Miscellaneous.J. T. ANTHONY,
DEALER IN

Northern Ice, Coal & Lumber.

Having just received my supply of Coal for the ensuing season, I am prepared to fill all orders at shortest notice. My stock is the largest ever offered in the Market and consists of various kinds for Fuel, Manufactures' and Smith's use. Persons who have formerly bought from other dealers in our local trade would consider themselves fortunate for orders in cargo and car load lots.

I have had this year round, from first of October until first of May next. My car will not run on Sundays, but will supply double quantities on Saturday.

I also continue the Lumber business and keep full stock on hand, together with Lathes, Shingles, etc.

Will be to order on shortest notice, of any quality desired; also estimates furnished on application at office, corner of Trade st. and N. C. H. R. P. O. Box, 153, Charlotte, N. C.

EVERYBODY KNOWS

That Goods of every description have advanced in the last ten days. Having bought our

DOLMANS.

He Bears De' Lam.

[N. Y. Word.]
A heavy dragoon (or drummer boy, box, etc.)
Hark how earl's ride bangs knobs;
So here he is, hot as hissing, TETON;
Angels' rappin' on the conscience bell.
Haven't, hasn't bangs;
How's he? he's a bang, bang, in hell;
But what's he? he's a bang, bang, clang!
A great old engine, which goes around;
Stimulus, for fun, and glee;
What's he? he's a bang, bang, can't be found.
An' they ain't no use o' trying.
Flames is a burnin' up higher and higher—
Surprise! oh, surprise!
You have an interest in dat fire,
And de flames is split, man!
Jump when you hear dat warnin' rhyme;
Do you hear dat bang, bang, bang?
Now is time to hump up.
