PERSONAL AND POLITICAL.

There are now fifty girls among the students of Cornell University, and thirteen of them are freshmen.

The name of Secretary McCrary will again be sent to the Senate for judge of the eighth judicial circuit, and ex-Senator Ramsey will be sent in for Secretary of War.

Gen. Gordon, of Ga., was asked by a correspondent if he ever saw the bayonet used in the war. He replied that he only saw one man killed by bayonet in battle, and that was at the night attack on Fort Steadman.

Mr. Spurgeon, it appears, "makes no bones" of taking what material he wants from the sermons of others.

NEWS AND GENERAL ITEMS: The Greek Church is reviving the doctrine of the infallibility of the Pope. The Metropolitan of Moscow has lately preached on the subject.

Caught by a "Frog" and Killed: A horrifying spectacle of a man imprisoned in the "Frog" of a railway truck, from which he vainly endeavored to extricate himself and shrieked for aid as a locomotive fatally mangled him.

Classical Opinion of Horatio: "Horatio, since my dear soul hath been mistress of her choice, and could of men distinguish her election, she hath sealed thee for herself; for thou hast been as one who, in suffering all, hath suffered nothing; a man whose fortune's buffets and rewards hath ta'en with equal thanks."

WASHINGTON, November 28.—Mr. Hendricks has written a letter to an intimate friend saying that it is necessary for the best interests of the Democratic party that he should take second place on the national ticket with Gov. Seymour; he will accept the nomination.
