ENTERED AT THE POST-OFFICE AT CHARLOTTE

N. C., AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER.] SUNDAY, DECEMBER 7, 1879.

GRANT, THE STALWARTS AND THE SOUTHERNERS.

Hon. A. K. McClure writes thus from Washington to his paper, the Philadelphia Times:

In Republican circles there are no developments beyond a growing feeling that the stalwarts mean to strangle Grant and Grantism because of his conservative attitude toward the South. The entire administration is in the most candid sympathy with anything to beat Grant in the nominating convention, and there is now great confidence felt among the stalwart leaders that it can be done. Meantime, the South is quiet and likely to be more quiet this session than in the past. What are called the tropical rhetori-cians of Congress will be less fruitful of campaign battle cries for their eneso much the country may also be thank-

Of the first part of the above it may be said that we desire to see no man punished for a thing for which he is innocent, and therefore the strangulation of Gen. Grant on the ground stated would not only be cruel and unusual but entirely gratuitous. Of the three last sentences it may be remarked that there are some Southern Congressmen who can never open their mouths without putting a foot in it, and it is very desirable at all times that they should be muzzled. But if there are any Southern men in Washington who really know the sentiments of their sections and yet fail to speak these for fear of hurting somebody's feelings in the North, then it is about time for their constituents to call them off and replace them with men who have the courage of their convictions. "Tropical politicians" eh? Well, some of these have made the stalwarts pay very dear in debate for their "battle cries," we notice.

NORTH CAROLINA MATTERS IN CONGRESS.

On the opening day of Congress only four of the ten gentlemen who represent North Carolina in that body (two in the Senate and eight in the House), reported for duty. Neither of our Senators was there, and the only members who answered to the roll call were Messrs. Martin, of the first, Steele, of the sixth, Armfield, of the seventh and Vance, of the eighth districts. On the second day Messrs. Kitchin, of the second, and Scales, of the fifthh districts, appeared in their seats, and Mr. Steele explained for his colleague, Mr. Davis, of the fourth district, that he was paired with Mr. Dick, of Pennsylvania. On Wednesday Mr. Ransom answered the Senate roll-call and Mr. Russell, of the third district, reported in the House, leaving only Senator Vance out of pocket, he, at last accounts, being still detained in New Orleans. The following paragraphs are found in the Congressional Record's report of Wednesday's proceedings in the House: Mr. Russell, of North Carolina, introduced a bill (H. R. No. 2470) to create a new collection district in North Carolina, and to make Fayetteville a port of entry; which was read a first and second time, referred to the committee on commerce and ordered to be printed. By Mr. Vance: A paper relating to the establishment of post-routes from Collettsville, via Mulberry Valley, to Globe; from Fairview, via Arden, Z. T. Hunter's, and Avery's Creek, to Lee Resid however that the left that the said however that the left that Brittain's; from Asheville to Riceville, via Beaver Dam and Hawk Creek-all in North Carolina-to the committee on the post-office and post roads.

GRANT AND COL. WADDELL .- A Northern paper recently announced that Hon. A. M. Waddell, of North Carolina, a prominent Democrat and until lately a member of Congress from the third district of this State, was in favor of Grant for President next year and was "openly advocating his cause." At the time we expressed the opinion that there was no word of trnth in the allegation. Col. Waddell, having returned from a somewhat protracted absence from home, has made a final denial of all the charges made, concluding a letter on the subject to the Raleigh Observer in this language:

Now, I ask space in your columns to say that there is no truth whatever in the report alluded to, and also to remark, for the benefit of whom it may concern, that it is early to commence next year's campaign, and a mistake to do it by misrepresenting persons who are not before the public as candidates for office, and that if there is one thing which the Democratic party seems to have special need for at present, it is unity and harmony among its members.

NOT MUCH OF A FRIGHT.-The Democratic alarm over the movement Democratic alarm over the movement of colored people from North Carolina man's Bank, under the belief that the to Indiana isn't as great as it's cracked up to be. The colored men pouring into Indiana will have no more right to vote there at the next presidential election than so many unarmed Kentuckians from across the Ohio river .- Philadelphia Times.

it, and if there is any "Democratic alarm" at all on this subject, we would like to know in what directions and to pay a fine of 500 francs for publishing a statement of M. Humbert in which he like to know in what direction it is stigmatized the acts of the Versailles manifesting itself. The darkies are courts martial as a prostitution of justoo late moving, if they have the idea of voting next year in view. The presidential election will have been over for nearly a month before they have become citizens of Indiana.

The Tammany sachems met again last Thursday night and blackguarded Messrs. Tilden and Robinson some more. Nobody has been thinking very much about Mr. Tilden since the New York election last month, but if Tammany wants to procure his re-nomination next year, despite what has appat rently been the decrees of fate, just let it keep on abusing him. The only question of public interest now before the people of North Carolina, to which the press is turning its attention to any extent is, whether or not the Mud-Cut appropriation shall be made an issue of the next campaign, or whether the party platform shall be silent as to the question and leave it to the General Assembly for settlement.

THE STATE OF THE STATE OF

A BISHOP BOOM.

It is our bounden duty to take note of all the new booms, and we therefore ex-Gov. Richard M. Bishop, of Ohio. The Gallipolis (O.) Bulletin comes to sentence:

If the national Democracy desire success they need but perform one act to secure it—let them place the name of Richard M. Bishop on the ticket for 1880, and Ohio will be added to the long roll of Democratic States.

Bishop was Mr. Tilden's choice for the gubernatorial nomination in Ohio when the empty honor was thrust on Gen Ewing; now how would Tilden and Bishop do for the national Democratic ticket next year?

