

Subscription Rates: Daily, one year, $10.00; Six Months, $6.00; Three Months, $3.50; One Month, $1.00.

VOL. XX.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., SUNDAY, OCTOBER 26, 1879.

NO. 3,328.

Dry Goods.

PATENTED JUNE 13, 1876. These Goods have been sold during the past three years. All who have worn them pronounce the mode of fastening ABSOLUTELY PERFECT.

Alexander & Harris.

OUR CARPET ROOM

Represents between $20.00 AND $30.00 IN CARPETS ALONE.

We can show a larger and better assorted stock than the combined stocks in the city, and at prices as low as can be found at any retail house in the United States.

Drugs and Medicines.

DR. J. H. McAden,

DRUGGIST AND CHEMIST. Now offers to the trade a full stock of

Lubin's Extracts and Colognes

English Solon. Cologne, Honey and Glycerine Soap.

TOOTH BRUSHES.

Prescriptions. Carefully prepared at all hours, both night and day at

SECURITY.

ALADDIN SECURITY OIL. West's Extra No. 1 Kerosene Oil, from C. West & Sons, Baltimore.

SECURITY.

ALADDIN SECURITY OIL. Highest Medal awarded at Centennial Exposition.

SHIPPING.

DR. J. H. McADEN'S SOLE AGENT. CHARLOTTE, N. C.

J. ANTHONY,

DEALER IN NORTHERN ICE, LARD & LUMBER.

LITHIA WATER,

Appalachee Water, Hamard's Spring Water, Congress Water, Hatcher's Water, Lead Springs.

SALEM ALMANACS

For 1880, just received by WILSON & BURWELLS.

5 AND 10c. COUNTERS.

TO THE TRADE: The five counters of the day are selling at 5c. and 10c. only.

Dry Goods, Clothing, &c

TO THE LADIES

AND PUBLIC GENERALLY.

We are now receiving our second stock of Black and Colored

CASHMERE

AND FANCY

DRESS GOODS

For this season. Notwithstanding the very large and varied stock we bought this season, we have found it necessary to buy a second one. Our stock of

CLOAKS AND DALMONTS

Is beautiful and very cheap. Our new Plannels and Waterproofs are also handsome and cheap. Our stock of

SHAWLS

To be found in the city.

SILKS AND SATINS

Is complete, including some handsome black Cashmere ones. We carry the handsomest and most varied stock of

VELVETS.

Another lot of Ladies'

UNTRIMMED HATS

Just received. Remember we lend Ladies' and Gents' Underwear. All are respectfully asked to examine our stock.

Liquors.

DURHAM

WHISKEY.

ANALYZED BY DR. W. H. TAYLOR, STATE CHEMIST OF VIRGINIA, AND PROVED PURE. AND RECOMMENDED AS A BEVERAGE OR MEDICINE.

HEADQUARTERS

FOR

Bottled Lager Beer,

ALE AND PORTER.

Is corner Trade and Boundary Avenue. Delivered to any part of the city, free of charge for $1.00 per dozen.

LAGER BEER

HAPPY

JOE FISCHESSER.

SOLE AGENT FOR THE ATLANTA BREWERY. Let those who never drank Beer before. Go to Joe Fischesser's and drink the more.

SHIPPING.

DR. J. H. McADEN'S SOLE AGENT. CHARLOTTE, N. C.

J. ANTHONY,

DEALER IN NORTHERN ICE, LARD & LUMBER.

LITHIA WATER,

Appalachee Water, Hamard's Spring Water, Congress Water, Hatcher's Water, Lead Springs.

SALEM ALMANACS

For 1880, just received by WILSON & BURWELLS.

5 AND 10c. COUNTERS.

TO THE TRADE: The five counters of the day are selling at 5c. and 10c. only.

STOMACH

BITTERS

For sale by all Druggists and respectable dealers generally.

Quintess.

I would be quiet, Lord, Not tease, nor fret; No more summeer of mine With Thou forgot.

I am not wise to know What most I need; I dare not cry too loud; Least Thou shouldst heed.

What I most crave perchance Thou wilt withhold; As we from hands unmeet Keep pearls, or gold;

As we, when childish hands Would play with fire, Withhold the burning coal Of their desire.

