The Spofford-Kellogg Contested Case -The Inter-Oceanic Canal---Bills Introduced.

Washington, March 22. -- Senate.-Hill, of Georgia, from the committee contested election case, declaring Spo!ford entitled to the seat in the Senate now occupied by Kellogg.

Hoar, from the same committee, presented a minority report, signed by himself, Cameron, Wise and Logan. Hoar read this report whereon Hill proceeded to read the majority report, which is very long. It charges Kellogg with fraud and corrupt conduct and includes long extracts from evidence taken before the committee.

Indifinitely postponed. The minority report on the Kellogg-Spofford case says nothing has changed
