The present price of cotton is knocking the black out of Paw Creek spots. They have been almost driven out of the market. An excursion for colored people left this city yesterday morning for Salis-bury, where a Good Samaritan celebration took place yesterday. Mr. D. M. Rigler's "Mecklenburg" fell, vesterday, in the mile heat on the Atlinta course, with three other horses. There are no particulars. The audience which gathered at the Military Institute to hear Brof. Willoughby Read were said to have been delighted with the entertainment. Better order has rarely ever been known in the city than has prevailed throughout all of this week, notwithstanding the streets have been crowded people and many of these have to hunt, and trapping has not yet fairly commenced.

The register of deeds yesterday received 400 copies of the revised school law; to be distributed among the school committeemen and teachers of the public schools of the county.

Pampkin custard is now on deck. If a man were starving and pumpkin custard and polk berry or dried apple pie were set before him, he might be justified in taking hold of the custard—bat it is doubtful.

The members of the Carolina Fair Association meet to-day at the court house. The subject to be considered is "small grain," and the discussions will doubtless prove very interesting. A full attendance is hoped for.

"Josh" had hardly gotten out of the lock-up, vesterday morning, and passed through the mayor's court, before he began filling up his little tank again. Before night had come he was "fully organized," and as a matter of course must needs make an exhibition of him-self. It took four or five men to put him up, but the job was done, and he will settle this morning for his fun.

Mr. Jenkins and the Governorship.

The Reidsville Times, referring to the recent interview of THE OBSERVER with ex-State Treasurer Jenkins, on the subject of the governorship, remarks that "the ex-treasurer is a clever and excellent gentleman that is a clever and that is a clever and the clever gentleman that is a clever gentleman excellent gentleman, but is evidently too much at home with himself on this subject; which we take to indicate that the Times considers Mr. Jenkins too previous.

They Stop in Charlotte on Their Re-ture Home + Public Drill-Cour-tesies to the Visitors, &c.

About fifteen minutes before the arrival of the Richmond & Danville train at 11:17 a.m., yesterday, a telegram was received announcing that the Gate City Guards, of Atlanta, were on board, returning home from their extended Northern and Eastern trip. It was immediately decided by the officers of the Hornets' Nest Riflemen, of Charlotte, that the Guards should be invited to stop over here as the guests of the Riflemen, and they were accordingly met at the depot by a detachment of the Hornets, who pressed an invitation upon them to remain over at least until night, as their guests. The invitation was accepted and the visitors were es-corted to the Central Hotel, where they put themselves in readiness for dinner. The places where liquid refreshments are wont to be had were thrown open to the visitors and all refreshments went upon the account of the Hornets' Nest After dinner, in which champagne figured conspicuously; the members of the Guards were escorted around the city, and at 4 o'clock they were formed and marched to Independence Square where they were put through the manual of arms and company evolutions.

A large number of persons witnessed the drill, which excited general admiration, it being unanimously voted that nothing equal to it had ever been seen in Charlotte, The precision of the move-ments were marvelous, The men showed themselves to be almost perfectly trained, and reflected the greatest credit up-on themselves and their officers.

After tea the visitors were again taken charge of by the Hornets and carried to the dime concert, after which, at the invitation of Prof. Agos-

The management of the Atlanta & Charlotte Air-Line greet the Gate City Guards on their return to the rails of the line with a cordial welcome, which they trust will be none the less appreciated because their route through the East has been one continuous ovation. The management beg to tender their congratulations to the Guards on accomplishing what has never been done by a military company in the history of this continent, and to bid them welcome back to their homes and friends. Lincoln Court. The criminal docket, in Lincoln Superior Court, was finished up Thursday evening. There were no capital cases. Yesterday morning the civil docket was taken up and will occupy the remainder of the term. It is believed that the case of the widow of the late J. R. Hawkins against the Atlanta & Charlotte Air-Line Railroad company, for causing the death of her husband in March '78, will not be reached at this session of the court, and Dr. J. P. Mc-Combs, of this city, one of the witnesses in the case, returned home yesterday afternoon.

