THE GENUINE

DR. C. McLANE'S

Celebrated American

WORM SPECIFIC

OR

VERMIFUGE.

SYMPTOMS OF WORMS.

The countenance is pale and lead-colored, with occasional flushes, or a circumscribed spot on one or both cheeks; the eyes become dull; the pupils dilate; an azure semicircle runs along the lower eyelid; the nose is irritated, swells, and sometimes bleeds; a swelling of the upper lip; occasional headache, with humming or throbbing of the ears; an unusual secretion of saliva; slimy or furred tongue; breath very foul, particularly in the morning; appetite variable, sometimes voracious, with a gnawing sensation of the stomach, at others, entirely gone; fleeting pains in the stomach; occasional nausea and vomiting; violent pains throughout the abdomen; bowels irregular, at times constive; stools slimy, not unfrequently tinged with blood; belly swollen and hard; urine turbid; respiration occasionally difficult, and accompanied by hiccup; cough sometimes dry and convulsive; uneasy and disturbed sleep, with grinding of the teeth; temper variable; but generally irritable, &c.

Whenever the above symptoms are found to exist, DR. C. McLANE'S VERMIFUGE will certainly effect a cure.

IT DOES NOT CONTAIN MERCURY in any form; it is an innocent preparation, not causing doing the slightest injury to the most tender infant.

The genuine DR. C. McLANE'S VERMIFUGE bears the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS. on the wrapper.

LIVER PILLS

are not recommended as a remedy "for all the ills that flesh is heir to," but in affections of the liver, and in all Bilious Complaints, Dyspepsia and Sick Headache, or diseases of that character, they stand without a rival.

AGUE AND FEVER.

No better cathartic can be used preparatory to, or after taking Quinine. As a simple purgative they are unequalled.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

The genuine are never sugar coated. Each box has a red wax seal on the lid, with the impression DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS.

Each wrapper bears the signatures of C. McLANE and FLEMING BROS.

Insist upon having the genuine DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, prepared by Fleming Bros., of Pittsburgh, Pa., the market being full of imitations of the name McLANE, spelled differently but same pronunciation.

Not Without Reasoning.

It is a pity that the names of all the persons who each month draw all the prizes in the monthly scheme of the Louisiana State Lottery Company are not published for the purpose of showing to the public that every dollar goes to the good of the company, and that the names of the winners are not kept secret, but are published for the benefit of the company, and that the names of the winners are published for the benefit of the company, and that the names of the winners are published for

The Southern Soldier Boy.

BY BATES BRYAN.

Young as the youngest who donned the gray,

True as the truest who wore the blue,

Brave as the bravest, he marched away,

(His tears on the cheeks of his brother lay.)

Triumphant waved our flag one day,

He fell in the front before it.

Firm as the firmest, where duty led,

He hurried without falter to the front,

Bold as the boldest, he fought and bled,

And the day was won—but the field was red,

And the blood of the true young heart was shed,

On his country's hallowed altar.

On the trampled breast of the battle plain,

Where the foremost ranks had wrestled,

On his pale, pure face, that had been of late,

(His mother dreams they will meet again.)

The fairest form amid all the slain,

Like a child asleep—he nestled.

In the solemn shades of the woods that swept

The field where his comrades had fallen,

He lay in the one last lifeless and lone;

There is not a name, there is not a stone—

And only the voice of the wind wails moan

Over the grave where never a flower is sown.

But his memory lives in the hearts of the true.

OBSERVATIONS.

The best part of a holiday is the day before.

The medical attendant of Princess Louise says that it is so.

What is sauce for the goose is quite likely to impart a disagreeable relish to the gander. Yours respectfully, J. G. Blaine.

Harper's Bazar tells of a Mexican Governor who, at a dinner, had seventeen courses of hush served before the main part of the meal.

The Lancet recommends light colors for cold weather, as they do not part with heat easily, and says that this is why the poor bear less winter fatigue than the rich.

A Paris letter says Sarah Bernhardt is coming to America, and that she will hug "the North Atlantic coast." Great heavens! Women, negroes and all!

There are pianists so expert in variations that they can play all around a melody or an old tune without ever hitting it once.—New Orleans Picayune.

