

Prof. George Linck, who is mixed up in the Sprague-Conkling trouble, prints a long statement in the Providence Journal. He says that Gov. Sprague gave him an insulting glance when they first met some weeks ago, and that afterwards he improved every opportunity to repeat the insult.

Prof. George Linck, who is mixed up in the Sprague-Conkling trouble, prints a long statement in the Providence Journal. He says that Gov. Sprague gave him an insulting glance when they first met some weeks ago, and that afterwards he improved every opportunity to repeat the insult.

Prof. George Linck, who is mixed up in the Sprague-Conkling trouble, prints a long statement in the Providence Journal. He says that Gov. Sprague gave him an insulting glance when they first met some weeks ago, and that afterwards he improved every opportunity to repeat the insult.

Prof. George Linck, who is mixed up in the Sprague-Conkling trouble, prints a long statement in the Providence Journal. He says that Gov. Sprague gave him an insulting glance when they first met some weeks ago, and that afterwards he improved every opportunity to repeat the insult.

Prof. George Linck, who is mixed up in the Sprague-Conkling trouble, prints a long statement in the Providence Journal. He says that Gov. Sprague gave him an insulting glance when they first met some weeks ago, and that afterwards he improved every opportunity to repeat the insult.

Prof. George Linck, who is mixed up in the Sprague-Conkling trouble, prints a long statement in the Providence Journal. He says that Gov. Sprague gave him an insulting glance when they first met some weeks ago, and that afterwards he improved every opportunity to repeat the insult.

FOR FIFTEEN DAYS.

GREAT CLEARANCE SALE Prior to Our Removal.

HEAVY SACRIFICE. The odds and ends of this season's business will now be closed at a

STILL ANOTHER REDUCTION! As the season advances and we have still a considerable stock of Summer Goods, we propose a continuance of

THE GREAT RUSH. By offering still greater inducements than heretofore.

DRESS GOODS, WHITE AND FANCY GOODS, LACES, HOSIERY, GLOVES & CORSETS, BUTTONS AND MILLINERY GOODS

CLOTHING! CLOTHING! SHIRTS! SHIRTS! HALF HOSE AND NECKWEAR.

REDUCTION IN CASSIMERE CLOTHING! Our $7.50 Cheviot Suit sells now for $6.50. Our $12.50 English Tweed Suit sells now for $10.

SEABOARD AIR LINE. VIRGINIA, NORTH CAROLINA, SOUTH CAROLINA, GEORGIA, TENNESSEE.

SEABOARD AIR LINE. VIRGINIA, NORTH CAROLINA, SOUTH CAROLINA, GEORGIA, TENNESSEE.

SEABOARD AIR LINE. VIRGINIA, NORTH CAROLINA, SOUTH CAROLINA, GEORGIA, TENNESSEE.

GREAT CLOSING OUT SALE OF SUMMER CLOTHING, AT THE STORE OF W. KAUFMAN & CO.

REMOVED. HAVING REMOVED TO THE STORE FORMERLY OCCUPIED BY S. LANDECKER, THE BALANCE OF MY SUMMER GOODS, REGARDLESS OF COST, TO MAKE ROOM FOR MY FALL STOCK.

REMOVED. HAVING REMOVED TO THE STORE FORMERLY OCCUPIED BY S. LANDECKER, THE BALANCE OF MY SUMMER GOODS, REGARDLESS OF COST, TO MAKE ROOM FOR MY FALL STOCK.

REMOVED. HAVING REMOVED TO THE STORE FORMERLY OCCUPIED BY S. LANDECKER, THE BALANCE OF MY SUMMER GOODS, REGARDLESS OF COST, TO MAKE ROOM FOR MY FALL STOCK.

REMOVED. HAVING REMOVED TO THE STORE FORMERLY OCCUPIED BY S. LANDECKER, THE BALANCE OF MY SUMMER GOODS, REGARDLESS OF COST, TO MAKE ROOM FOR MY FALL STOCK.

REMOVED. HAVING REMOVED TO THE STORE FORMERLY OCCUPIED BY S. LANDECKER, THE BALANCE OF MY SUMMER GOODS, REGARDLESS OF COST, TO MAKE ROOM FOR MY FALL STOCK.

Periodicals. HARPER'S WEEKLY, 1879. ILLUSTRATED.

Periodicals. HARPER'S WEEKLY, 1879. ILLUSTRATED.