Tempting Prizes for Military Companies would do well to take a note of Macon (Ga.) Fair Association. We understand the citizens of Columbia will offer a prize nearly as large to be contested for at the annual fair of the State Agricultural Society in Columbia, which will also be open to the world. Our own association offers $100 to be competed for by companies belonging to the State Guard. Besides these is the champion flag for the best target shooting offered annually by the State Agricultural Society and won last year by the Hornets' Nest Riflemen, and which will be put up again this year if our companies intend to enter the contest for any of these prizes, isn't it time they were preparing themselves for the fray?

Meteoric Shower Ahead.

Prof. Tice says that we are to have on the night of November 13th, the most brilliant meteoric display ever seen since 1838, when to all intents and purposes the sky literally rained fire. The display for this year will not commence until about 1 o'clock in the morning, but the professor says that the magnificence of the display will more than compensate for the inconvenience of

From Danville to Statesville.

The party of Statesville and Danville gentlemen interested in the proposed railroad between these two points, have started out on their tour of inspection of the route from the latter place and will go straight through to Statesville. They have been out on the line for several days, and the Danville News publishes a letter from one of the gentlemen saying that their observations to Madison, which point they had reached, had shown that the line was a cheap one.

Cotton Receipts Thus Far.

Weighmaster Sprinkle's books showed last evening, that the receipts of cotton in this market this year, from the 1st of posed that it would be less than ten days behind on account of the wet weather of August. The above figures, however, show that it is very consideris to be accounted for by the almost unprecedentedly favorable weather of September.

The Georgias To-Night. The Georgia Minstrels, who appear in the opera house this evening, have, since they have been under the management of Haverly, been playing in the West, and have received some very complimentary notices from the press. The following report of an entertainment given by them in Chicago, is from the Tribune: "They offered one of the most enjoyable entertainments of the kind lately seen in this city. They are fresh and original, and free from vulgarities. The unexpectedness of everything consti-tutes, in an entertainment of this description, the principal charm, and this merit the Haverly Georgia Minstrels have in a high degree. Their jokes are new, and their music is not worn out. Merely to hear Devonear's experience in a Dickens library, or to witness the Senegambian Revels,' is more than the pleasure all the platitudes the old troupes can afford. The genial spirit which the Georgia Minstrels convey to the antience seems to be genuine and health. The attendance was large."

A New Enterprise-Millstones from

J. E. Taylor, president of the Taylor Manufacturing Company, of Westminster, Md., was in the city yesterday. We learn that he has bought the millstone quarry in Moore county, about 5 miles from Carthage, which contains a stone that was discovered some 75 years ago, and has been worked by several parties in a primitive way, some ten different quarries having been operated for years. The stone has gained quite a local notority as Moore county grit. It is a blue cement-colored rock filled with white flint, and it is claimed for it that it grinds corn in a manner superior to the French burr, or esophus. The grit being so much sharper than that in the ordinary millstone makes a fine granulation instead of a mater or floury most lation instead of a pasty or floury meal. It is also claimed that it grinds with much less power than any other.

Mr. Taylor purchased the entire yein some 5 miles long, together with 350 acres of land, and has formed a company called the Moore County Millstone Company, which will put in all the improved machinery necessary to put the proved machinery necessary to put the stones on the market in quantities. The deposit is said by all acquainted with it to be inexhaustible.

Bullion Assays.

The bullion assays made in the United States assay office in this city during the month of September amounted in value to $12,186.18, which is much the largest made since the branch mint was abolished. This is an encouraging indication of the prosperity of the gold interest in the Atlantic Gold Belt. The assayer, being also a sub-treasurer of the government, will pay out green. the government, will pay out green-backs for this gold bullion when desired. This saves to miners the expense of shipping it North and at the same time they get the money for their gold without the slightest delay.

A Sight on a Breakfast.

"What is my bill?" inquired a Charlottean who had arrived late at night at a hotel in a neighboring town, and had ledging and breakfast. He propounded this conundrum to the land-lord the next morning after breakfast as he leaned over the counter in the office. "One dollar," replied the landlord. "Une dollar, replied the land-lord. "I shall have to call you for a sight," responded the Charlottean; "I haven't got but fifty cents." The land-lord smiled; he had been there. He said that was the first time he ever knew a man to call a sight on a breakfast, and he sized the young man's pile and let him go.

A Passenger Train Runs Into a Freight on the Air-Line. There is a sharp curve on the Air-Line Railroad just beyond the depot at King's Mountain, and the passenger trains which have air-brakes frequently come around it at a rapid speed. "I am too late for this month's drawing!" is the "I am too late for this month's drawing!" is the tenor of a complaint which is becoming very general among those who loiter and wait until the day immediately preceding the monthly drawing of the Louisiana State Lottery Company, which occurs invariably at New Orleans, on the second Tuesday of every month. The fact is that the integrity with which every action of this institution is characterized has so strengthened its reputation that its tickets are sold every month some days before the drawing, and therefore any one desirous of investing in this manner should suffer no time to investing in this manner should suffer no time to elapse before they correspond with M. Kase Attainable by the Rheumatic.

Yes, although they may despair of relief, it is attainable by rheumatic sufferers, for there is a remedy which carries off, by means of increased activity of the kidneys—important channels for blood purification—the acrid element to which pathologists the most eminent attribute the painful symptoms—a theory completely borne out by urinary analysis. The name of this grand depurent is Hostetters, a preparation likewise celebrated as a remedy for constipation, which causer contamination of the blood with the bile—and a certain means of relief in dyspepsia, fever and ague, and nervous allments. It is, perhaps, the finest tonic extant, and is highly recommended as a medicinal stimulant by distinguished physicians and analysts who pronounce it to be eminently pure and very beneficial. The press also endorses it.