"The captain is going to haul down all the sheets immediately," said a passenger on one of the ocean steamers as he came down below. "Ow!

the red thing; she'll come in here at any rate," shrieked a sailor, following the hanging of a stateroom door.—Boston

In States where the Moffett liquor register is used every drunkard is a State officer in so far as it is made his duty to see that he keeps sober, and drinks with care. This punishing under goes into the State officer's blind drunk, and then the bar-keeper punches his head instead of the register cards.

MAN AGAINST DOG.

Particulars of the Degrading Exhibition in St. Louis.

The fight between "Patsy Brennan," the prize-fighter, and the Siberian bloodhound, was one of the most degrading spectacles ever witnessed. The dog was of the very largest breed, resembling more a calf in size than a dog, and its muscles were as hard as iron. It seemed to be nothing but muscle. Its head and face were the most repulsive that were ever carried by a dog. The fight took place in an old stable, and among the spectators were an ex-policeman, commissioner, ex-judge, three members of the House of Delegates, a very prominent physician and several business men. Brennan stripped to the waist.

The owner of the dog had much difficulty in holding the Siberian until time was called, and then with a vicious "seek him, Figs," the bloodhound was released and leaped straight for the throat of the prize-fighter, who sprang

STATE NEWS.

Madison county has a tobacco ware-

Judge Wm. J. Clark has commenced the publication of a Republican paper at Raleigh, called the Signal.

The News says: There are seventeen papers published in Raleigh besides the advertising sheets.

The mortality statistics of Wilmington, as given in the Star, show the total number of interments in the cemeteries of that city for the year to have been 495—whites 154; colored 341.

Wilmington Star: The register of deeds issued a total of 229 marriage licenses during the year just closed, of which 80 were for white and 149 for colored couples.

Captain Charles W. Ewe, well known in connection with the press of Asheville, left Monday for Washington City, to accept a position in the government printing office.

About $100 net was realized by the Ladies Aid Society, of Raleigh, from the cake given at Tucker Hall on Tuesday night for the benefit of the poor.

The Asheville Journal, Republican, throws a bait out to Capt. W. M. Cooke, by saying that a fine Republican Congressman he would make. He ran as "independent" candidate for Superior Court Judge in 1878 and was badly beaten.

Wilmington Star: The Wilmington depositors of the Freedmen's Savings and Trust Company are to have a meeting at the court house, on Monday night next, the 5th inst., at 7 1/2 o'clock, with the object of petitioning Congress to pass a bill for the relief of the depositors of said bank, introduced recently by Mr. O'Connor, of the Charleston, S.

C., district.

Asheville Journal: At 10 a. m. last Saturday, Miss Mary Baird died at the residence of Mr. Bacherus Smith, of this place, from cancer. Miss Mary was a sister to Mr. A. E. and Joseph Baird, and also to Gov. Vance's mother. She was about 50 years of age, was never married, and suffered immensely with cancer of the breast, until it was cut out at Raleigh in 1878. It again broke out under her arm, soon thereafter, from which she died.

The Deaf Mute's Journal of New York says: "To Mr. Wm. D. Cooke formerly Principal of the North Carolina Institution for the Deaf, Dumb and Blind, may be properly given the credit of publishing the first Institution paper in the United States, which he called 'The Casket.' The Valley Virginian also adds that to the same gentleman is due the credit of first in-roducing the art of printing as one of the mechanical branches into any Institution in the United States, and also the first steam power press in North Carolina.

Raleigh News: We have had the pleasure of meeting in our city Mr.

George T. Leach, of the noted firm

H. K. & F. B. Thurber & Co., of New York city, who has just returned from Durham, having bought the stock, trade-mark fixtures, as well as the good will of the late J. B. Day & Co., to their well known brand of smoking tobacco, known as "Standard of the World." The Messrs. Thurber will bring their immense mercantile influence, with an unlimited capital to bear on the business, and they expect bigger things for Durham than ever.

Emancipation Day was very creditably and successfully celebrated by the colored people of Raleigh. A very large crowd of colored people came in from the country to the fair grounds monies. President W. R. Harris delivered the introductory speech. This was followed by a short, practical address from Gov. Jarvis. E. H. Lip-pscomb read the proclamation, and a young woman, Jane E. Thomas, the anversary poem. Chas. N. Otey, of Washington City, was the orator of the day.

In introducing Gov. Jarvis President

Harris spoke of him as a man who, although elevated to office by a party, since his assumption of its high duties had been the Governor of the whole people, irrespective of party, color, creed, race, or previous condition, the runder of a great commonwealth.