Yet choose Thou for me—Thou art my best; This short prayer of mine Holds all the rest!

OBSERVATIONS.

Not a put up job, as yet: The Washington monument. Deadhead was the name of a winning horse at Jerome Park. Of course he was bound to pass.

Negro pedestrians are coming into favor. Is this an indication that blackness makes the most out of walking matches?—Box, Cov. Ind.

Since these large white surcingle vests came into use among ladies, it makes a very beautiful young lady suddenly. Young Joe saw one for the first time yesterday, and blushing to the roots of his hair, while she, because she, "excuse me, but you've got your coat on the outside."

Small girl, very harshly, to a doll in a toy carriage, dolly had her seat: "Don't you dare do that again, or I'll whip you. Seeing a passer, who had approached and observed she muffled her voice, and continued in dulcet tones: "Now, sit up straight, and be careful not to fall and hurt yourself."

Let us console ourselves. General Grant said in his speech at Portland that Federal and Confederate are "now associated together in a country of which they are the right to be proud, and the organs have already begun to pumpe him about it. It is settling so soon a man is so soluble even in his cup of a Constitution.

Some of the papers are inclined to rap Colonel Paul H. Hayne, the poet, because he is reported to have said that the Southern people do not appreciate the efforts of professional literary men. We are not of the number. In the first place, the colored man may have said it in the second place, if he did say it, it may be taken for granted that he is ready to defend his position with twenty-seven separate and distinct sources of force. The Constitution has said that a man who is once struck squarely in the stomach with a fresh sonnet rarely ever recovers. Time to be of any subsequent service to his country.—Atlanta Constitution.

BRIEF NEWS ITEMS.

The election in Baltimore resulted in a majority for the Late (Democrat). Mr. Hooper carried two wards, and three Republican councilmen were elected.

The grand jury of Bridgeport, Conn., has presented an indictment for murder in the first degree against Mary E. Lounsbury for killing her husband, Rev. Dexter L. Lounsbury, September 24.

A splendid Bengal tigress over three feet in height and nearly eight feet long appeared in the neighborhood of Torredale, near Philadelphia, Thursday morning, and was killed by the residents. She is supposed to have escaped from a traveling menagerie.

At the trial in New Haven, Conn., of Rev. W. W. Hayden for the murder of Mary Stannard, Deputy of Yale, testified that he found the crystals of arsenic in Miss Stannard's stomach to be of the same size as those found in Hayden's barn.

Maryland Republicans profess to derive much encouragement for their party from the present situation of that State. They say that the Republican candidate for Governor will have a majority outside of the city of Baltimore, and that they will make large gains in the Legislature.

The annual report of the Postmaster-General, now in course of preparation, will show a deficiency for the fiscal year of something over $3,000,000, or about three-fifths of what the deficiency was for the last fiscal year. The condition of the department and the postal service generally is considered by the Postmaster-General to be very efficient.

A Story too Revolting to Secure its Credence.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 23.—The Sentinel contains an account of horrible atrocities in the Milwaukee house of correction. The institution is described as a factory crowded with a mass of wretches. An intelligent convict, just released, whose character for veracity is vouched for by prominent persons who know him intimately, states that he has been an inmate for two years. He says that he was allowed to write to his counsel, friends or family, who supposed him dead. He says the bread furnished the convicts is made from damaged corn feed, and this stuff is paid for by the county at the rate of $1.00 per barrel. During his confinement embryo calves, dogs and glandered horses have been furnished as meat, and he brings the bones, which are now in the possession of the editor of the Sentinel, to prove it. The details in this respect are horrible beyond description. Of the brutality of the keepers he says the prisoners were beaten and confined in the black-hole, which is a filthy dog-kennel of five feet four inches by five feet. A man of length ten feet and a half is there any mutilation. The floor is covered with indescribable filth. Men are chained there for twenty days at a time, and two to his knowledge have died from the effects of disease. The wretches are also charged with the police are in collusion with the superintendent to kidnap men for work at night-making. The whole story is too revolting to be believed, and it is hoped that the public will be able to do something to prevent such a condition of things.

The Greenback vote in Ohio, just cast, was 100,000 against 88,000 last year.

Hon. Charles Foster declares positively that he will not be a candidate for United States Senator from Ohio.

