lations of the ordinances. After Barney Macauley comes the Bowers-Thompson troupe, one of the very strongest that has been on the road this winter. A very elegant and largely attended german was given last night at the Pleasure Club's rooms, by one of the members thereof, to Miss Fanny Moore, of Augusta, now visiting in the city.

New Year's Sermons.

Several of the pastors in charge of city churches preached discourses Sun- | sin, and humiliation before God day especially appropriate to the new year season. A prominent idea in at least two of the discourses was the duty | growth in grace, and its enlargement; of Christian people to support their own churches by their own means. One of the pastors remarked in the course of his sermon that if his salary had to be raised by outsiders, and by means of entertainments, &c., it were better that he should resign. The ministers generally gave encouraging accounts of the progress of Christianity.

Important to Merchants and Other Business People.

Merchants and other business people are reminded of the fact that the State and town require them to return to the register of deeds within ten days after the 1st day of January, 1880, a true and exact statement of the amount of purchases made by them as principals or agents or through agents or commission merchants, for the six months ending the 31st day of December, 1879. The amount of purchases, both in and out of the State, must be included in the returns. The purchases of liquors must be kept separate from those of goods, and the coldest month was February, wares and merchandise.

His name is Harvey Patterson, and his reputation is very bad. He was sent t) the chain gang for thirty days for the trespass. The investigation of the other charges was not gone into, but the evithat he should be bound over to the Superior Court in the sum of $300.

The Augusta Races-Charlotte Stable. The Augusta races begin to-day, and quite a number of Charlotte people will avail themselves of the cheap railroad fare to witness them. It is stated that attend. T. H. Woods in charge of the Charlotte stable shows the following:

Weddings in the First Presbyterian

At a recent meeting of the officers of the First Presbyterian church, a resolution was passed, which was read to the congregation by the pastor, Sunday, declaring that hereafter no one should be admitted into the church building to witness wedding ceremonies, unless by card, and in no instance should more than three hundred persons be allowed in the church to witness such ceremony. It was further ordered that on such occasions no one would be allowed to occupy the gallaries except the members of the choir. It is understood that the officers were impelled to adopt these rules from several motions, chief of which is the alarm which many persons feel when the church is filled, as it has been on several occasions, to its utmost capacity.

The Horse-Shoe.

One of the most popular styles of jewelry this season, is the horse-shoe. One encounters it everywhere in breastpins, scarf-pins, ornaments for hats, printed on wedding invitations, acc. In connection with the subject, a writer says: "Hundreds and hundreds of years ago, in the distant land of Norsemen, before they had come down and over-run all Europe, the down and over-run all Europe, the ago rangeded as a charm of the control of the oldest and best physicians and nurses in the United States. Sold everywhere. printed on wedding invitations, &c. down and over-run all Europe, the horse-shoe was regarded as a charm against the spell of witchcraft; it was a belief that had been perpetuated for ages that when people wished to keep away harm from cattle, a horse-shoe was hung over the stable door, and from the house, it was hung over the housedoor. It was hung up to bring good Its deeper meaning was that people believed in a power above and beyond them."

The Week of Prayer.

The following is the programme recommended by the Evangelical Alliance to the churches of the United States for the observance of the week of prayer. Sunday, January 4.-Sermons on the 'Fullness of Christ's Salvation."

Monday, January 5.—Thanksgiving for the blessings of the past year, and prayer for their continuance. Tuesday, January 6.-Confession of

Wednesday, January 7.—Prayer, for the Church of Christ, its ministers, its and for revivals of religion throughout our country.

Thursday, January 8.—Prayer for Christian education; for the family, and institutions of learning; for Sunday schools and Christian Associations. So far as has been learned none of the churches in Charlotte are observing the week, although services in the two Presbyterian churches, preparatory to the communion next Sunday, will be held beginning Wednesday night.