An Energetic Cat. A cat which has its home at the store of Mr. J. M. Sims, on Trade street, got made its way into McIntyre's beef mar-ket, further down the street, where it established itself for the night. Yesterday morning when the proprietor opened up he found the cat in charge, It was lying on its stomach keeping guard over fifteen rats which it had killed during the night and stacked up in the floor. A half dozen such cats in the community would utterly break down the sale of rat-traps.

Abductor Caught and Committed. The negro, Bob Johnston, who about Pineville, in this county, yesterday, and the former had a trial defore Justice J. T. Downs, who ordered him to jail in Charlotte, the negro being unable to give bond for his appearance. The child was taken charge of by her father and carried home. She is represented as weak minded and thus more susceptible to undue influence. Johnston is a shorf rib stout, black negro, twenty-five years of Mecklenburg Darkles and the Exedus. The issue of the 21st instant, is before us, and the parents published in the interest of the colored race. The issue of the following is the first paragraph of a leading editorial:

An Incipient Fire Checked.

Last night about 9 o'clock, Policemen Blackwelder and Carter, walking down the North Carolina Railroad from Trade street, discovered fire in the roof of a shed in rear of the foundry of W. J. F. Liddell & Co., and connected with the main building. The blaze had fairly started when discovered, and Policeman Blackwelder hastening to a house near by procured a nuclet of water and climbane on top of the building by means of a ladder excinguished the re before any material camage was done.

Counsel Incarcerated. The young man from Providence was in town and on a turn-around night before last. He made himself conspicu-ously disagreeable and resisted arrest when the police went after him. They put him up, nevertheless, and vester-day morning he appeared in the mayor's court. The mayor heard the testimony and levied a fine of $10 and cost. When the judgment of the court was pronounced, a friend of the young man from Providence, and one who evidently had not recovered entirely from his bout of the night before with John Barleycorn, arose from his seat in the rear end of the room, and steadying himself and putting on his most lawyer-like countenance exclaimed:

"Oh, that's too much ; so is enough-"Who is that man?" demanded the court. "Lock him up until he gets

The volunteer counsel bowed gracefully to the mandate of the law, and when he was let out at a o'clock yesterday afternoon he said he had no idea it had turned so cold.

kase Attainable by the Kheumatic,

Yes, although they may despair of relief, it is attainable by rheumatic sufferers, for there is a remedy which carries off, by means of increased activity of the kidneys—important channels for blood purification—the acrist element to which pathologists the most eminent attribute the painful pathologists the most eminent attribute the painful symptoms—a theory completely borne out by urinary analysis. The name of this grand depurent is Hostetters, a preparation likewise celebrated as a remedy for constipation, which causer contamination of the blood with the bile—and a certain means of relief in dyspepsia, fever and ague, and nervous allments. It is, perhaps, the finest tonic extant, and is highly recommended as a medicinal stimulant by distinguished physicians and analysts who pronounce it to be eminently pure and very beneficial. The press also endorses it.

TOBACCO. The Fortunate Trust of a Lawyer, who Promptly Collects a $10,000 Prize Which Cost His Chest $2.00. David D. Tary, the vell-known lawyer, at No. 8 John street I ew York City was asked if he had not held tick the following the louisian State Lottery Company's drawing, on September 9, and said: Said:

"Yes; I held whole ticket No. 31.913 in trust for a client. It cost $2 at the office of M.A. Dauphin, 319 Broadway, New York. I forwarded it through Adams' Express for collection, and received $10,000 in cash without deduction. I would rather not tell the name of the fortunate possessor of the money, since it would be a breach of confidence, and the principal object of collecting the ticket in my name would be defeated."

The reporter did not pursue his investigation further, as he was assured by the representative of the company that the Louisiana State Lottery never desires to reveal the identity of any of its patrons without their authority.—New York World, Sept. 27th, 1879.