Gen. Arthur, a leading New York Republican politician, expresses a belief that Fremont will receive nearly 100,000 votes ahead of Robinson, and that the latter will be elected.

The Postmaster-General Thursday referred an application made by counsel of the Louisiana Lottery Company for a brief filed in behalf of that company against the recent order affecting lottery mail matter, Judge J. H. Hargrave, of Lexington, is said to have been successful in his application.

The Postmaster-General Thursday referred an application made by counsel of the Louisiana Lottery Company for a brief filed in behalf of that company against the recent order affecting lottery mail matter, Judge J. H. Hargrave, of Lexington, is said to have been successful in his application.

Mr. J. H. Hargrave, of Lexington, is said to have been successful in his application.

The Postmaster-General Thursday referred an application made by counsel of the Louisiana Lottery Company for a brief filed in behalf of that company against the recent order affecting lottery mail matter, Judge J. H. Hargrave, of Lexington, is said to have been successful in his application.

Mr. J. H. Hargrave, of Lexington, is said to have been successful in his application.

The Postmaster-General Thursday referred an application made by counsel of the Louisiana Lottery Company for a brief filed in behalf of that company against the recent order affecting lottery mail matter, Judge J. H. Hargrave, of Lexington, is said to have been successful in his application.

Mr. J. H. Hargrave, of Lexington, is said to have been successful in his application.

The Postmaster-General Thursday referred an application made by counsel of the Louisiana Lottery Company for a brief filed in behalf of that company against the recent order affecting lottery mail matter, Judge J. H. Hargrave, of Lexington, is said to have been successful in his application.

Mr. J. H. Hargrave, of Lexington, is said to have been successful in his application.

The Postmaster-General Thursday referred an application made by counsel of the Louisiana Lottery Company for a brief filed in behalf of that company against the recent order affecting lottery mail matter, Judge J. H. Hargrave, of Lexington, is said to have been successful in his application.

Mr. J. H. Hargrave, of Lexington, is said to have been successful in his application.

The Postmaster-General Thursday referred an application made by counsel of the Louisiana Lottery Company for a brief filed in behalf of that company against the recent order affecting lottery mail matter, Judge J. H. Hargrave, of Lexington, is said to have been successful in his application.

Mr. J. H. Hargrave, of Lexington, is said to have been successful in his application.

The Postmaster-General Thursday referred an application made by counsel of the Louisiana Lottery Company for a brief filed in behalf of that company against the recent order affecting lottery mail matter, Judge J. H. Hargrave, of Lexington, is said to have been successful in his application.

Mr. J. H. Hargrave, of Lexington, is said to have been successful in his application.

The Postmaster-General Thursday referred an application made by counsel of the Louisiana Lottery Company for a brief filed in behalf of that company against the recent order affecting lottery mail matter, Judge J. H. Hargrave, of Lexington, is said to have been successful in his application.

Mr. J. H. Hargrave, of Lexington, is said to have been successful in his application.

The Postmaster-General Thursday referred an application made by counsel of the Louisiana Lottery Company for a brief filed in behalf of that company against the recent order affecting lottery mail matter, Judge J. H. Hargrave, of Lexington, is said to have been successful in his application.

Senator Hill's Reply to Mr. Chittenden.