Sing, hey, the busted grocer and the bar'l.

KEY AND THE LOTTERY MEN .- Postmaster General Key had been cited to appear, last Thursday morning, before the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia to show cause why a writ of mies this session than ever before. For injunction should not be issued, restraining him from interfering with the delivery of registered letters and the payment of money orders to lottery agents. He did not appear, however, personally, or by counsel, and the case was continued until yesterday (Saturday.) This is a test action and is brought by the secretary of the Louisiana Lottery Company in Washington so as to expedite a final decision by the Supreme

> SHERMAN FIXING THINGS .- A special of a few days ago from Washington City to the Louisville Courier-Journal, is as follows:

> A delegation of native Republicans of North Carolina, headed by ex-Congressman Smith, spent the evening with Secretary Sherman. The delegation is composed of men who are not in office and who have always been Grant men heretofore, but who have, like others in the South, come to see Sherman at the latter's request to talk over the advantages of having a Sherman delegation from that State in the convention.

A correspondent of the Philadelphia Evening News nominates "Grant and Zeb Vance," and signs himself an "Ex-Confed." The Raleigh Observer, however, thinks that Gov. Vance would not relish the association, and upon this head we have our own doubts.

The chief claim that the recent message of President Hayes can have to celebrity, rests upon the fact that it

A Sharp Darkey.

Newbern Nut Shell It has always been thought that ears of corn have an even number of rows, and that one with an odd number of rows would be an impossibility. In slavery times this question was discussed, and a negro in this county claimed that he had seen ears of this kind. His master told him that he would give him his (the negro's) freedom for an ear with an odd number of rows. This was in the early spring, but in the fall, during corn-gathering time the negro came with a sound ear with thirteen rows. He got his free papers. A long time after-ward the negro told that in roa t ng time he took a sharp knife, cut out one row of grains, bound the ear together and knew just where to find it when gathering time

Mr. Seymour and the Candidacy. Special to the Phila. Times.

Washington, December 4.—Senator Kernan, Governor Seymour's friend and neighbor, said to-day that Governor Seymour had frequently averred that He said, however, that the last time Mr. Seymour told him he would not be a candidate for the Presidency he replied: "Governor, it has not been of-fered to you yet. Wait till the nomi-nation is offered, then decide whether to accept or not." He said that Mr. Seymour is in excellent health.

Foreign Snow Storms.

London, Dec. 6.-A Paris dispatch says a collision occurred Friday on the Eastern Railway line near Bandy, France, during a heavy snow storm. One person was killed and nine injured. A Geneva dispatch states that a snow storm which commenced there Wednesday continued 20 hours. Many disasters are reported from the mountains. News from the continent is delayed by snow storms.

Another Railroad Lease.

MEMPHIS, December 4.-At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Memphis and Charleston railroad held on Tuesday at Huntsville, Ala., the road was leased for twenty years to the East Tennessee and Virginia road, which road has been controlling it under tem-porary arrangements. The lessees guarantee a payment of 7 per cent. on the $4225,000 of bonds of the road.

A Herrid Rebel Claim.

A "rebel claim" made its appearance in the House yesterday. Mr. O'Conner, of South Carolina, introduced a bill to return to the colored people of the South rotten concern was backed by the government. Messrs Bragg and Conger should prepare for action.

The stockholders of the South and North Alabama Railroad have elected H. Victor Newcomb, of Louisville, president.

NEW YORK, December 4.-A regular meeting of the Tammany Hall general committee was held to-night in the remark that one has been started for Wigwam, Fourteenth street, Henry L. Clinton presiding. The treasurer's report was read and showed that there were $581,57 in the treasury. An adus containing an article marked with dress to the Democracy of the Union blue pencil, and concluding with this was adopted, sustaining their action in the recent campaign, and denouncing both Tilden and Robinson. Col. John T. Mines, of Utica, delivered a very interesting address on Southern prisons and the treatment of Federal prisoners in the South during the war. They were, he maintained, well treated, and during his captivity he met but one Confederate officer who acted hastily towards him.

A Plot Frustrated.

FLUSHING, LONG ISLAND, Dec. 6 .-Geo. Hendrickson, alias George Streker, was arrested at Hunter's Point yesterday for attempting to negotiate forged papers and letters. Subsequent developments disclosed the fact that he was concerned with a gang in a well-made plot to rob the Flushing and Queen's County Bank by decoying the president and cashier away, thereby leaving the bank in charge of one person, who would be easily overpowered.

Egyptian Movements. CATRO, Dec. 6.—A dispatch states that a special meeting of the council ministers was held yesterday, the Khedive presiding, in consequence of dispatches received stating that two chiefs, acting under the Khedive's orders, had traced Gordon Pasha to Sniani where, they found him in good health, but were prevented from bringing back letters from him. King John, with a powerful army, has gone to Gondar.

Anniversary of Pulaski's Fall.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.-The Polish residents of this city celebrated to-day the anniversary of Count Pulaski's heroic death at Savannah in 1779. Requim mass was celebrated for the repose of his soul in the Polish Catholic church at Forsyth and Staunton streets, and Rev. Father Blanacaynzi gave a short sketch of the hero's life.

Asheville Journal: About three weeks ago, Long Tom Wilson, of Cane River, Yancey county, killed four bears (fully grown) in one day. Two of them were trapped, and the other two were treed and shot. When his Honor Judge Cloud, who is now on a visit here, heard the news of Wilson's success, he wrote to the Secretary of the Interior declining the mission to convert the Cherokees to Calvanism, and is now making preparations for an extensive "bar" ount in Florida.

Before the days of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, a person troubled with a cough always consulted his physician. Now he only invests 25 cents and is cured after a few doses.
