At last there there seems to be a prospect of getting some water in the wells. There are many wells in the city that have not yielded a bucketful in six weeks or two months.

Mr. Vance presented to the House of Representatives, Monday, the petition of citizens of Western North Carolina praying for the removal of the Federal court from Statesville to Morganton. Referred to the judiciary committee.

Nearly all our merchants are preparing for the Christmas holidays. Brookfield & Co., announce in our advertising columns that they are prepared for the gay season, and no one can look at their elegant establishment without fully convincing himself of this fact.

In accordance with the request of the county commissioners, preferred through the sheriff, Gov. Jarvis has of-fered a reward of $200 for the appre-hension and delivery to the sheriff of Mecklenburg, of Bob Pharr, colored, accused of the murder of Kerr Watt, also colored, at Pineville recently. For other particulars, see the proclamation published in our advertising columns.

The Pool.

Next Wednesday there will be a regular meeting of the Southern railway and steamship association held in Atlanta. A full attendance of the representatives of all the great roads of the South and Southwest may be expected. The association will be engaged on a regulation of rates and the transaction of routine business. The leading lines running into this city and forming Southern connections will have representatives in attendance.

Another Marriage.

Yesterday, in Steel Creek township, at 3 p. m., our estimable clerk of the Superior Court, Capt. John R. Erwin, was married to Miss Sallie W. Grier, daughter of the late Col. W. M. Grier, and sister of Capt. C. E. Grier, of this city. The ceremony was performed at the residence of the bride's brother, Mr. prices.

The Wrong Name. A mistake was made yesterday morning in the name of the United States commissioner who was ordered by Judge Dick to appear at the next term of the court to show cause why he of the court to show cause why he should not be removed from office for drunkenness, and also for engaging in a "raid." This occurrence took place in one of the counties east of Charlotte one of the counties east of Charlotte, while Mr. H. Cabaness, whose name was given, lives in Cleaveland, and had nothing to do with it. It was simply a mistake in the name.

As Big a Man as Old Proctor.

A Wilmington man wrote to Prof. John H. Tice to get his weather predictions for the winter, with the idea, probably, of ascertaining just how the weather wouldn't be. Here is what the professor writes in reply: "Yours of the 1st inst received, Indications now

On the Cotton Market.

Yesterday was a bad day on the cotton market. The toppling which com-menced Wednesday afternoon continued all yesterday and at the close prices were 91 points below the highest point of the day before. Holders were very blue, some cotton which came in on wagons was hauled back by the farmers on account of the giving way of the market, and some of the cotton that was bought was stored. The greatest anxiety is felt to know how the market will open this morning. Some appre-hend that the break in prices which has been predicted has at last come, and it may be, but there is no telling.

Marriage in Lincolnton.

V. Q. Johnson, the superintendent, and Mr. T. H. Cobb, a well-known and promising young law-yer of Lincolnton, with a few friends. They were married in the Presbyterian church in Lincolnton yesterday, Rev. R. Z. Johnston, pastor, officiating, immediately after which they boarded the special train and started for Rockingham, Richmond county, to visit Col.

A colored man hamed 3. W. Edwards was in The Observer office yesterday. He is the same who was quoted a few days since as having publicly stated that Harvey Kingsbury, the negro whom Messrs. Glover and Bales were talent in the court house yesterday af- accused of losing last summer, had returned to the county in August after the occurrence. He came up, he said, to re-affirm the statements that have fur trade in Charlotte? A newspaper says there's millions in rabbit skins prepared to prove every word be bas prepared to prove every word he has said. He furthermore asserts that Kingsbury came back for the purpose of surrendering himself to the authorities, but was dissuaded from so doing by his colored friends, Bill Adams and others, who reminded him that he was Accepting this advice he finally decided to leave, agreeing before hand to change his name. After staying in the county at least a week, he left. Edwards says that he has been greatly abused for telling it abused for telling it, and has been threatened to such an extent that he is afraid to leave his home at night. Thus vanishes the wonderful cock and bull story of the murder of Harvey Kingsbury.

Another Opinion On It.

The readers of THE OBSERVER, many of whom have heard Gov. Vance's lecture on "The Scattered Nation," will be interested in reading the following opinion of it from the editor of the Southern Presbyterian, who heard it recently in New Orleans:
"We had the pleasure last week of listening to a lecture by Senator Vance, of North Carolina, on 'The Scattered Nation.' It is a subject on which he has lectured before, in other places, and the impression it made elsewhere crea-ted a very earnest desire to hear it. For the cause of the Bethel, he allowed himself to be prevailed on to deliver it. We were among the audience who were instructed by its learning, charmed by its eloquence, and amused by its flashes of humor. "The Senator is a bold speaker as well as a sound thinker. In these days of dilletanteism it is positively sensational to hear a public speaker who has nerve enough to say that the idolatry of Greece and Rome was 'beastly,' or that our so-called scientists 'worship science be-cause they are ignorant of it.' But these are only some of the features of the lecture. If you have an opportunity to hear it, don't neglect it. "The Senator has made a host of friends among us. We hope that he will repeat his visit."

The Statesville News. Another sensation awaits the town in another fashionable wedding, which is put down among the things that are to happen next week.

There is talk of Col. Julian Allen building a large addition to his cigarette factory and largely increasing his force of operatives. He has succeeded finely since he commenced business. News has been received of the recent marriage in Memphis, Tenn., of Miss Carrie, daughter of Dr. A. W. Lawrence, a native of Iredell and this season quarrelatives likewise in Charlotte.

Jo. Gillespie, colored, who was con-victed in Alexander court last week of complicity in the murder of Mr. W.G. Fowler, of Mooresville, a year ago, has been brought to Statesville jail for safe keeping. He is to be hanged at Taylorsyille on the 30th of January instead of the 29th of December, as stated in the THE OBSERVER of Tuesday.

Iredell Superior Court, Judge Schenck, met last Monday. The State docket is not very large and the cases are not parprofessor writes in reply: "Yours of the 1st inst. received. Indications now are for a mild, open winter if present atmospheric conditions prevail through the whole season. About December 10th they may change. If they do they may change they are they were they may change. If they do, then what ever changes this will produce will prevail until the middle of February when another change will take place."

The Free School in First Ward,

To the Editor of The Observer: The male department of the free school in our ward has been suspended ATTENTION, for want of a comfortable house. We have a house which, if finished, would answer very well-needs ceiling, stove flue and glass.

We have, I learn, over $500 on hand now. If the funds cannot be furnished otherwise, why not use a part of the school fund and fix up the house that we may have a school?

It is the duty of every good citizen to assist in the cause of educating the rising generation. The citizens of the First Ward are earnestly requested to meet at the mayor's office, at 7 p. m., Friday, to con-

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

Whereas, We, the members of Wm. R. Davie Lodge, No. 37, A. F. & A. M., having in the infinite wisdom of Almighty God, the great Architect of the Universe, been deprived by death of our much esteemed brother Jacob Berrier, deem it fit and proper to give some expression to the emotions with which we are touched by this sad event, and express our appreciation of the many virtues of our deceased brother; therefore generally of which he was a most worthy member and ornament. There were no regular attendants, but ed brother our heartfelt sympathy and condoience Mr. B. C. Cobb and Mr. Robt. J. Shipp in this their irreparable bereavement.