Baltimore Sun. Mr. S. B. Chittenden, of Brooklyn, member of Congress from the third district of New York was lately so imprudent as to address an "open letter" in the New York Tribune to Senator B. H. Hill, of Georgia. To this Mr. Hill replies in an open letter published in the New York World. Mr. Hill's temperate, it is rational; on some points it reads as under the sophistry of the outcry against the South in a more effectual way than has lately been done. Mr. Hill says that after a quiet and careful study, in a spirit of candor than usual solicitude of the temper of North-to-South, he is compelled to admit that the impression made upon him is not a pleasant one. At no period of our Union, it seems to him, "have the Northern people so greatly or so unjustly distrusted the Southern people, nor do I think there was ever a generation at the North, who so little understood the constitution as our bond of union." Mr. Hill proceeds to illustrate by examples, and by quotations from others as well as by Mr. Chittenden, what he means by this. He cites the talk about "the final battle with rebellion," of bearing up the constitution (unless the stalwart construction of it be the true one) "and considering it, with the rebellion, to damnation," &c., and asks: "Is that what you mean by the 'gateway' to comparative good feeling and assumed national prosperity? Is this 'bearing up' process to be the 'final battle with rebellion'?" The feeling of distrust, abuse and hate of the South in the stalwarts of the North Senator Hill thinks assumes all the symptoms of a mania. It pervades everything. It is found everywhere. It is beyond reason, and fear beyond remedy. "I see no evidence," he adds, "that the North is weary of sectional strife. The Republican party lives on and thrives by this sectional strife. Bad men speculate on it, and demagogues ply as the best means of getting office." Mr. Chittenden said that "if there be anything so bedevil in our history that it can never be got out, it is the fact that Southern ideas and Southern men have generally been regarded as the American spirit as represented by the people who planted and rooted our institutions and thrift in the hard and thorough discipline of New England." To this Mr. Hill replies incisively that he had supposed that it was due to the natural advantages of the soil and climate of the country which we settled, to the industry of the people, and the protection and encouragement afforded them by the unprejudiced constitutional system of Federal and free local governments, which Washington, Jefferson, Madison, Pinckney, Rutledge and a great number of Southern men had much to do in "planting and rooting" in this country. Mr. Hill further said that he despised sectionalism. He did not believe that any one section of the country had the monopoly of either its vices or its virtues. But history teaches two facts indisputably, and these are: "First—that slavery was 'planted in the South through the hard and thorough discipline of New England.' Second—that secession was both 'planted and rooted' in the South by the constitutional system by New England, and was taught, advocated and threatened as a constitutional remedy for State grievances by leading New England statesmen many years before it was ever whispered in the South.

