THE NEXT CENSUS.

Northern journals have been prating considerably of late of the insignificant showing which they suppose the South will make among the sisterhood of States after the next census. In fact, the Northern people have so universally made up their minds that the South is to be after the next re-apportionment of representation in Congress a small section comparatively that they will be wofully disappointed when they see the actual returns, although these may be "cooked" by incompetent officials. Even a journal of the liberality and intelligence of the New York Herald falls in with the unthinking stalwarts and sets forth that the South will make but a poor show after 1880 in the matter of population and consequent representa-South. This will bear investigation. It is much to be doubted. The Richmond Dispatch does not believe a word of it, and speaking of the matter, a few days ago, expressed the opinion that the facts | convenient port. would be found just the other way if the other States east of the Alleghany mountains only be counted. It says upon one of the railroads leading into that the proportionate increase in Virginia is at least double what it has been in Massachusetts in the last ten years. The increase in the Southern States east of the Mississippi, it says, will offsett the increase in all the Northern States east of the Alleghanies. Then Texas alone will offset a half dozen small States, say Oregon, Nebraska, Nevada, and Colorado. Pit Arkansas and Louisiana against Kansas, and Missouri against all the Northwest west of the Mississippi. All the increase that the North will have over that in the South may thus be safely calculated not to exceed what the increase has been in Indiana, Illinois, Ohio, Michigan and Wisconsin. Now, these five States constitute, it is true, more than one-fifth of the whole Union at present. They have sixty-nine members of the National House of Representatives. If they have increased 25 per cent. they will (on the same basis) be entitled to, say, eighteen additional Representatives. These are all that the Northern States will gain under any fair census; and yet the Herald makes these assertions:

At present it requires only fortyseven electoral votes in addition to that the increase this year would be bethose of the united South to elect a tween two and three hundred thousand president, but after the next apportion- bales. He was glad to say it had been discussion, authorized the chriman to ment it will require at least a hundred. If the presidential election of 1880 were to be on the basis of the census of 1880 | grown, gathered, packed and shipped in the Republicans would be able to carry it without the State of New York.

But the South claims Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Flor-Kentucky, Texas, Louisiona, Missouri, majority. and Arkansas. These constitute about three-eighths of the Union at present. Therefore a gain of 18 in the North 11 in the South.

says, by way of conclusion:

If the Northern mind be not divested of this hastily formed opinion that the South is to be shorn of its relative strength after 1880 it will be next to | impossible for our section to secure its rights when the next re-apportionment is to be made. The South, it must be recollected, may lose absolutely with-out losing relatively. She will still constitute three-eighths of the Union after the next re-apportionment if she is not cheated out of her due proportion | particulars of the great storm and flood of representatives.

SEYMOUR AND HENDRICKS.

It has been alleged that Hon, Horatio Seymour would consent to run for the Presidency on the Democratic ticket timely, was madequade, and that to next year, with the understanding that, if elected, he could resign immediately; and it is further alleged that Hon. A RECENT RAILROAD PURCHASE.

The statement made by the Associated Press a few days ago that the Louisville and Nashville and Great Southern Railroad Company, from Louisville to Montgomery, have purchased a controling interest in the Montgomery and Mobile Railroad has been confirmed. By this arrangement a direct line is secured to Mobile, and also to Pensacola. This line has not been idle while the others have been at work, and it is the first of all the rival trunk lines southward from Ohio to reach the seacoast by a direct line of its own. The statement is that ninety-six was paid for the stock of the American bondholders, which amounts to about $1,530,000. and the representatives of the English bondholders with some $1,450,000, have consented. The entire route from Louisville to the Gulf is now under one management. This will render it necessary for the Cincinnati Southern to seek a new avenue to the coast, and it may be that this road will look anew to the railroads building across the mountains of North Carolina for a connection which will lead it to tide-water. A BRIEF MOUNING SESSION.

Representative's Death Announced -Early Adjournment in Both Houses-A Financial Bill by Voorhees.

WASHINGTON Decembers.—SENATE. Voorhees offered a resolution declaring that the Senate had heard with deep regret the propositions of the President and secretary of the treasury in their messages to inaugurate a new and uncalled for financial agitation, and destruction of the most necessary currency now in circulation, and that the interests of the country require free and unlimited coinage of both gold and silver on conditions of exact equality, and that it is the part of wise financial policy to maintain the present volume of greenbacks in circulation, and to preserve their legal-tender quality unrestricted and unimpaired as to legal effect. Laid on the table to be called up by Voorhees hereafter.

A message was received from the House announcing the adjournment of that body upon the announcement of the death of Representative Lay, and the appointment of a committee to make arrangements for his funeral and requesting that a similar committee be appointed by the Senate. The chair appointed Vest, Kirkland and Walker, and at 12:55 p. m., on motion of Vest, as a further mark of respect for the memory of Mr. Lay, the Senate ad-

House.—In his prayer this morning the chaplain alluded in a feeling man-ner to the death of A. W. Lay, of Missouri, who had been cut down in the orime of life and usefulness.

Immediately after the reading of the ournal, Clark, of Missouri, announced to the House the death of his colleague, Hon. Alfred W. Lay, stating that it was not his intention at this time to speak as the love he bore his late colleague would prompt him, but at some future time he would do so. He then offered resolutions expressing the regret which the House experienced at the death of Mr. Lay, and providing for the appointment of a committee to consist of seven members and three Senators to take orders for superintending the funeral ceremonies. The resolutions were adopted and the Speaker appointed Clark, of Missouri, Morrison, Hill, Bingham, Chalmers, Calkins and Ryan, of Kansas, as such committee on the part of the

TALMAGE TALKING.

And What He Says of the Course of Those Who Abuse Him.

New York, Dec. 8.-Rev. Mr. Talmage yesterday before commencing his sermon made answer to the proposal of the trustees that the Tabernacle congregation go out of the Presbyterian denomination. He reviewed the proceedings in his recent trial and said his enemies had not been content with assaulting him but had tried to damage the financial credit of his church by sending to religious newspapers letters packed with financial falsehoods. He said he does not wonder at the outburst of righteous indignation of his board of trustees against those ecclesiastics who are incensed because his church will not pay for stillettoes with which they have been stabbed. He said it would be very difficult for him to leave the Presbyterian church, as he was born in it and loved it. "I believe in the Brooklyn Presbytery and in the Long Island Synod and in the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church and in God the Father Almighty and the Holy Catholic Church. It is only a question of how much annoyance and nagging a great Presbyterian denomination will allow my enemies to carry on toward me without official condemnation. All I ask is that the Synod of Long Island or the General Assembly of the United States call off the pursuers. If the Presbyterian Church wants us they have us. If they don't, let them say so and we will all go together. This church was built for me to present in cond. built for me to preach in, and here I shall preach till God shall tell me to

Decision in the South Carolina Railroad Case

CHARLESTON, Dec. 8.—The case of the South Carolina Railroad was before the United Circuit Court this morning on motion for a full hearing and a final decree, on which an appeal to the Supreme Court might be based. This was approved and the Court refused to grant the motion on the ground that no final decree could be made until all the creditors had been called in. Another will be granted tomorrow appointing a referee before whom the creditors will be summoned to prove their claims, and the case will be presented for final hearing at the April term. An order was granted permitting the receiver of the road to tender bills of the bank of the State of South Carolina in payment of State taxes and to litigate points of law thus raised.