The first threat of secession was during the first term of Washington's administration, on the question of the war debts of the New England States. This Jefferson settled, says Mr. Hill, by a "trade" in which the New England States got their money and the Southern members got the national capital located on the Potomac. "For two generations afterwards," adds the Senator, "the favorite method of settling the Union was by giving the North the money and the South the honors. Under this process the North has grown so great that she insists upon having all the money and all the honors, and upon treating the South as criminal and traitors." Mr. Hill goes into and examines the financial relations of the two sections in the same energetic vein. He remains Mr. Chittenden that in recounting how much New York has lost by the South in secession, he gives the opposite of the ledger and says that what New York has made by the South and by slavery in the South especially, which the entire North never refused to profit by, even while condemning most loudly, is the business of the South in domination. Mr. Hill said, it was not creditable to Northern intelligence to urge it. "The South is and must remain the weaker section. She has no interest in sectionalism, but every interest in the constitutionalism. The South can be stronger in the future only in advocating the soundest of sound principles for the national credit, the national honor and the national prosperity, and in sending her ablest men to Congress as criminal and traitors." In conclusion, Mr. Hill says that the South and Southern men have forever abandoned secession, but they will never consent to admit themselves to be traitors. They will not starve the government, but they will preserve their self-respect and the respect of all brave and honorable men everywhere and for all time. Mr. Hill says he believes the secessionists to have been the most damaging element in the South, and that "the Republican party is the most dangerous enemy the Union ever had," because "it lives on sectionalism," and he concludes thus: "It is strange that leaders, who have grown up and are powerful by sectionalism should desire to make a solid North against a solid South, and thus perpetuate their fortunes and power? But it will be strange if an intelligent people cannot penetrate such a transparent purpose and prevent its accomplishment. I hope and believe the present will prove a year of purgation to the Democracy, and cleansing the party of its internal feuds and its running after issues, will result to sound principles and a healthy condition for 1880. If so, we shall be able to present a man for the Presidency whose nomination will be an honor to the party, whose election will be an honor to the people, and whose wise and patriotic administration will inspire confidence in all good men, will maintain the national honor and the national credit and advance the issues, will result to sound principles and a healthy condition for 1880. If so, we shall be able to present a man for the Presidency whose nomination will be an honor to the party, whose election will be an honor to the people, and whose wise and patriotic administration will inspire confidence in all good men, will maintain the national honor and the national credit and advance the issues, will result to sound principles and a healthy condition for 1880. If so, we shall be able to present a man for the Presidency whose nomination will be an honor to the party, whose election will be an honor to the people, and whose wise and patriotic administration will inspire confidence in all good men, will maintain the national honor and the national credit and advance the issues, will result to sound principles and a healthy condition for 1880. If so, we shall be able to present a man for the Presidency whose nomination will be an honor to the party, whose election will be an honor to the people, and whose wise and patriotic administration will inspire confidence in all good men, will maintain the national honor and the national credit and advance the issues, will result to sound principles and a healthy condition for 1880. If so, we shall be able to present a man for the Presidency whose nomination will be an honor to the party, whose election will be an honor to the people, and whose wise and patriotic administration will inspire confidence in all good men, will maintain the national honor and the national credit and advance the issues, will result to sound principles and a healthy condition for 1880. If so, we shall be able to present a man for the Presidency whose nomination will be an honor to the party, whose election will be an honor to the people, and whose wise and patriotic administration will inspire confidence in all good men, will maintain the national honor and the national credit and advance the issues, will result to sound principles and a healthy condition for 1880. If so, we shall be able to present a man for the Presidency whose nomination will be an honor to the party, whose election will be an honor to the people, and whose wise and patriotic administration will inspire confidence in all good men, will maintain the national honor and the national credit and advance the issues, will result to sound principles and a healthy condition for 1880. If so, we shall be able to present a man for the Presidency whose nomination will be an honor to the party, whose election will be an honor to the people, and whose wise and patriotic administration will inspire confidence in all good men, will maintain the national honor and the national credit and advance the issues, will result to sound principles and a healthy condition for 1880. If so, we shall be able to present a man for the Presidency whose nomination will be an honor to the party, whose election will be an honor to the people, and whose wise and patriotic administration will inspire confidence in all good men, will maintain the national honor and the national credit and advance the issues, will result to sound principles and a healthy condition for 1880. If so, we shall be able to present a man for the Presidency whose nomination will be an honor to the party, whose election will be an honor to the people, and whose wise and patriotic administration will inspire confidence in all good men, will maintain the national honor and the national credit and advance the issues, will result to sound principles and a healthy condition for 1880. If so, we shall be able to present a man for the Presidency whose nomination will be an honor to the party, whose election will be an honor to the people, and whose wise and patriotic administration will inspire confidence in all good men, will maintain the national honor and the national credit and advance the issues, will result to sound principles and a healthy condition for 1880. If so, we shall be able to present a man for the Presidency whose nomination will be an honor to the party, whose election will be an honor to the people, and whose wise and patriotic administration will inspire confidence in all good men, will maintain the national honor and the national credit and advance the issues, will result to sound principles and a healthy condition for 1880. If so, we shall be able to present a man for the Presidency whose nomination will be an honor to the party, whose election will be an honor to the people, and whose wise and patriotic administration will inspire confidence in all good men, will maintain the national honor and the national credit and advance the issues, will result to sound principles and a healthy condition for 1880. If so, we shall be able to present a man for the Presidency whose nomination will be an honor to the party, whose election will be an honor to the people, and whose wise and patriotic administration will inspire confidence in all good men, will maintain the national honor and the national credit and advance the issues, will result to sound principles and a healthy condition for 1880. If so, we shall be able to present a man for the Presidency whose nomination will be an honor to the party, whose election will be an honor to the people, and whose wise and patriotic administration will inspire confidence in all good men, will maintain the national honor and the national credit and advance the issues, will result to sound principles and a healthy condition for 1880. If so, we shall be able to present a man for the Presidency whose nomination will be an honor to the party, whose election will be an honor to the people, and whose wise and patriotic administration will inspire confidence in all good men, will maintain the national honor and the national credit and advance the issues, will result to sound principles and a healthy condition for 1880. If so, we shall be able to present a man for the Presidency whose nomination will be an honor to the party, whose election will be an honor to the people, and whose wise and patriotic administration will inspire confidence in all good men, will maintain the national honor and the national credit and advance the issues, will result to sound principles and a healthy condition for 1880. If so, we shall be able to present a man for the Presidency whose nomination will be an honor to the party, whose election will be an honor to the people, and whose wise and patriotic administration will inspire confidence in all good men, will maintain the national honor and the national credit and advance the issues, will result to sound principles and a healthy condition for 1880. If so, we shall be able to present a man for the Presidency whose nomination will be an honor to the party, whose election will be an honor to the people, and whose wise and patriotic administration will inspire confidence in all good men, will maintain the national honor and the national credit and advance the issues, will result to sound principles and a healthy condition for 1880. If so, we shall be able to present a man for the Presidency whose nomination will be an honor to the party, whose election will be an honor to the people, and whose wise and patriotic administration will inspire confidence in all good men, will maintain the national honor and the national credit and advance the issues, will result to sound principles and a healthy condition for 1880. If so, we shall be able to present a man for the Presidency whose nomination will be an honor to the party, whose election will be an honor to the people, and whose wise and patriotic administration will inspire confidence in all good men, will maintain the national honor and the national credit and advance the issues, will result to sound principles and a healthy condition for 1880. If so, we shall be able to present a man for the Presidency whose nomination will be an honor to the party, whose election will be an honor to the people, and whose wise and patriotic administration will inspire confidence in all good men, will maintain the national honor and the national credit and advance the issues, will result to sound principles and a healthy condition for 1880. If so, we shall be able to present a man for the Presidency whose nomination will be an honor to the party, whose election will be an honor to the people, and whose wise and patriotic administration will inspire confidence in all good men, will maintain the national honor and the national credit and advance the issues, will result to sound principles and a healthy condition for 1880. If so, we shall be able to present a man for the Presidency whose nomination will be an honor to the party, whose election will be an honor to the people, and whose wise and patriotic administration will inspire confidence in all good men, will maintain the national honor and the national credit and advance the issues, will result to sound principles and a healthy condition for 1880. If so, we shall be able to present a man for the Presidency whose nomination will be an honor to the party, whose election will be an honor to the people, and whose wise and patriotic administration will inspire confidence in all good men, will maintain the national honor and the national credit and advance the issues, will result to sound principles and a healthy condition for 1880. If so, we shall be able to present a man for the Presidency whose nomination will be an honor to the party, whose election will be an honor to the people, and whose wise and patriotic administration will inspire confidence in all good men, will maintain the national honor and the national credit and advance the issues, will result to sound principles and a healthy condition for 1880. If so, we shall be able to present a man for the Presidency whose nomination will be an honor to the party, whose election will be an honor to the people, and whose wise and patriotic administration will inspire confidence in all good men, will maintain the national honor and the national credit and advance the issues, will result to sound principles and a healthy condition for 1880. If so, we shall be able to present a man for the Presidency whose nomination will be an honor to the party, whose election will be an honor to the people, and whose wise and patriotic administration will inspire confidence in all good men, will maintain the national honor and the national credit and advance the issues, will result to sound principles and a healthy condition for 1880. If so, we shall be able to present a man for the Presidency whose nomination will be an honor to the party, whose election will be an honor to the people, and whose wise and patriotic administration will inspire confidence in all good men, will maintain the national honor and the national credit and advance the issues, will result to sound principles and a healthy condition for 1880. If so, we shall be able to present a man for the Presidency whose nomination will be an honor to the party, whose election will be an honor to the people, and whose wise and patriotic administration will inspire confidence in all good men, will maintain the national honor and the national credit and advance the issues, will result to sound principles and a healthy condition for 1880. If so, we shall be able to present a man for the Presidency whose nomination will be an honor to the party, whose election will be an honor to the people, and whose wise and patriotic administration will inspire confidence in all good men, will maintain the national honor and the national credit and advance the issues, will result to sound principles and a healthy condition for 1880. If so, we shall be able to present a man for the Presidency whose nomination will be an honor to the party, whose election will be an honor to the people, and whose wise and patriotic administration will inspire confidence in all good men, will maintain the national honor and the national credit and advance the issues, will result to sound principles and a healthy condition for 1880. If so, we shall be able to present a man for the Presidency whose nomination will be an honor to the party, whose election will be an honor to the people, and whose wise and patriotic administration will inspire confidence in all good men, will maintain the national honor and the national credit and advance the issues, will result to sound principles and a healthy condition for 1880. If so, we shall be able to present a man for the Presidency whose nomination will be an honor to the party, whose election will be an honor to the people, and whose wise and patriotic administration will inspire confidence in all good men, will maintain the national honor and the national credit and advance the issues, will result to sound principles and a healthy condition for 1880. If so, we shall be able to present a man for the Presidency whose nomination will be an honor to the party, whose election will be an honor to the people, and whose wise and patriotic administration will inspire confidence in all good men, will maintain the national honor and the national credit and advance the issues, will result to sound principles and a healthy condition for 1880. If so, we shall be able to present a man for the Presidency whose nomination will be an honor to the party, whose election will be an honor to the people, and whose wise and patriotic administration will inspire confidence in all good men, will maintain the national honor and the national credit and advance the issues, will result to sound principles and a healthy condition for 1880. If so, we shall be able to present a man for the Presidency whose nomination will be an honor to the party, whose election will be an honor to the people, and whose wise and patriotic administration will inspire confidence in all good men, will maintain the national honor and the national credit and advance the issues, will result to sound principles and a healthy condition for 1880. If so, we shall be able to present a man for the Presidency whose nomination will be an honor to the party, whose election will be an honor to the people, and whose wise and patriotic administration will inspire confidence in all good men, will maintain the national honor and the national credit and advance the issues, will result to sound principles and a healthy condition for 1880. If so, we shall be able to present a man for the Presidency whose nomination will be an honor to the party, whose election will be an honor to the people, and whose wise and patriotic administration will inspire confidence in all good men, will maintain the national honor and the national credit and advance the issues, will result to sound principles and a healthy condition for 1880. If so, we shall be able to present a man for the Presidency whose nomination will be an honor to the party, whose election will be an honor to the people, and whose wise and patriotic administration will inspire confidence in all good men, will maintain the national honor and the national credit and advance the issues, will result to sound principles and a healthy condition for 1880. If so, we shall be able to present a man for the Presidency whose nomination will be an honor to the party, whose election will be an honor to the people, and whose wise and patriotic administration will inspire confidence in all good men, will maintain the national honor and the national credit and advance the issues, will result to sound principles and a healthy condition for 1880. If so, we shall be able to present a man for the Presidency whose nomination will be an honor to the party, whose election will be an honor to the people, and whose wise and patriotic administration will inspire confidence in all good men, will maintain the national honor and the national credit and advance the issues, will result to sound principles and a healthy condition for 1880. If so, we shall be able to present a man for the Presidency whose nomination will be an honor to the party, whose election will be an honor to the people, and whose wise and patriotic administration will inspire confidence in all good men, will maintain the national honor and the national credit and advance the issues, will result to sound principles and a healthy condition for 1880. If so, we shall be able to present a man for the Presidency whose nomination will be an honor to the party, whose election will be an honor to the people, and whose wise and patriotic administration will inspire confidence in all good men, will maintain the national honor and the national credit and advance the issues, will result to sound principles and a healthy condition for 1880. If so, we shall be able to present a man for the Presidency whose nomination will be an honor to the party, whose election will be an honor to the people, and whose wise and patriotic administration will inspire confidence in all good men, will maintain the national honor and the national credit and advance the issues, will result to sound principles and a healthy condition for 1880. If so, we shall be able to present a man for the Presidency whose nomination will be an honor to the party, whose election will be an honor to the people, and whose wise and patriotic administration will inspire confidence in all good men, will maintain the national honor and the national credit and advance the issues, will result to sound principles and a healthy condition for 1880. If so, we shall be able to present a man for the Presidency whose nomination will be an honor to the party, whose election will be an honor to the people, and whose wise and patriotic administration will inspire confidence in all good men, will maintain the national honor and the national credit and advance the issues, will result to sound principles and a healthy condition for 1880. If so, we shall be able to present a man for the Presidency whose nomination will be an honor to the party, whose election will be an honor to the people, and whose wise and patriotic administration will inspire confidence in all good men, will maintain the national honor and the national credit and advance the issues, will result to sound principles and a healthy condition for 1880. If so, we shall be able to present a man for the Presidency whose nomination will be an honor to the party, whose election will be an honor to the people, and whose wise and patriotic administration will inspire confidence in all good men, will maintain the national honor and the national credit and advance the issues, will result to sound principles and a healthy condition for 1880. If so, we shall be able to present a man for the Presidency whose nomination will be an honor to the party, whose election will be an honor to the people, and whose wise and patriotic administration will inspire confidence in all good men, will maintain the national honor and the national credit and advance the issues, will result to sound principles and a healthy condition for 1